MOST WORSHIPFUL BROTHER
GARY L. ATKINSON
GRAND MASTER

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF OUR GRAND MASTER

M.W. Bro. Gary Laverne Atkinson was born in Petrolia, Ontario, in the County of Lambton. He was raised in the Village of Wyoming (now the Town of Plympton-Wyoming) and graduated from Lambton Central Collegiate Vocational Institute in Petrolia.

After starting his working career in the automotive industry, he ventured to Sarnia's Chemical Valley, where he gained employment working for Imperial Oil for a period of two years.

In 1972, he joined Shell Canada, at the Refinery in Corunna, Ontario. Throughout his career at Shell Canada he progressed to the position of Senior Operator, and served as the site's Chairman of the Safety Promotions Team for a period of twenty years. He retired from the Sarnia Manufacturing Centre in June 2005, after thirty-three (33) years' service.

In 1978, he married the former Sandy Bentley from St. Thomas, and they have two grown sons; Greg, a Heavy Equipment Operator and Apprentice Mechanic, and Drew, currently a student at Lambton College, in Sarnia, looking forward to a career as a Horticultural Technologist, and working in the golf industry.

Both Greg and Drew are members of Burns' Lodge No. 153, and have recently started through the Officer Progression Programme of the lodge.

M.W. Bro. Atkinson was initiated into, and is an Honorary Life Member of, Burns' Lodge No. 153. He served as the Worshipful Master in 1979 and was the Lodge Secretary for 15 years. In 2001, he was named Secretary Emeritus.

In 1986, Bro. Atkinson was elected District Deputy Grand Master of the Sarnia District.

A member of the Board of General Purposes since 1989, he served our Grand Lodge as a member of various committees, namely, Benevolence, Masonic Education, Condition of Masonry, Long Range Planning, Blood Donors and Communications, chairing the last two committees. In 1999, he was elected to serve on the Management Committee. From 1994-1999, he served as a Director of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

In July 2003, he was elected Deputy Grand Master. Installed as Grand Master July 23, 2005.

He is the Grand Representative of our Grand Lodge to the Grand Lodge of Guatemala.

M.W. Bro. Atkinson is a member of both the York and Scottish Rite bodies. In September 2005, he was coroneted a 33° Mason in Toronto, Ontario.

He is an Honorary Member of Burns' No. 153, Wyoming; Alexandra No. 158, Oil Springs; Havelock No. 238, Watford; Moore No. 294, Sarnia; Mount Olivet No. 300, Thorndale; Ionic No. 328, Napier; Huron No. 392, Camlachie; Leopold No. 397, Brigden; Liberty No. 419, Sarnia; Tuscan No. 437, Sarnia; St. Paul No. 601, Sarnia; St. John's No. 20, London; Corinthian No. 96, Barrie; Lebanon Forest No. 133, Exeter; King Solomon's No. 378, London; Burns No. 436, Hepworth; Caledonia No. 637, Scarborough; Oak Branch No. 261, Innerkip; Acacia No. 61, Hamilton; Victoria No. 56, Sarnia; Ancient St. John's No. 3, Kingston; and a Charter Member (now honorary member) of New Light No. 744, in Waterloo District.

M.W. Bro. Atkinson is a member of the Wyoming United Church. When not involved in his Masonic endeavours, he is actively involved in many community activities. They are:

- Past President and Director of the Plympton & Wyoming Agricultural Society.
- Director for St. Francis Advocates – a residence for autistic adults.
- Former member of the Committee of Adjustment for the Town of Plympton-Wyoming.
- Coach in the Wyoming Minor Baseball Association; awarded Coach of the Year in 2000.

In February of 2003, Bro. Atkinson became the recipient of the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal for his contribution to his community and Freemasonry.

His hobbies include Motorcycling, Quarter Horses, Gardening and Classic Cars.

PAST GRAND MASTERS

The Grand Master presented our Past Grand Masters who were present, namely: M.W. Bros. Robert E. Davies, Ronald E. Groshaw, William R. Pellow, David C. Bradley, C. Edwin Drew, Durward I. Greenwood and Terence Shand. Grand Honours were given.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME TO GRAND LODGE

W. Bro. Michael Klesitz, Master of Malone Lodge No. 512, Toronto District 6, delivered the Address of Welcome, which was responded to by M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, Grand Master.

MINUTES

The Grand Secretary proceeded to read the Minutes of the last meeting held in Toronto, on July 21, 2004, when it was moved by M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, seconded by M.W. Bro. C. E. Drew, and resolved: That inasmuch as the Minutes of the last Annual Communication held in Toronto have been printed and distributed to all constituent lodges the same be now taken as read and confirmed.

RULES OF ORDER

As the Grand Secretary read the Rules of Order as prescribed by the Constitution of Grand Lodge, it was moved by M.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. R. Pellow, and resolved: That the Order of Business of this Annual Communication be changed at the discretion of the Grand Master.

M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby announced that R.W. Bro. Robert T. Runciman had accepted the request to serve as parliamentarian, and any controversial constitutional problems that may arise would be decided by Bro. Runciman.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren,

WELCOME

The Psalmist has written, "This is the day which the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." It is in the spirit of rejoicing for our coming together, that I welcome you to the 150th Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge. As we conclude the celebrations of this, our sesquicentennial, we can look back on our history and our heritage with tremendous pride for we have come so far and have accomplished so much. At the same time, however, we must look to the future with hope and optimism, approaching each day not only as a new dawning with all the promise that it brings but as an opportunity to diffuse the light of Freemasonry into all corners of our communities. May unity be the key as we enter this new era – unity of purpose to bring the stimulus of Masonic morality to a world that is rife with bigotry and hatred; unity of purpose to make our lodges places of enjoyment, enlightenment and education; and that unity of purpose which will enable us to put old slights and hurts behind so that we may proceed harmoniously through the door of a new day and a new year. You, the dedicated and devoted Masons of this jurisdiction, are the men who will make this possible and I extend my personal appreciation to each and every one of you for all you have done and are doing to promote the ideals of Freemasonry.

I would also like to welcome our guests, many of whom have traveled some considerable distance to be with us today. You honor us with your presence and we hope your stay will be pleasant and fulfilling. From a personal perspective, I thank you for the gift of your friendship that I value so highly.

NECROLOGY

Once again we have felt the sting of death as friends and colleagues who have done so much to advance this Fraternity have passed through that veil that separates the transitory from the eternal. While we remember all who have gone before us, I would like to make special reference to the following:

V.W. Bro. Melvin Sheldon Boomhour

Born in Napanee, Ontario, V.W. Bro. Boomhour was initiated, passed and raised in Tamworth Lodge No. 404 and served as Worshipful Master between 1978 and 1980. He also served as Worshipful Master of Cathedral Lodge No. 643, in Toronto, in 1985, and was appointed Grand Tyler in 1986. He was a member of the Toronto Lodge of Perfection and Rose Croix, as well as a member of Moore Sovereign Consistory, receiving his 32° in 1977.

V.W. Bro. Boomhour was a member of Peel Chapter and Brampton Chapter, Royal Arch Masons. He served as Grand Superintendent of Toronto District 8a in 1993, was appointed to the Grand Executive Committee of Grand Chapter in 1966, elected Grand Third Principal in 1998, Grand Second Principal in 1980 and Grand First Principal in 1980. V.W. Bro. Boomhour passed away peacefully on February 18, 2005.

R.W. Bro. Arnold Dennis Mortson

R.W. Bro. Mortson was born in Arnfield, Quebec, but spent most of his life in Ontario. He was initiated, passed and raised in Englehart Lodge No. 534 and served as Worshipful Master in 1969–1970. He was elected District Deputy Grand Master of Temiskaming District in 1986–1987, and was subsequently appointed to the Board of General Purposes in 1989–1990. A dedicated and hard working member, he worked diligently to promote Freemasonry within the community. He was a member of North Bay Lodge of Perfection, the North Bay Chapter of Rose Croix and Moore Sovereign Consistory in Hamilton. He was coroneted an Hon. Inspector General 33° on February 14, 2005, just three days before he died.

M.W. Bro. Nathan Granstein

Freemasonry throughout the World suffered a grievous loss in April 2005, with the passing of M.W. Bro. Granstein, a member of the Grande Loge Nationale Française, and an honorary Past Deputy Grand Master of this jurisdiction. He was, without doubt, one of the most knowledgeable Masons on the World scene and his presence will be sorely missed.

R.W. Bro. Walter J. Matyczuk

Initiated, Passed and Raised in Shuniah Lodge No. 287, Thunder Bay, R.W. Bro. Matyczuk served as Worshipful Master of Shuniah in 1973, as Secretary between 1977 and 1987 and again between 1995 and 2000, and as District Deputy Grand Master of Algoma District in 1990–1991. He was appointed to the Board of General Purposes in 1995 and served continuously until the time of his death. His last appointment was as Chairman of Masonic Benevolence, a job he performed in a highly commendable manner. An active member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, he was coroneted an Honorary Inspector General 33° in 1986 and was appointed Deputy for Ontario in 2004. R.W. Bro. Matyczuk passed away on May 25, 2005. His quiet, but towering presence will long be remembered.

R.W. Bro. Frank J. Bruce

R.W. Bro. Bruce was initiated, passed and raised in Birch Cliff Lodge No. 612. He affiliated with Confederation Lodge No. 720 and served as Worshipful Master in 1972; elected District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto 3 District in 1977–1978, and was subsequently elected to the Board of General Purposes, serving from 1979–1985. Bro. Bruce enjoyed honorary membership in several other lodges; was an Honorary Life Member of University Chapter No. 241, R.A.M.; and coroneted an Hon. Inspector General 33° on September 13, 1984, in Edmonton. R.W. Bro. Bruce passed away on November 19, 2004.

AD HOC COMMITTEES

The Ad Hoc Committee Examining the Office of Grand Secretary

Chaired by Past Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Gordon Roberts, this committee submitted its report and recommendations. These were turned over to the Management Committee for review and consideration and will form part of the Management Committee report.

The Ad Hoc Committee Examining the Condition of Masonry Within the Greater Toronto Area

R.W. Bro. Terry Horner, and the members of this committee, conducted an in depth examination of the Condition of Masonry within the Greater Toronto Area (GTA). They looked at existing facilities, membership and lodge distribution within the present structure and examined future demographics. They concluded that the current seven (7) Districts should be reduced to five (5), as this would provide for the most equitable distribution of meeting places and Masons for the long term; for the best alignment of meeting places by District; for the best opportunity for lodge amalgamations should they be deemed necessary in years to come and a more equitable work load for District Deputy Grand Masters. I concur with this recommendation and direct that it be implemented for a two (2) year trial period effective April 15, 2006.

I met with the Worshipful Masters of the lodges of the current 7 Toronto Districts on April 26, 2005. At this time the details of this report were outlined and discussed. Each Master present was presented with written copies of this proposal to take back to their respective lodges for discussion purposes.

I want to reiterate that the overall impact upon most lodges and members will be minimal. No lodge buildings will be closed, no lodges will be forced to enter into the amalgamation process and no lodges will be forced to go into darkness.

Ad Hoc Committee Examining the Special Programme Fund and Committee Expenses

R.W. Bro. Ed Standish and members of his committee have met on several occasions and have now delivered their report and recommendations, which fall into three categories: the overall Budget Process; Special Project Fund Raising and Travel Expenses. The recommendations are as follows:

1. Requests for funds are to be submitted with supporting details by the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Secretary and the Committee Chairmen by January 15th annually. These are to cover the next fiscal year.

2. Schedules of income from all sources must be prepared and where necessary estimated based on the plan for each project or source.
3. A Draft Budget is to be prepared based on requests received and modified by the Grand Treasurer for presentation to the Audit and Finance Committee by February 1 of each year.
4. The approved budget as provided by the Audit and Finance Committee is to be submitted to the Management Committee for review by March 1st each year.
5. Following review by the Management Committee and after consultation and review with the Grand Treasurer and the Audit and Finance Committee, a final budget is approved for presentation to the Management Committee for recommendation to the Board of General Purposes in July of each year. This budget should consist of five (5) columns: actual results as of April 30th of the current year and prior fiscal years; the proposed budget for the next fiscal year and projections for the subsequent 5 years.
6. A committee composed of individuals with fund raising skills and experience should be set up to pursue how additional funds may be raised for the Special Project Fund.
7. Insofar as travel expenses are concerned, it is recommended that a per diem rate be established as follows: accommodation to a maximum of $40.00 per night; meal allowance to a maximum of $10.00 per diem; mileage at the rate of .10 per kilometer. To qualify for reimbursement you must be more than 160 kilometers from home and have travel authorized by the Deputy Grand Master.

While I have received and do endorse some of these recommendations, I realize they will have considerable impact upon the budgeting process, funding and financial resources committed for future endeavors. I am, therefore, referring them to the Management Committee for further examination and discussion. It may well be beneficial to have sub-committees struck to examine different aspects of these proposals; however, in the final analysis, this will be up to the Chairman of the Management Committee.

WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL

Throughout our jurisdiction there are a number of Masons who without thought of reward or personal gain provide service above and beyond what is normally expected of any man to their lodge, their place of worship and their community. These are men who go about their daily routines in a quiet and unassuming way, providing assistance and comfort for no reason other than they know it to be right. They have never been, nor will they ever be, the Master of their lodge, and yet they are an indispensable part of it. It is to men such as these that our most prestigious award, the William Mercer Wilson Medal, is awarded.

This year the committee, composed of M.W. Bros. R. E. Davies, N. R. Richards and D. I. Greenwood, have carefully reviewed all recommendations for this honor and have recommended that the William Mercer Wilson Medal be presented to:

- Bro. Johan Frans Olberg, Temple Lodge No. 665, Ottawa
- Bro. Ralph Edwin Hamilton, Brant Lodge No. 663, Burlington
- Bro. Gary Lawson Shaver, Luxor Daylight Lodge No. 741, Ottawa
- Bro. William Roger Bain, Amity Lodge No. 32, Dunnville
- Bro. Colin Alexander Maurice, Coronati Lodge No. 520, Scarborough

PRINCE HALL FREEMASONRY

Throughout the past two years M.W. Bro. J. Halstead, Grand Master of Prince Hall Free and Accepted Masons in the Province of Ontario and jurisdictions, and I have been in regular communication. Through him an invitation was extended to all Prince Hall Masons to attend the June 25, 2005, picnic hosted by the 7 Toronto Districts in celebration of our sesquicentennial. This picnic replaced, for this year only, the Brotherhood Barbecue usually held in Windsor. I am pleased to note that not only was the picnic a success, but a goodly number of Prince Hall Brethren were present.

I am now pleased to report that, effective immediately, full right of reciprocal visitation with Prince Hall Free and Accepted Masons within this jurisdiction is authorized. This move has been fully endorsed by the Grand Master of Prince Hall Free and Accepted Masons in the Province of Ontario and jurisdictions.

A committee composed of an equal number of members from the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario and Ontario and jurisdiction Prince Hall Freemasons will be established to explore future paths that may be taken.

PAST RANK

Pursuant to Section 73 of the Book of Constitution, I recommend that the rank of Past Master be conferred upon the following: W. Bro. Gordon Cairns, Corinthian Lodge No. 700, Lakeside; W. Bro. David Rose Martin, Wellington Square Lodge No. 725, Burlington; W. Bro. James McTavish, Stratford Lodge No. 332, Stratford; and, posthumously, W. Bro. Robert Deveau, Corinthian Lodge No. 657, Kirkland Lake.

APPOINTMENTS

In accordance with Section 49 of the Book of Constitution, I have appointed R.W. Bro. James Kingston of Thunder Bay to the Board of General Purposes in order that he might serve the remainder of the term of the late R.W. Bro. Walter J. Matyczuk. This appointment will end in July 2006.

I have also appointed R.W. Bro. Paul Mullen, of London, as Chairman (pro tem) of the Benevolence Committee; such term to end following this annual communication. This appointment was necessitated by the untimely death of R.W. Bro. Matyczuk.

R.W. Bro. Ronald K. Campbell, after many years of service to our Craft is retiring from his position on the Board of General Purposes. We thank him for his long-standing commitment and wish him much success in all his future endeavours.

Pursuant to Section 131(e) of the Book of Constitution, I am pleased to recommend the appointment of R.W. Bro. Samuel Kalinowsky to a three-year term of honorary membership on the Board of General Purposes.

Further, I recommend the reappointment of R.W. Bro. David E. Jacklin to a three-year term of honorary membership on the Board of General Purposes.

MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARDS

Meritorious Service Awards are presented to those members who have worked tirelessly for a number of years to promote the cause of Freemasonry, not only within their District, but within this jurisdiction as a whole. They are men who have given freely of their time and talents and are highly respected by all with whom they come into contact.

It is my pleasure and privilege to grant the Grand Master's Meritorious Service Award to:

R.W. Bro. Robert Oliphant

Mercer Wilson Lodge No. 678, Woodstock

Lodge of Fidelity No. 231, Ottawa

The many years of dedicated service provided by these two members is truly remarkable. I commend each of you for the service you have provided to our great Fraternity and trust you will wear this award with pride.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

I am pleased to accept the recommendations of the respective Grand Masters and to confirm the appointment of the following brethren as our Grand Representatives near the Grand Lodges of:

Morocco	-	R.W. Bro. Pierre Mouselli
New York	-	R.W. Bro. Gilbert G. Adams
Grand Orient Italy	-	Bro. Alfonso Pilegi
Norway	-	Bro. Sven Jorgensen
New South Wales	-	R.W. Bro. B. K. (Brian) Burton
Denmark	-	Bro. Henrik Vaupel

I am also pleased to recommend to the Grand Masters of the respective Grand Lodges, the appointment of the following Grand Representatives of their Grand Lodges near our Grand Lodge.

Ireland	-	M.W. Bro. William R. Pellow
Idaho	-	R.W. Bro. Douglas A. Conway
Illinois	-	R.W. Bro. George R. Clauson
Austria	-	R.W. Bro. Frederick Halpern
Honduras	-	R.W. Bro. Emil Albrecht
Venezuela	-	R.W. Bro. Robert C. Tate

PAST GRAND MASTERS

Once again it is my pleasure to acknowledge the dedication, devotion and continued service provided to our Grand Lodge by the Past Grand Masters. These erstwhile leaders hold the best interests of our Grand Lodge close to their hearts and are an unparalleled source of guidance and assistance. While loathing to interfere, they have always been there when I needed them with encouragement, advice and the hand of friendship. I offer my sincere thanks for all you have done to guide and assist me throughout my time in office.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

As a career Commissioned Officer within the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, I had the good fortune of being able to command and work with a number of exceptional men; indeed, when I retired, I doubted that I would ever have the opportunity of working with people of such high calibre again. But, I am pleased to say that the Grand Lodge Officers, in particular those who lead and work on our various committees, meet and in most cases exceed the high standards set by my former colleagues. It has been a real pleasure to work with them throughout these past years and I commend them for their dedication to Freemasonry, for the diligent manner in which they have conducted their duties and for their attention to the pursuit of excellence. I owe you a deep debt of personal gratitude for the friendship you have offered and for all you have done to make this Grand Lodge one of the premiere Grand Lodges in the World. Your deep and abiding loyalty has been appreciated more than you will ever know.

To the District Deputy Grand Masters, who have unstintingly given of their time and talents in the service of the 46 Districts that comprise this jurisdiction, I offer my deep thanks and appreciation. You have all served so well and justly deserve the accolades proffered by the brethren. Marion and I would like to thank those who have so capably hosted us throughout this past year. We have appreciated being able to get to know you and your ladies just a little bit better. May you all enjoy good health throughout the coming years.

DEDICATIONS

New Lodge premises were dedicated in Kingston on October 22, 2004, and in Shelburne on May 9, 2005.

Extensive renovations to the Annette Street premises in Toronto were completed with a ceremony of rededication taking place on November 26, 2004.

ANNIVERSARIES

This has not only been a year of celebration for our Grand Lodge but it has been one in which several lodges celebrated milestone events. I have been pleased to attend and participate in lodge commemorations as follows:

25 YEARS

West Gate Lodge No. 734, Streetsville, on March 23, 2005

50 YEARS

Astra Lodge No. 682, Weston, on January 13, 2005

100 YEARS

Carleton Lodge No. 465, Carp, on September 28, 2004

The Beaches Lodge No. 473, Scarborough, on April 23, 2005

Bancroft Lodge No. 482, Bancroft, on June 18, 2005

150 YEARS

Merrickville Lodge No. 55, Burritt's Rapids, on September 11, 2004

Vaughan Lodge No. 54, Maple, on September 14, 2004

Madoc-Marmora-Tweed Lodge No. 48, Madoc, on October 2, 2004

Great Western Lodge No. 47, Windsor, on March 3, 2005

Harmony Lodge No. 57, Binbrook, on April 5, 2005

Doric Lodge No. 58, Ottawa, on April 16, 2005

Victoria Lodge No. 56, Sarnia, on May 28, 2005

160 YEARS

St. John's Lodge No. 63, Carleton Place, on April 13, 2005

CORNERSTONES

Ceremonies celebrating the relaying and rededication of cornerstones were conducted in Merrickville on September 11, 2004; at St. John's Anglican Church in Dunrobin on November 21, 2004; and at Trinity Anglican Church in Blyth on May 15, 2005.

AMALGAMATIONS

Once again several lodges have, because of dwindling numbers, financial circumstances or the constant recycling of officers, deemed it necessary to enter into the amalgamation process. I must point out that amalgamation is not a panacea to end all ills and should only be considered as a last resort. Nothing will replace hard work, dedication and effort in keeping a lodge vibrant and alive.

This year I have approved, and presided over, the following amalgamations:

December 9, 2004 – amalgamation of Cambridge Lodge No. 728 and Concord Lodge No. 722 in Waterloo District

January 12, 2005 – amalgamation of Doric Lodge No. 569 and Corinthian Lodge No. 700 in Wilson North District

February 2, 2005 – amalgamation of Cornwall Lodge No. 125 and Eastern Lodge No. 707 in Eastern District

May 24, 2005 – amalgamation of Doric Lodge No. 382 and Ancient Landmarks Lodge No. 654 in Hamilton District C

May 30, 2005 – amalgamation of Fidelity Lodge No. 575, Sunnyside Lodge No. 582 and Transportation Lodge No. 583 into Trillium Lodge No. 575 in Toronto District 2

EXTINGUISHING THE LIGHTS

Three lodges deemed it necessary to go into darkness and surrender their charters. I presided over ceremonies to Extinguish the Lights of Spruce Falls Lodge No. 648, Kapuskasing, on December 11, 2004, and Vittoria Lodge No. 359, Vittoria, on May 12, 2005. Approving such decisions is always difficult, particularly when these two lodges had sufficient numbers of members on the roll to permit them to continue. While repeated efforts were made by the few who maintained interest in the continuance of the lodges to stimulate interest among the others, such efforts evidently fell on deaf ears and no other option was deemed viable.

THE MASONIC FAMILY AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Our Masonic leaders have continued to meet bi-monthly in order to share areas of mutual concern and examine new approaches and ideas so that we may present a united front and enhance the progress of Freemasonry throughout Ontario. I am indebted to these men for their assistance, patience and good humor throughout the year.

Once again, I was pleased to be able to represent this Grand Lodge at the Annual Communications of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Sovereign Great Priory and Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. In addition, I addressed the ceremonials of both Tunis and Rameses Shrine Temples, attended the annual assembly of the North Eastern Shrine Association and the Imperial Council of the Shrine in Baltimore. Local events featuring DeMolay Boys, the International Order of Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters, were also attended when time and circumstances permitted.

I visited the site of the International Plowing Match in the Owen Sound area and enjoyed a special Meet and Greet evening held later that evening in Meaford.

CONFERENCES

The Deputy Grand Master and I attended the North American Conference of Grand Masters, in Calgary, during February of 2005. I was honored to serve as Co-Chair of this event and must say that it was an exciting time for me. This was an opportunity to meet with other leaders of our Fraternity and discuss events of mutual interest. As one might expect, common concerns, namely declining membership, poor attendance, apathy and financial considerations, were major topics of discussion. I was pleased to note that our jurisdiction is regarded highly and are considered one of the premier Grand Lodges by our counterparts.

The Grand Secretary, Deputy Grand Master and myself also attended the annual All Canadian Conference of Grand Masters, held in Winnipeg, in April, 2005. Once again, this provided us with the opportunity to discuss issues with a distinctive Canadian flavor and to cement relationships with our counterparts from other provinces. Both the Deputy Grand Master and I have made use of the D.D.G.M. Communique to provide an account of the subject matter discussed, the presentations made and the resolutions adopted, so I shall not go into it now. Suffice it to say that all three representatives from this jurisdiction were active participants in all discussions and forums. It was an honor for me to be appointed Chairman of the Nomination Committee for the 2006 Conference.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATIONS OF GRAND LODGES

Because of a heavy slate of commitments within this jurisdiction, it was necessary to forego attendance at a far greater number of external Annual Communications, to which we were invited, than we were able to attend. This notwithstanding, Marion and I were pleased to be able to represent this Grand Lodge at the Annual Communications of the Grand Lodge of Newfoundland/Labrador, the Grande Loge Nationale Française, the Grand Lodge of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire, and the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island and the Providence Plantations. In all cases, we were very well received and were able to further the close relationships that exist between our respective Grand Lodges. Reciprocal visitation is the lifeblood of this Fraternity and the many friends that we made while visiting other jurisdictions attests to this.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

One cannot perform the duties of this high and important office without being able to rely upon the support and assistance of many people.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, for all that he has done to make this job not only easier but manageable. You have gone out of your way to be of assistance to me, have kept me informed of even the smallest details and have provided advice and counsel. Yes, there have been times when our discussions have turned into arguments and disagreement, but once I had made up my mind and a decision had been made, you endorsed and supported it fully. I thank you for all you have done on my behalf.

I am also grateful for the hard working and dedicated Grand Lodge office staff whose work is always of the highest calibre and who, regardless of the demands that have been placed upon them, have always answered my requests for assistance with good humor, patience and alacrity. My personal thanks are extended to Dorothy Chalmers, Rose Blandin, Stacey Birks and Gail Nickerson for all they have done and continue to do on behalf of this Grand Lodge. Appreciation is also extended to R.W. Bro. Ken Schweitzer for the time and effort he provides as our number one volunteer.

To our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Gary Atkinson, I express my appreciation for your friendship and for the cooperation and assistance you have provided. You are about to assume this high and important office and I wish you every success in the coming two years. May you have the wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job and the compassion and understanding of Mother Teresa as you embark upon your new role. You know that you have my support and whatever assistance I am able to provide.

The Grand Director of Ceremonies, R.W. Bro. Robert C. Tate has been the epitome of what a Grand Director of Ceremonies should be. You have not only been my constant companion and driver, but have been my sounding board, counselor and friend. You and Nadine have attended to our every wish, have been excellent traveling companions and over the year have become close and dear friends. Thank you for all you have done to assist. Both you and Nadine justly deserve all of the accolades you have received from those with whom you have come into contact.

And, finally, to my wife Marion, who is my best friend, my chief critic, my sole confidant and the very light of my life, I extend my thanks, appreciation and love. You have given up so much to accommodate me, not only throughout these past two years, but in the many years leading up to my assuming this office. I could not have done it without your understanding, compassion and your always being there when I needed you the most. Indeed, I cannot conceive of awakening to each new dawning without you.

I would also like to thank my children and grandchildren for their understanding and for arranging family events around my calendar. You are a great source of pride to Marion and me.

CONCLUSION

As I am about to relinquish the mantle of office, I look back upon these past two years with a sense of accomplishment and pride, not in what I may have done, but in what you, the Masons of this jurisdiction, have succeeded in doing.

You have, through the medium of open houses, "Friend to Friend" events and public relations initiatives, assumed a higher profile within your respective communities, and by so doing have taken the admonition to "let your light so shine before men that others may see your good works" to new levels. This has proven successful in increasing awareness of what Freemasonry really means and stands for, in decreasing the latent suspicions and concerns held by many within the community and by fostering interest and understanding in the progeny of the "drop out" and "non joining" generations. Indeed, a direct manifestation of this latter concept is evident in the number of young men who have made application for entry into our Fraternity within the past year.

As Masons you have shown considerable interest in our attempts to revitalize and make more meaningful Masonic Education. Concepts such as the "Masonic Nights of the Round Table" have not only been heartily endorsed but have been the springboards from which lodges and districts have conducted many varied and interesting educational pursuits. The G-15 that started quite by accident and has resulted in 15 young, erudite and concerned Masons coming together to discuss the lacunae in the intellectual component of their Masonic lives, has resulted in our reconsidering and reconstructing the whole concept and approach we have taken towards Masonic Education. Education and learning are not only vital components in keeping our new members interested and active but they have been proven to be the number one antidote to apathy and disinterest.

But of greatest importance in my mind is that you have permitted the morality of Freemasonry to be a dominant force in your daily living. You have tried to live by the dictates of the Golden Rule and, in most instances, have practiced that greatest of all acts of charity, forgiveness. By so doing you may not have changed the world at large, but you have made a decided difference in the lives of those people you have come into daily contact with.

I leave this office content in the knowledge that I have had the honor and privilege of working with the greatest men in the world – you the Masons of this jurisdiction. Thank you for affording me this opportunity. As a retired "horseman" I can truly say it has been the ride of my life.

Donald H. Mumby
Grand Master

Auditors' Report

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have audited the statements of financial position of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 2005, and the statements of operations and fund balances for the general and segregated funds for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the organization as at April 30, 2005 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada

In the Province of Ontario

Notes to the Financial Statements

April 30, 2005

1. Purpose of the organization

The Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario is a not for profit organization which serves as the central administrative body for Masonic Lodges in the Province of Ontario.

The organization is exempt from income tax under the Income Tax Act.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Fund accounting

The Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions.

The General Fund reports the organization's administrative activities.

Revenues and expenses related to programme activities are reported only in The Programme Fund.

Revenues and expenses related to the 150th Anniversary Fund, Special Retirement Fund, Commutation Fund and Memorial Fund are consolidated and reported in the Segregated Fund.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, balances held with banks, and highly liquid temporary money market investments with original maturities of three months or less from the date of the acquisition. Bank borrowings are considered to be financing activities.

Investments

Investments are recorded at cost less write-downs when any decline in value is considered to be other than temporary. Discounts and premiums on the acquisition of bonds are not amortized, but are maintained at cost with the final gain or loss recorded on disposition.

Revenue recognition

Restricted contributions related to general operations are recognized as revenue of the General Fund in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. All other restricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the appropriate restricted fund.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the General Fund in the year received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada

In the Province of Ontario

Notes to the Financial Statements

April 30, 2005

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Foreign currency translation

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are recorded in the accounts of the organization at the rate of exchange prevailing during the date of the transaction. At year end, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into Canadian dollars at year end rates of exchange.

Financial instruments

For cash and cash equivalents receivables and payables and accruals, the carrying amounts of these financial instruments approximates their fair value due to their short term maturity or capacity of prompt liquidation. For the investments, fair values are disclosed in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The financial risk is the risk to the organization's earnings that arises from fluctuations in interest rates and the degree of volatility of these rates. The organization does not use derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to interest rate.

Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the organization is not exposed to significant interest, currency, or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

Use of estimates

In preparing the organization's financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. Notes receivable - Masonic Holdings	2005	2004
6% debentures - Series A	$ 55,000	$ 60,000

The debentures are receivable on demand.

The notes receivable are not expected to be repaid within the next fiscal year.

6. Defined contribution pension plan

The organization operates a defined contribution pension plan for its employees. The assets of the plan are held separately from those of the organization in independently administered funds. Contributions paid and expensed by the organization for the year amounted to $11,019 (2004 - $11,169) respectively. This expense is recorded in salaries and benefits within the schedule of expenses - General Fund.

Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada In the Province of Ontario Notes to the Financial Statements

April 30, 2005

7. Related party transactions

During the year the Grand Lodge paid total rent to Masonic Holdings in the amount of $88,000 (2004 - $88,000) and management fees in the amount of $6000 (2004 - $6,000). These transactions are in the normal course of operations and are measured at the exchange amount which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related parties. Masonic Holdings is a not for profit organization whose board of directors are members of the Board of General Purposes of Grand Lodge.

8. Related entities

The Board of Directors of both The Masonic Foundation of Ontario and Masonic Holdings consists of members of the Board of General Purposes of The Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

The object of The Masonic Foundation of Ontario is to receive, maintain, manage, control and use donations exclusively for charitable purposes within Ontario. The Foundation is permitted to use its donations for the relief of poverty, the advancement of education and the advancement of other purposes beneficial to the community. The Foundation is committed to funding bursaries, hearing research, drug and substance abuse education in the school systems and other specific and community projects which fall within its guidelines.

Title to the land and building, situated at 363 King Street West, Hamilton, Ontario was taken in the name of Masonic Holdings Inc., an entity incorporated as a not for profit corporation within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and without share capital. Masonic Holdings Inc. was incorporated in 1957 to acquire and operate adequate premises for the administration, personnel and staff of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario. As an incorporated entity it requires a separate auditors report and financial statements.

9. Statement of cash flows

A statement of cash flows has not been included since, in the opinion of the organization's management, it would not provide any additional meaningful information.

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Happy Birthday everyone! A hundred and fifty years in the life of any organization is indeed a cause for celebration. And such an anniversary is also cause for reflection and contemplation.

I suggest that one of our achievements is that we enjoy reasonably good health at such an age. Also, that our prospects ahead are positive. We are fortunate to have a solid financial base and to have (most of the time) lived each year within our means.

Two years ago I remarked that unless financial market conditions recovered that we would be forced to adjust our annual Per Capita assessment. Given that interest rates continue to be as low as they are, coupled with a continuing diminishment of members and the loss of related revenues, we are now at the point of having to introduce a Per Capita increase. We are quite conscious that any increase may prove difficult for a few lodges and accordingly have proposed that the increase be phased in gradually over the next three years. The Notice of Motion dealing with this is an important issue and I trust that all of our membership will understand the ramifications. This is the first increase we have proposed in several years and we expect to manage for several years ahead without additional adjustments.

The report of the Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee will provide details of our revenues and expenses of the past year, as well as the presentation of the proposed budget for the year ahead. I am pleased to advise the aggregate result for the past year is favourable and nicely under budget. And further that we plan for a near-balanced budget for the year to come.

We oversee our investment portfolio on a monthly basis and meet quarterly with the Audit and Finance Committee and our Investment Manager Scotia Cassels. Our composite rate of return in the year was 8.14% and for the past ten years our average rate has been 8.6%. Given that we will now have expended the revenues of the 150th Anniversary Fund and have financed four years of deficits, our General Fund "kitty" is soon to be depleted to say $1,700,000.00. And that of course means our General Fund investment revenue is depleted accordingly. So, going forward I fear the contribution to the General Fund revenues from our investment portfolio will be something less than $100,000 meaning of course the need for new revenues via the Per Capita assessment.

The important message I wish to leave with you is the reality that we are in a sound financial state and that the increased Per Capita Assessment is expected to help us stay that way. We intend that future budgetary presentations will be for balanced budgets (i.e., no further deficits).

In closing, I wish to record a word of appreciation to all in our Grand Lodge office for their loyal support. And to the several Grand Lodge Officers who have conscientiously applied fiduciary accountability in helping Grand Lodge restore a suitable budget situation.

A special word, again, to R.W. Bro. Thomas Lewis, who has displayed exemplary attention to the oversight and accountability of Grand Lodge financial details.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

T. RICHARD DAVIES
Grand Treasurer

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Treasurer, the Report was adopted.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed the auditing firm, Grant Thornton, to serve as scrutineers this year.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT

Printing and Publications

During the past year a number of pamphlets, brochures and publications have been produced, others updated and reprinted. The booklet entitled, "Questions and Answers 2004" has also been updated and reprinted. It continues to provide excellent reference material that promotes research utilizing existing publications.

Computerization

The upgrade of computer hardware and software remains an ongoing process. Computerization of the Semi-Annual Return forms is developed and will be made available. High speed internet service significantly reduces the time required to process an ever increasing volume of e-mail requests. However, there is a tendency for the sender to expect an immediate response. In many cases this is just not possible for a variety of reasons and I ask that you exercise patience in this regard.

Warrants

Three lodges ceased operations and surrendered their warrants: Spruce Falls Lodge No. 648, Kapuskasing; Lakehead Lodge No. 709, Thunder Bay; and Vittoria Lodge No. 359, Vittoria.

Additionally, several lodges deemed it necessary to amalgamate during the past year; still others have initiated the negotiation process. Cambridge Lodge No. 728 amalgamated with Concord Lodge No. 722; Doric Lodge No. 569 with Corinthian Lodge No. 700; Eastern Lodge No. 707 with Cornwall Lodge No. 125; Doric Lodge No. 382 with Ancient Landmarks Lodge No. 654; and Sunnyside Lodge No. 582 with Fidelity Lodge No. 575 and Transportation Lodge No. 583 to become Trillium Lodge No. 575.

Conferences

In February 2005, I attended 'The Conference of Grand Secretaries in North America,' held at Calgary, Alberta, where several presentations such as: "The Generational Theory," "Membership Data" and "Masonic Data Systems" were made and topics of mutual concern discussed. I also represented the Canada Region on the 'Commission for Information and Recognition' where presentations for recognition and information was received from: Armenia, Bulgaria, Ecuador, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Valle De Mexico, Morocco, Romania and Russia, together with six items of miscellaneous information.

In April 2005, I accompanied our Grand Master to the "All Canada Conference" held at Winnipeg. Again, numerous topics and reports were discussed, which included presentations by our Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and myself.

Secretary Seminars

On December 10, 2004, fifty-four Lodge Secretaries from five districts attended at Brockville and on April 9, 2005, thirty Lodge Secretaries from two districts, attended at Campbellford, for a half-day seminar dealing with recent constitutional changes and a review of the responsibilities of Lodge Secretary relative to our Book of Constitution. Both sessions provided an excellent forum for friendly interaction of ideas and information, to address concerns and to overview the operations of our Grand Lodge office and its staff. Secretary seminars in the coming year, if requested, can be arranged through the District Deputy Grand Master.

Semi Annual Returns

As of this writing, a few Semi-Annual Returns, due January 8, 2005, have not been received at the Grand Lodge office. Subsequently, the July 8 return forms have not been mailed, negating the three principal officers an opportunity to vote at this Communication. A reminder . . . Section 300, Book of Constitution states, "Each lodge shall mail or otherwise deliver to the Grand Secretary, its returns and payments to Grand Lodge, semi-annually, on or before the 8th day of January and the 8th day of July each year." Please consider this responsibility an important one.

Closing Remarks

The friendly and efficient office staff at Grand Lodge take great pride in the service they provide. They are, without exception, dedicated team players in all facets of office operation and each contributes to the esprit de corps enjoyed in our daily activities. We thank the great majority of lodge secretaries for the stellar service provided to their respective lodges. We commend those of you who conscientiously submit the required data and information in a timely manner. Finally, to all those having dealings at the office, our thanks for your cooperation as we endeavour to update equipment and streamline communication to better provide the essential services necessary.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

TERENCE SHAND, Grand Secretary

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report was adopted by Grand Lodge.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

Forty-six reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary, and, on motion of the Grand Secretary, seconded by M.W. Bro. D. I. Greenwood, they were referred to the Board of General Purposes.

REPORT OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. L. Atkinson, Chairman, and on motion of R.W. Bro. Atkinson, seconded by R.W. Bro. D. G. Dowling, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present this report on behalf of the Management Committee and its several members who serve our Grand Lodge throughout the year with their sage counsel and expertise for the betterment of Freemasonry in Ontario.

The Management Committee, whose mandate is listed in Section 136(j) of the Book of Constitution, met five times during this past year, and also participated in the fall meeting of the Advisory Group, as well as the three Especial Communication Sessions in Kingston, Simcoe and Thunder Bay.

The members of the Management Committee were also active participants at the biennial "Think Tank" Session, held at Crieff Hills. This event was facilitated by our Grand Lodge Long Range Planning Committee.

Throughout the year, the committee considered a significant number of proposals that were submitted by the various Grand Lodge committees for consideration.

The Management Committee recommends the following:

- The Computer Resource Committee reported on their proposal to introduce semi-annual returns, created and distributed in digital form for use by lodges, on acid free paper and in PDF form. Approval was given to test this project in three districts and the committee has reported that the test was a success, and suggests it be on WHITE paper only. The Computer Resource Committee has recommended that all the lodges in our jurisdiction be given the opportunity to submit their returns accordingly, and that recommendation has been endorsed.
- The Computer Resource Committee has recommended that the Annual Proceedings for Grand Lodge continue to be produced on CD for those jurisdictions outside of our province. The Management Committee has endorsed same, but recommends that each lodge within our jurisdiction receive a hard copy of same.
- The Management Committee has endorsed the Computer Resources Committee's request to increase the Web space needed to make changes in the future for our Grand Lodge Web Site.
- The Management Committee also received a request from the Computer Resources Committee to consider ways to alleviate the problem of our paper document filing system at Grand Lodge.
- A suggestion of a new scanner which is compatible with our computer system is being considered and they will work closely with the Grand Secretary on same.

A report was received from the Condition of Masonry Committee which included four areas of concern:

1. Lack of financial information for lodges needing assistance in preparing budgets and setting up a Dues Table.
2. A lack of information on the use of the Grand Lodge programmes.
3. Questionable evaluations of lodges by D.D.G.M.s.
4. Membership decline.

A review of the recommendations from the Brother-2-Brother Committee in reference to Chapter 1, Section 5 – Long Range Planning; Chapter 1, Section 6 – Organizing Financial Resources; Chapter 1, Section 7 – Personal Touch Communications; Chapter 5, Section 11 – Hosting a Lodge Blood Donor Clinic; Chapter 5, Section 12 – District Lodges of Instruction.

The Management Committee supported the recommendations of the Brother to Brother Committee, and supported their placement on the Brother to Brother section of the Grand Lodge Web Site for the use by the brethren across our jurisdiction.

The report from the Ad Hoc Committee that was established last year, to discuss the disposition of the Sankey Masonic book collection, at Brock University, Chairman R.W. Bro. Greg Hazlitt and his committee, recommended an endowment in the area of $10,000.00 be given to the library at Brock University. The Management Committee supported this recommendation. A very generous offer to cover the cost of this endowment was received from Heritage Lodge No. 730. Our heartfelt appreciation to them in making sure this valuable collection is taken care of for years to come.

A review of the success of the Masonic Display Booth at the International Plowing Match in Meaford this past year was completed. The Management Committee recommends we proceed with an exhibit at the 2005 I.P.M. in Listowel.

The Management Committee received the report of the Ad Hoc Committee established by our Grand Master for the office of the Grand Secretary. The committee has submitted their findings to the chairman and he will distribute them to the members of the Advisory Committee for their review and discussion.

A report from the Blood Donors Committee was endorsed re continuing to work with the Canadian Blood Services in the printing of new CBS Masonic Blood Donors Pamphlets.

The report of the Ad Hoc Committee, that was established by the Grand Master and chaired by R.W. Bro. Ed Standish, was received and discussed. All agreed there is a need to generate income and we can't rely on our Calendar Programme for same. The committee found this report to be useful and recommends further action be taken in the near future.

The D.D.G.M. Orientation Committee submitted a proposed change to the awareness message given to those brethren interested in becoming D.D.G.M.s. This would be printed in pamphlet form and given to the D.D.G.M.s at the beginning of each Masonic year. The Management Committee supported this proposal and it will be presented to the Grand Secretary and the Custodian of the Work for their review and printing of same.

The Public Relations Committee presented their findings on the Awareness Advertising Programme that was in operation on a trial basis with the Runge Newspaper System. After reviewing their findings, the Management Committee, unfortunately, was unable to support continuance of this programme.

The Public Relations Committee, working with the Public Relations Committees of the Family of Masonic Leaders, recommended the purchase of a banner to be used in parades, presentations, etc. Cost to be divided equally by all involved and the Management Committee endorsed this request.

A presentation was given by the Public Relations Committee on a proposed Communication Model for the 4 Districts on a trial basis. After much discussion and review, the Management Committee suggested they look at another avenue that would be more user friendly to all.

With Grand Lodge having to deal with reduced funding in the Special Programme Fund this past year, the Ontario Mason Magazine was charged to find another avenue to communicate with our brethren across our jurisdiction. Through hard work and determination, the committee members have proposed a method of producing the magazine on-line. The basic concept of this proposal was concurred with and a recommendation that one electronic issue be proceeded with as endorsed. Through the generosity of the brethren across this jurisdiction, funding is available for one "Hard Copy" issue to be produced in the Autumn of 2005.

The Long Range Planning Committee reviewed the reports, suggestions and findings from the "Think Tank" session, held at Crieff Hills retreat. These were presented to the Management Committee for their consideration and discussion. The members of the Management Committee were very supportive of these findings and the proposed direction and adjustments suggested and endorsed, with much appreciation, the work done by this committee on our Grand Lodge Five-Year Plan.

The Management Committee was pleased to welcome R.W. Bro. Thomas W. Hogeboom as a new member this year. R.W. Bro. Hogeboom filled the vacancy when R.W. Bro. Robert Runicman retired from the Board of General Purposes last year at Grand Lodge.

As was previously mentioned, with the Grand Lodge Programme Fund not being as productive as it once was, this committee is continuing to work to ensure the well being of our Fraternity. An aggressive approach continues when reviewing ideas for ensuring the future of our Grand Lodge.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the following committee members: R.W. Bros. D. A. Campbell, D. G. Dowling, T. W. Hogeboom, T. V. Horner, A. J. Petrisor, and ex-officio M.W. Bros. D. H. Mumby, T. Shand and R.W. Bros. T. E. Lewis and T. R. Davies.

GARY L. ATKINSON, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

R.W. Bro. G. Wayne Nelson presented this Report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by R.W. Bro. Nelson, that the Report be received. (See page 203)

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY, MUSEUM and ARCHIVES COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. P. Hooper, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hooper, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present this report on behalf of the members of the Library, Museum and Archives Committee. These very dedicated members consist of R.W. Bro. Lanny Salmon (Team Leader – Library), R.W. Bro. Don Jagger, R.W. Bro. Victor Lepp, W. Bro. Ron Bivens and W. Bro. Gene Lotz (Team Leader – Museum and Archives).

Library

Reports of this committee in the recent past have painted a bleak picture of the library, particularly as it relates to its usage by the members in this jurisdiction. With this in mind, the committee was revamped this year with R.W. Bro. Lanny Salmon being appointed by the Grand Master to be the Team Leader. The committee was challenged to make changes to improve the library and thereby improve its usage.

In the fall of 2004, W. Bro. Gene Lotz and I attended the annual meeting of the Masonic Library and Museum Association (MLMA), which was held in Detroit, Michigan. This organization is composed of Masonic Libraries and Museums from across the United States, Canada and abroad. It was an extremely useful and beneficial meeting to attend. The members of this association range from part time volunteers to full time professional librarians who run the various Grand Lodge Masonic Libraries.

Probably the most valuable thing we learned at this three-day meeting had to do with the cataloguing of books. One of the comments from last year's report of this committee said "Many who have entered the library have commented that we need to have a better way to access subjects, other than by titles." Our greatest surprise at these meetings was to discover that there is a cataloguing system strictly for Masonic Libraries. We were informed that other cataloguing systems (e.g. Dewey Decimal System) were ineffective for Masonic Libraries because of the specific demands that Masonic books make of a cataloguing system. The cataloguing system that was developed strictly for Masonic Libraries is called the 'Revised Boyden' system. It is in use in most of the Masonic Libraries in the U.S. It is an easy system to implement and once in place it makes the books easier to find.

This important first step has started and the books are currently being re-catalogued. When the computer cataloguing is completed, the books will then be rearranged in the library.

We submit the following objectives for the Grand Lodge Library of the future:

- keep the library open from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Monday to Friday.
- use volunteers to staff the Library on a monthly rotation.
- take books on tour to such meetings as Past Masters' & Masters' and Wardens'.
- give 5 minute orations at these tour meetings.
- expand the library Web Site.
- list books by title and by subject matter according to the 'Boyden System' of Masonic Classification.

To this end we have started a campaign to recruit library helpers. A letter was sent to all the Hamilton District lodges in January of 2005 to request the following needs:

1. Volunteers for on-going cataloguing of library books.
2. Volunteers to help build shelving for the redesigned library.
3. Volunteers to move library books.
4. Volunteers to man the library during open hours.
5. Volunteers to re-bind books.

We are pleased to report that this campaign has been very successful in that we have thirteen volunteer Masons to date and some students who are also interested in helping us.

Further, we are able to state that we have started assigning Boyden numbers to some of the present Grand Lodge Library books. This process will be on-going for some time as each book needs to be assessed individually.

We are hopeful that the Grand Lodge Library will be an electronic jewel, as well as a thriving Masonic location in the near future.

Scottish Rite Collection

A meeting of the Scottish Rite and the Grand Lodge Library Committee was held on April 20, 2005. Present at this meeting were both committees, along with the Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Secretary. Agreement was reached that the books of the Scottish Rite Collection would be placed in a separate room in our library. They would be catalogued according to our new system and would be handled by our committee. The Scottish Rite would incur the costs of putting shelves in the room, etc. An agreement has been reached with Masonic Holdings and this project is now proceeding.

Museum and Archives (Report of W. Bro. Gene Lotz)

Once again I would like to thank our Grand Master for appointing me to this important working committee of our Grand Lodge.

As our museum continues to reach beyond our second floor home in the Memorial Building, two significant events took place during the past year. On May 15, 2005, the members of Blyth Lodge No. 303 dedicated a Masonic Heritage Plaque in front of Trinity Anglican Church, in Blyth. The marker celebrates the laying of the church's cornerstone with Masonic honours on June 24, 1878. The marker was unveiled by Illustrious Bro. Reverend Robert Townshend, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Huron and Right Reverend Bruce Howe, Bishop of Huron.

The celebration was well attended and the members of Blyth Lodge are to be commended for their outstanding effort. It is encouraging to know that a historic Masonic event will now be highlighted in that community. The committee is pleased to add Trinity Anglican Church to its growing list of Masonic Heritage Sites.

This programme of Heritage Designation is still in its infancy but growing. Any lodge or district which would like to apply for designation please contact the Museum and Library Committee to obtain an information pamphlet.

The second Museum and Archives event to reach out into the community is the Masonic Exhibition at Dundurn Castle National Historic Site. The exhibit called A Masonic Tradition highlights the growth and development of Freemasonry in the now Province of Ontario. The exhibit opened on July 9th with a reception for the Masonic Fraternity and will run through until November 13, 2005. During its run at Dundurn Castle, sixty-five thousand people are expected to tour the exhibition. The committee would like to thank Tom Minnes of Dundurn Castle for his help during the planning of the exhibition. The committee would also like to thank Zion Lodge of Detroit and the Windsor Museum of Freemasonry for the use of important artifacts in their collections. Also, a special "thank you" to our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Don Mumby; Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terry Shand; and Committee Chairman, R.W. Bro. Paul Hooper, for their support and encouragement.

Also, during the last year several individuals and lodges made donations to Grand Lodge Museums. The committee would encourage any lodge which has artifacts that need a home to consider the Grand Lodge Museum.

Conclusion

At one of the first meetings this past year of the Committee Chairmen, my report included a reference to our Grand Master's theme, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works." I indicated in that report that one of the most important lights that we could shine would be our printed word, our written history. This committee feels that we have made great strides this year to improve our library and hence our delivery of the printed word to our members. This is not a process that will be completed this year, but it is one that will continue on into the future.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

PAUL W. HOOPER, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. C. Thompson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Thompson, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Seminars and Workshop Committee, it is my pleasure to submit the following report.

At the beginning of this Masonic year, our committee was charged with organizing a series of 3 seminars to be held east, west, and north of the Toronto area. The committees that were asked to participate, included Officer Progression, Masonic Education, Long Range Planning and Public Relations.

These committees were then asked how long they would need in presentation time for their respective committees to deliver their chosen topic. The result were, as follows: Public Relations – 3 hours, Masonic Education – 1.5 hours, Officer Progression – 3 hours and Long Range Planning – 1.5 hours. The seminars started at 9:00 a.m. and concluded at 2:00 p.m. with two seminars running concurrent.

The District Deputy Grand Masters in Frontenac, Georgian South and London West Districts were asked to assist in booking the halls and arranging for refreshments. The dates were as follows: Kingston – April 2, 2005, London – April 16, 2005, and Barrie – April 23, 2005. The cost to attend was $10.00 with $5.00 being rebated back to the participant's lodge as an incentive. The average attendance was 60. I would like to thank R.W. Bros. Burton Carr, Steve Bishop and John McKaig for their very capable assistance and the members of their respective districts that lent a hand to help promote and deliver these seminars in a timely fashion.

A questionnaire was given to each participant at the start of the day with the results being very positive. Holding the seminars on a Saturday was the preferred day, with a half day being the consensus on the length.

I would be remiss if I did not take this opportunity to thank the presenters of the various seminars. Their hard work in preparing and delivering the presentations is greatly appreciated. All of the brethren left the seminars with a greater understanding of Freemasonry within these topics.

This committee usually facilitates a series of seminars at the Annual Communication. However, with the play "Then and Now" being held as part of the celebration of our 150th Anniversary in the time slot usually reserved for the seminars, there will not be any seminars this year.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. K. Wallace, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Wallace, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present the report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings on behalf of its members: R.W. Bro. William Smith; V.W. Bros. Wendall MacLeod, Rod Blair and W. Bro. Stephen Cooper. I wish to express my appreciation to the committee for giving freely of their time and knowledge and also to all who provided me guidance.

2004-2005 Projects

- The Kingston former Alliance Church building was dedicated on October 22, 2004, and renamed the Kingston Masonic Centre, thus providing a new meeting place for the local brethren of Frontenac District.
- The brethren of Lorne Lodge No. 377, Shelburne (Grey District), in conjunction with the Fairground Board of the Town of Shelburne, had a building constructed to meet the needs of both parties. Dispensation was thus granted in a letter from the Grand Secretary to commence meeting effective as of January 7, 2005. The Ceremony of Dedication is scheduled to take place May 9, 2005.
- The brethren of St. James Lodge No. 73, St. Marys (South Huron District), are currently renovating an existing building to provide new meeting quarters for members. The committee has visited the building and will continue to do so, providing any necessary advice and encouragement until the renovation is completed.
- Onondaga Lodge No. 519, Onondaga (Brant District), has purchased a former church building and the brethren are now actively remodelling the structure to meet Grand Lodge requirements. Committee members have traveled to meet with the Onondaga brethren to offer advice and support in their endeavours.

- The building committee of Cassia Lodge No. 116, Thedford (Sarnia District), is presently in the process of negotiating the purchase of an existing building for the use of their brethren. Our committee has visited with the Cassia brethren and we are now awaiting further information.

General Items

The following lodges have informed the committee that they are presently searching for new long term meeting places: Markham Union Lodge No. 87, Stouffville (Toronto District 4), Orono Lodge No. 325, Orono (Ontario District), and Reba Lodge No. 515, Brantford (Brant District).

This committee has also provided assistance as requested for lodges of the following Districts: Brant, Eastern, Ontario, Prince Edward, Sarnia, Temiskaming and Wilson North.

Inquiries have been received from brethren about the possibility of receiving financial assistance from Grand Lodge, to assist in the purchasing and/or remodelling of buildings, at a favourable rate of interest. It is the recommendation of this committee that consideration of this matter be addressed by the appropriate Grand Lodge committee.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

RONALD K. WALLACE, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. K. Schweitzer, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Schweitzer, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Our committee met in the Grand Lodge boardroom on Tuesday, May 10, 2005. Three pending requests for recognitions were considered from the Grand Lodge of Armenia, the Grand Lodge of Eli in Lebanon and the Gran Logia "Benito Juarez" of the State of Coahuila, Mexico.

In considering these three requests your committee looks at three important criteria:

1. Legitimacy of origin
2. Exclusive territorial jurisdiction, or territory shared by treaty
3. Adherence to the Ancient Landmarks

Using these three standards, together with information received from the Grand Lodges and reports from the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of the Grand Masters of Masons in North America, the committee wishes to make the following recommendations.

- In 2003 the Grand Lodge of Armenia asked for recognition, however at that time, your committee suggested a further waiting period be in order prior to granting their request.

We are pleased to recommend recognition be extended to the Grand Lodge of Armenia. Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge F.A.A.M., of the District of Columbia (Washington, D.C.), the Grande Loge Nationale Francaise (GLNF), and the Grand Lodge of Russia consecrated the Grand Lodge of Armenia on July 30, 2002.

The Grand Lodge of Armenia currently has 4 lodges under its banner, and have established a Charitable Foundation by the name of "The Children of Noah." This foundation has already distributed several thousands of dollars to orphanages, donated several buses for transportation in the city of Yerevan and taken orphans on educational tours and activities.

The Grand Lodge has purchased land in the capital city of Yerevan, and intends to construct a Grand Lodge Temple on this property.

- The Grand Lodge of Eli in Lebanon has also asked for recognition; however, your committee suggests recognition be held in abeyance until further information is received.
- The Gran Logia "Benito Juarez" of the State of Coahuila, Mexico, has also requested recognition. Your committee again feels that more information is required on this Grand Lodge and the state of Masonry in the Mexican area before granting recognition.
- At the July 2004 Communication, R.W. Bro. P. Hooper made note on Prince Hall Freemasonry. A further discussion took place during our meeting. Our Grand Master will be making further comments to these discussions.
- The United Grand Lodge of England has announced its intention to consecrate a new Grand Lodge of Macedonia in October 2005. This Grand Lodge will be composed of lodges previously chartered by the United Grand Lodge of England. The United Grand Lodge of England has also informed the commission of a breakaway group.

If you are travelling outside our jurisdiction and wish to visit a lodge, please check with the Grand Lodge Office as to its standing. A list of the Grand Lodges who we have Fraternal Relations with is also located in the front of your lodge's register. Please make yourself familiar with this information.

On behalf of the committee it is a pleasure to submit this report.

BRIAN K. SCHWEITZER, Chairman

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE FINANCES

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. E. Hinds, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hinds, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, it is my pleasure to submit the following report.

The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances fulfilled its mandate, with the production and distribution of a CD-ROM covering Accounting Practices, which can be used by all lodges in our jurisdiction.

In summarizing this report, the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, would like to highlight, and to some measure detail THREE MAJOR areas that contribute to successful management of a lodge.

- (a) Budgeting: The need to budget is most vital to the longevity of a lodge. This method of expenditure restriction is feared by most, but should only be looked upon as a measure of knowing where your finances are at all times. You cannot spend what you don't have.
- (b) Dues and Dues Collection: Dues, being the life blood of every lodge, is an area that cannot be taken for granted, that the brethren WILL pay their dues on time. A systematic approach must be implemented and maintained, e.g. the insertion of Notice of "Dues Due" in the Lodge Summons works with some level of success. To support this action, however, a separate invoice should be placed in the envelope along with each summons, and stamped PAST DUE at the discretion of the lodge until paid. The task of collection of dues should be a collective effort by ALL OFFICERS of the lodge, as the lack of funds could affect the smooth operation of the lodge during their term of office.
- (c) Initiation Fees: This is one area that this committee feels is neglected or forgotten from time to time, as a source of revenue for the lodge. In some cases the initiation fees have not kept pace with present day expenses, and should be reviewed every year. When the Budget and Finance Committee of the lodge sits down to plan ahead, revenue generated over the basic cost from "Initiation Fees" must be considered.

The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances offers a suggestion to all lodges, to search among their own brethren for ideas, or involvement in the lodge financial woes. Many people don't volunteer their services, but if asked will gladly come forward, and as in many cases in the past, offer a fresh pair of eyes and input on something that was possibly overlooked.

Masonry encompasses many people from all walks of life, many of whom may have an answer to a situation on hand. All you have to do is ask.

In closing, over the year this committee has had several enquiries on concerns some lodges were experiencing, and trust that we were able to serve them to the best of our ability.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee members, R.W. Bros. R. E. Collins (Vice Chairman), T. E. Lewis, H. E. Standish, P. J. McGrenere. The chairman thanks them for their input and support on financial Masonry in Ontario.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

GEORGE E. HINDS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC RELATIONS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. M. Sheen, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Sheen, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

During the year 2004-2005 the Committee on Public Relations worked under the following mandate:

"To seek out all media and public relations opportunities and activities at Grand Lodge and District levels with a view to creating a better informed public on the aims and activities of the Masonic order within our Jurisdiction.

To co-ordinate all internal and external communications of a public relations nature.

To co-ordinate and promote the use of Masonic information booths and displays throughout Ontario. To develop and provide Masonic publications and paraphernalia for use and purchase by the membership."

External Communications

This report is submitted on behalf of the following brethren of the External Communications portion of the Public Relations Team: Team Leader – R.W. Bro. C. John Woodburn; R.W. Bros. Danny Dawson, Brian DeLisle, Gordon Forbes, John Hiley, Giles Loshaw, Tom Siemiernik, and William Watt, V.W. Bro. Alan Arbuckle, W. Bro. Steven Magwood and Bro. Damon Allen. The goal of this subcommittee is "To make Masonry more visible, to seek out media opportunities for Masonic events and to create a better informed public." This year the committee encouraged lodges and districts to play a more active communication role.

Media Releases

The team helped to write/revise many media releases/advisories to help garner coverage of everything from planned 150th Anniversary Celebrations to Lodge Anniversaries/Special Events to Grand Master visits to local Masons being honoured. This resulted in local newspapers, television and radio covering a large number of our events. Please visit our booth outside in the lobby to see the results of some of our media coverage. Support is available at all times upon request from our committee members, many of whom have professional expertise in this area. As well, it was particularly encouraging to see that some districts were able to produce their own media campaigns for a local event with positive results. This kind of endeavour can only but help to "let our light so shine," and to keep Masonry visible in the community.

Recommendation: D.D.G.M.s should appoint a District Public Relations co-ordinator as an invaluable resource in future media efforts in their districts. Failing the D.D.G.M.s doing so, this team needs to be able to recruit Regional Representatives, to aid this team to fulfill their mandate.

Open Houses

Dispensations were copied to your chairman indicating that many lodges held Open Houses and Friend to Friend Nights, Breakfasts or Lunches. One lodge took the initiative to couple an Open House with our awareness advertising programme with very favourable results. Our congratulations to Renfrew Lodge. It is the policy of the committee to offer support if requested.

150th Anniversary Postage Stamp

Canada Post has informed us that it was not possible to produce a commemorative stamp for our 150th Anniversary Celebrations.

Masonic Logo on License Plate

Once again, interest seems to have been reignited in the prospectus of trying to get the Square and Compasses on Ontario license plates. Discussions are ongoing with the Ministry of Transportation to explore the feasibility of this project.

Scrapbook

The Grand Lodge scrapbooks have been updated as clippings were received. Many thanks go to R.W. Bro. T. Roy Davies and his wife Kathy for their extensive time and effort on this project. Also, many thanks to M.W. Bro. Durward Greenwood and Mrs. Betty Anderson who have helped us to replace the clippings that were lost when one of the scrapbooks which covered the periods of M.W. Bros. Greenwood and Anderson went missing.

Awareness Advertising

An Awareness Advertising Programme was launched this fall. We advertised in the Runge Group of newspapers. The goal of the advertising campaign was to raise awareness of Masonry, draw attention to the ready availability of Masonic information, the contribution of Masonry to communities by making better men, and the traditional values Masonry focuses on without regard to race, religion, creed or colour. The programme should enable us to assess whether advertising is a viable venue for Masonry to utilize. Metrics are in place with each part of the three-phase programme, which will help to determine viability. At the time of the writing of this report, we have not had the opportunity to present the results of our first phase of this programme to the Management Committee, and determine whether to proceed with a subsequent phase.

150th Anniversary

Assistance and advice have been offered to local committees to help us to capitalize on the media opportunity that is inherent in these 150th Anniversary Celebrations. The team also assisted in helping to get participation of local dignitaries in the planned Especial Communications, as well as to aid the Grand Master in handling media interviews.

Seminars

The Team participated in the Grand Lodge Seminars and Workshops held in Kingston, London and Barrie and worked with local brethren on such things as establishing and maintaining media relationships, preparing media releases and advisories, preparing for interviews and working with the media.

Internal Communications

This report is submitted on behalf of the following brethren of the Internal Communications portion of the Public Relations Team: Team Leader — R.W. Bro. James Sercombe; R.W. Bros. Alan Dvorak, Barry Snider, Reade Spence, Lorne Weaver, Michael Wellwood, and V.W. Bro. Malcolm Woodcock, W. Bros. Gary Gilchrist and Don Reekie. The focus this year was, "To review and improve the quality of communication instruments within the Craft as determined by Grand Lodge."

Summons and Newsletter Competition

The Committee is available to any Lodge to discuss their summons and assist in improving the content and presentation of the material in creating a lively and interesting summons. All Lodges have members who are unable to attend due to health, distance, hearing, etcetera and the summons may provide the only means by which they can keep in touch and know what is happening in their Lodge.

The competition has proved to be worthwhile, as many summonses are improved and, in some, colour is being used effectively. Content is important. The summonses are varied in their presentation, some read horizontally and others read in the normal vertical pamphlet style. Some summonses pack too much in or use a background watermark, which makes for a cluttered appearance. All in all, the committee is pleased with the general upgrading of Lodge summonses, but as only 31 out of 46 Districts participated by the deadline, some fine Lodge summonses may have missed out on the chance to be a winner.

As has been the previous practice, members of the committee presented awards in the winning Lodges and winning Districts. A special thank-you from the undersigned goes out to all those team members who took the time and made the effort to travel (quite often great distances) to present the awards — the presentations were always well received. The overall experience was very positive and well received by the brethren. On this basis, awards will again be presented in the winning Lodges and Districts rather than at Grand Lodge.

Congratulations go to the following winners of the competition for the 2004-2005 Masonic year: (information not available at time of printing)

"Guidelines for Lodge Summonses" are readily available from the Team Leader of Internal Communications.

Seminars

The Team has developed a seminar to improve the quality of Summonses and Newsletters, as well as other modes of communication. These were presented to the brethren during the series of Grand Lodge Seminars and Workshops, and were very well received.

Communications Model

The Team has developed a Communications Model, which was to have been launched during this year, but timing and funding prohibited it. We hope it will be launched at this Communication in three/four trial districts. The aim of this communications model is to greatly strengthen communications across this jurisdiction. If found to be effective, the model will be presented to the Management Committee for consideration to roll out on a jurisdictional basis.

Special Events, Information and Publications

What follows is the report of the Special Events Team lead by the Team Leader R.W. Bro. Douglas Angus, aided by R.W. Bros. Douglas Clouse, Dennis Hawman, Harvey Street and V.W. Bros. Keith Anderson, Larry Carter and John McLaughlin, who continue to "Coordinate the use of Masonic booths and distribution of publications and materials."

Plowing Match and Fairs

The International Plowing Match held at Meaford, provided a good forum for a Masonic presence with the use of the large marquee (30 ft by 50 ft tent) which housed displays from the Family of Freemasonry. A 'Meet and Greet' reception with the Grand Master was held at Pythagoras Lodge in Meaford. After the dust had settled, our participation in the Plowing Match seemed to be a success on all levels. Special thanks to R.W. Bro. William Watt and his team that made the event such a success.

Listowel is the site of the 2005 International Plowing Match and the local committee under the direction of W. Bro. Scott Tanner have got a great head start on plans with the help of this team.

The booklet "Masonic Information Booth Staffing Guidelines" is provided with every request from Grand Lodge for a display booth. This booklet includes; extensive information on organization of the booth, conduct, dress code and a series of typical questions that might be asked by a non-Mason along with proposed answers.

Lodges of Instruction

The committee was asked to participate at all Lodges of Instruction by making available for sale all Grand Lodge publications, books, and other miscellaneous items such as the audio tape "What is Freemasonry?" and the Friend to Friend video "Freemasonry in Ontario."

Masonic Information Booths

As alluded to in last year's report, an Information Booth was hosted in the Toronto Bath Underground, with in excess of 20 people expressing an interest in Freemasonry. At the time of this writing, another booth was planned for the same location. The team was also involved in an Information Booth at the University of Toronto's Frosh Week activities. In six hours, seventy-five young individuals expressed an interest in either more information or possibly joining Freemasonry. In follow-up, we have come to the realization that although many students may be interested, perhaps we are asking them to assume a further financial burden that they may not be able to handle.

Recommendation: That an Ad Hoc Committee be formed to explore how we can help young students, with an interest in Freemasonry, to facilitate their admittance and subsequent participation in our Order.

Conclusion

Benchmarking

All of the teams have been requested to benchmark their activities with those of other jurisdictions. Their main source for information has been the Fraternal Reviews in the Proceedings, and the various web sites. Upon review, we feel that in many ways our Grand Lodge continues to lead the way with regard to Public Relations and Communications. We have noted some "best practices" used by other jurisdictions, and will incorporate them into the long-range prospectus.

Outstanding Issues

Along with the above recommendations, many of the recommendations contained in last year's proceedings reports are still relevant and still stand as recommendations of this committee.

It has been my privilege to serve as Chairman of the Committee on Public Relations. The Team Leaders and their teams continue to do an excellent job and offer yeoman service, and I sincerely thank them for all their efforts which are put forward on your behalf.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Public Relations team.

DAVID SHEEN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. Daniels, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Daniels, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Education is, and always has been, the lifeblood of Speculative Freemasonry. Learning is the indispensable component essential to progress in the science. Since it was established as a Standing Committee in 1930, the Constitutional mandate has remained constant: To provide "Masonic instruction in our traditions, rites, symbolism, and history."

Real ongoing, lifelong education doesn't answer questions; it provokes them.

Luci Swindoll

To encourage all brethren to fulfill the directive "to make a daily advancement in Masonic knowledge," every Worshipful Master is encouraged to include learning opportunities as a regular agenda item at every meeting in every lodge. 'MASONIC NIGHTS AT THE ROUND TABLE' in which every member may participate in open, free discussion of questions relevant to the symbolism, philosophy and history continue to engender lively interest among the participants. Seated at a 'Round Table' every place is equal, and all are equidistant from the centre where truth may be found. Each brother is free to think for himself, entitled to form his own opinion, develop his personal interpretation, and reach his own conclusions that best satisfy his inquiring mind.

Curiosity is one of the permanent and certain characteristics of a vigorous mind.

Samuel Johnston (1708 - 1784)

Be well assured, "It's OK to ask WHY? in lodge!" Question, discuss, think, read, study, learn, GROW. In several instances, discussion has centered on questions solicited from a newly initiated Entered Apprentice: "What may I expect to get from Freemasonry?" and "What does Freemasonry expect of me?" Worshipful Masters who have tried this approach to active participation in the learning process have discovered that it proves to be more than a 'life-support' system when interest ebbs and attendance dwindles; it is a 'life-giving' process that restores vitality among veterans and engenders enthusiasm in newer members. A Lodge of Discussion is never a boring night at lodge.

I hear and I forget - I see and I remember - I do and I understand.

Confucius

Much has been accomplished by the application of thought-provoking educational activities in those districts where seminars, workshops, discussion groups were organized. Packages of resource material were distributed to every incoming D.D.G.M. following his investiture at Grand Lodge. Guidelines to assist District Education Chairmen and Lodge Education Chairmen to be effective educators were included to assist and strengthen these essential links in the communication chain for the two-way transmission of information. Where the District Chairman has been proactive in the promotion of learning opportunities and in those lodges where the Worshipful Master has encouraged his brethren to participate in lively discussion, the reports received from the Regional Resource Representatives indicate high interest, substantial progress and positive achievement.

They have enough who know how to learn.

Henry Brooks Adams (1838 - 1918)

During the past year most lodges throughout the Grand Jurisdiction have experienced an influx of applicants for initiation — keen, intelligent, well educated, widely read, well-informed young men. These candidates are curious to know, ready to learn, and eager to explore the peculiar mysteries and unique privileges that ancient Freemasonry offers to its devotees. They are coming into Masonry seeking answers to the deeper questions of life and being — this mortal coil. The symbolism of the lectures and significance of the charges delivered in our arcane Ritual must be explained and interpreted. For them, the lodge must be a centre for learning, a place where the deeper Meaning of Masonry is seriously studied, its profound truths are explored, its ideals thoroughly understood, its ideas cheerfully communicated, and its timeless principles practiced. For this new generation of intelligent and perceptive young men, it is not enough merely to confer a series of degrees in as short a time as the Constitution allows. The Worshipful Master who protests, "We have so many candidates that we don't have time for education" should remember his stated duty: "to employ and instruct the brethren in Masonry." Learning Ritual is relatively easy; penetrating its esoteric meaning is arduous, understanding its philosophy is a lifelong quest.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom;

And with all thy getting get understanding.

Proverbs 4: 7

In the spring of 2004, a representative group of fifteen enthusiastic and energetic younger Masons, randomly selected from lodges across the Grand Jurisdiction, was brought together to share insights and ideas, to analyse and evaluate present practice, and to formulate strategies and suggest ways to improve the cogency of Masonic Education in particular and enhance the utility of Freemasonry in general. The object of this exercise: to study present Reality and conceive a Vision for the future - to learn from an analysis of Now to realign a strategy for Then, to determine how Masonic Education might enhance and secure the future of Freemasonry — What we might Become. This enterprise has been under the benign superintendence of R.W. Bro. Wayne Elgie and W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie. Several dynamic meetings and a lively exchange of e-mail correspondence have generated stimulating and forthright discussion of probing questions, fundamental to a comprehensive understanding of and heightened respect for our established usages and customs. Such reexamination of the potential impact and relevance of Freemasonry to life and learning in the twenty-first century by this group of keen intellects has been most edifying.

One conclusion on which all agree, "It's already in us ... we just need to bring it out!" resulted in a pilot project test marketed in Cambridge, Hamilton, Ottawa and Waterloo during March and April this year. Working in cooperation with the Worshipful Master of a selected lodge, members of the G-15 developed a topical presentation and initiated discussion of the questions that flowed from the points of view expressed by the brethren. The success of these initial outings gives ample proof that cooperation among lodges, sharing skill and ability and supporting each other in a common purpose, will greatly benefit all. The whole is greater than the sum of its parts. Members of the G-15 will be available during this Communication to share their ideas with any brethren interested in organizing a Lodge of Discussion.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Knowledge is of two kinds.

We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can find information upon it.

Samuel Johnston (1708 - 1784)

- The Masonic Education pages posted on the Grand Lodge Website make available a host of practical ideas that can be adopted and adapted for application in the lodge – either for thirty seconds or thirty minutes. Enrolment forms for the College of Freemasonry correspondence courses and subscription forms for The Newsletter may be downloaded and printed. The Brother to Brother Toolkit is now posted on the Website. It also includes a large component of useful educational material.
- The College of Freemasonry - V.W. Bro. Sydney R. Lowe, Team Leader, V.W. Bro. Gordon S. Walker, Co-administrator. Founded in 1983, the College provides two Correspondence Courses: one for Master Masons in four parts, and another for Past Masters aspiring to the office of District Deputy Grand Master, in three parts. The testimonials received from the graduates of both courses attest to the quality and value of knowledge gained by those that enroll. We extend best wishes to those many brethren currently engaged in completing the courses, and congratulate the following brethren that have earned Certificates of Achievement as Fellows of the College of Freemasonry (FCF):

Byrd, Richard A.	Salem Lodge No. 368	St. Lawrence District
Hart, Blair	Seven Star Lodge No. 285	Georgian South District
O'Halloran, Timothy Jas	Star in the East Lodge No. 164	Prince Edward District
Porter, Dale	Prince Edward Lodge No. 18	Prince Edward District
Splan, Greg	North Star Lodge No. 322	Grey District
Walz, Albert F.	St. George's Lodge No. 15	Niagara A District
Wellman, Edward Bruce	Cornwall Lodge No. 125	Eastern District

Special acknowledgment is made of the corps of diligent and knowledgeable mentors who faithfully review, evaluate and comment on the assignments submitted by the students. Their work is indispensable and is the real foundation on which the College rests and the prime reason for the success it continues to enjoy.

- The Newsletter - R.W. Bro. Douglas Franklin, Team Leader, R.W. Bro. D. Garry Dowling, Production and Subscription Manager. This pocket-sized booklet, published quarterly since 1977, is a collection of short, interesting and informative articles written by Ontario Masons for Ontario Masons. Regular features include Custodian's Corner (M.W. Bro. C. Edwin Drew, Custodian of The Work), Book Nook (R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, Grand Historian), and Questions of the Fraternity (W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie). Are you a subscriber? Sample copies may be purchased and subscriptions are available at the Masonic Education Display in the foyer.
- Publications and Book Sales - W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie, Team Leader. It has been said that, "Masons have more need to read than men in almost any other society or organization." Their needs are well served; books on and about Freemasonry are in abundant supply, and new titles appear in bookshops every month. The Grand Secretary's Office in Hamilton has many publications authorized by our Grand Lodge available for sale over the counter or by mail ordered through your Lodge Secretary. A large selection of good quality books is again on sale at the book display during this Annual Communication. The list of titles has been expanded to include some of the standard reference books by respected and reliable authors (e.g. Harry Carr, Frederick Smyth, W. Kirk McNulty). The vast collection in the Grand Lodge Library is always available to the Brethren. 'Yours to discover.'

The true University these days is a collection of books.

Thomas Carlyle (1795 - 1881)

- The Masonic Education Committee has made more than fifty presentations this year in lodges around the Grand Jurisdiction to demonstrate how easy it is to create interesting and stimulating learning opportunities at every meeting. In cooperation with the Seminars and Workshops Committee, educational components were included on the agenda in three regional workshops held in Kingston, London, and Barrie.

The human mind delights in extending and expanding its knowledge.

Bishop Berkeley, 1721

The sincere Mason true to his high calling is a perpetual student, and will always ask, "Please, sir, more!" - seeking more light, thirsting for more knowledge, and yearning for deeper understanding. We are attracting candidates in increasing numbers. We promise them 'great and invaluable privileges.' To study the ideas and ideals enshrined in and conveyed by our ancient mysteries is the greatest privilege and ultimate reward offered to Initiates in our time-honoured institution. 'Let's Talk Masonry.' The Chairman and Members of this Committee are eager and willing to support any Worshipful Master in any educational endeavour; to accept an invitation to visit your Lodge to present a 'Lodge of Discussion' and to assist your District to organize 'Masonic Nights at the Round Table'. The Regional Resource Representatives strategically located around the Province and the District Chairmen of Education appointed by the District Deputy Grand Masters are ready and willing to serve. Remember, we are part of your lodge support team.

Perpetuate the legacy for a season.

Masonry and Education are synonymous terms. Our goal: To kindle the spark that will light the lamp of learning in every lodge. On the threshold of the second half of our second century, our future depends on every member of this Grand Lodge being competent and confident to explain the real meaning of Freemasonry. Learning is a life long activity, and Masonic Education will always be 'work in progress' as we press toward the mark of our high calling as Free and Accepted Masons.

Albert Einstein (1879 - 1955), the great thinker of the twentieth century, left us with this admonition, which seems to have direct application to our high calling as Freemasons: "Never regard study as a duty, but as the enviable opportunity to learn to know the liberating influence of beauty in the realm of the spirit for your own personal joy and to the profit of the community to which your later work belongs."

Tribute must be paid and gratitude expressed to the dedication and diligence of the members of the committee: R.W. Bro. J. David Bell (Sudbury), Vice Chairman and Co-coordinator of Regional Resource Representatives, R.W. Bro. James A. Fisher (Baden), Secretary, V.W. Bro. Sydney R. Lowe (London), Administrator, and V.W. Bro. Gordon S. Walker (London), Co-administrator for the College of Freemasonry, R.W. Bro. Douglas Franklin (Ottawa), Team Leader for The Newsletter, Bro. Iain Mackenzie (Burlington) Team Leader for Publications and Book Sales; the Curriculum Design Committee: M.W. Bro. David C. Bradley, R.W. Bros. Dr. Michael J. Diamond (London), Wayne E. Elgie (Burlington), Rev. M. John Moor (Orleans), Bruce N. Whitmore (Walton), V.W. Bro. William White (London) and W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie (Burlington); Regional Resource Representatives: R.W. Bros. Keith Cosier (Caledonia), Gordon T. Grieve (Sarnia), Dennis A. Hawman (Orillia), Peter F. Irwin (Port Hope), James D. Kingstone (Thunder Bay), S. Weston Libbey (Cornwall), Dr. Gareth R. Taylor (Richmond Hill), Allan Tibbetts (Fort Frances), and William G. Walker (London). These brethren have exemplified the motto of this committee: Masonry is the Science of Service.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the team leaders and members of the committee.

RAYMOND S. J. DANIELS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE 150th ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. McLean, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLean, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

"Looking Back / Moving Forward"

I am honoured and delighted to present the report of the 150th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge Steering Committee on behalf of its dedicated members: M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, Grand Master; M.W. Bro. Robert Davies, P.G.M.; M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, Grand Secretary; R.W. Bros. Gary Atkinson, D.G.M.; Robert Beckett, Donald Campbell, Thomas Lewis, Paul Mullen, Charles Reid, Robert Collins, Wallace McLeod, Grand Historian, Alex Watson, Ronald Wallace, David Sheen, Paul Todd; V.W. Bro. Bill Atkinson, W. Bro. Ben Palmer, and Bro. Sheldon Kofsky.

Your 150th committee's mandate was to design and implement a suitable programme for the Masons of Ontario to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

From all the celebrations and activities over the year, Masons and their families and friends visibly took pride and participated somehow, somehow in this great milestone in our Masonic Heritage.

THEN (in July 2004)

The 150th celebrations opened, featuring the Kilwinning Pipe & Drums and a tribute to our Past Grand Masters since 1855. Our ladies and special guests witnessed the opening ceremony. Then your Grand Lodge traveled and visited with the brethren in and around Kingston, Simcoe, and in Thunder Bay. All Especial meetings included a mini-session of Grand Lodge, the 150th Play - Then & Now, featuring in period costume and local scenes and concluded with the District Grand Master's Reception. We are very grateful to our 150th hosts in the various locations for organizing great days for Freemasonry in the communities.

Here are some ways you "Let your Light Shine."

- A Masonic Exhibition – Dundurn Castle, Hamilton, Ontario, opened in July 2005.
- Special Degree Teams, Park clean-ups, Walk-a-thons, Garden Parties, 150th Banners on Lodge Buildings, Family Picnics, Barbecues, Bike-a-thons, Media events and press releases, Church Services and Golf Days, just to mention a few.
- Many lodges jointly celebrated anniversary milestones throughout the year with Grand Lodge's 150th.
- The Masonic Foundation, partnering with local district charitable projects such as, Cat Scan Unit, Chronic Care, Wings in Local Hospitals, Medical Research, Lou Gehrig's, Parkinson's Society, Breast Cancer, Alzheimer's, Autism, Hearing Research, Variety Village, Boys and Girls Clubs, and Student Assistance, held very successful and worthy projects.

NOW (in July 2005)

The 150th Celebrations continue with the final curtain of the 150th Play - Then & Now in the Concert Hall, the Divine Service featuring Guest Speaker Bishop C. Robert Townshend and Masonic Choir directed by V.W. Bro. George Knapp, followed by the Roy Thomson Hall Meet & Greet session with the Grand Master and special guests, with entertainment provided by John McDermott and friends.

And, yes, please don't walk away without purchasing a memento or two of this special 150th event. Be sure to visit the display booth in the foyer.

FUTURE (still a little more to come)

On October 14, 2005, an Open House and plaque ceremony will take place at the Grand Lodge Building in Hamilton, followed by the 150th Anniversary event of Acacia Lodge.

An Historical 150th Grand Lodge Anniversary Booklet, recorded by our Grand Historian, R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, will be available in the first quarter of 2006, takes a look at Grand Lodge from its 125th Anniversary to the present.

From the entire 150th Committee – another page in our rich and great history has turned. Two simple and sincere yet powerful words to all the Masons and non-Masons who SUPPORTED AND PARTICIPATED in the 150th celebrations – THANK YOU.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the entire 150th Anniversary Committee.

REPORT OF THE BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. M. L. Shea, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Shea, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure to be able to present this report on behalf of the members of the Blood Donors' Committee: R.W. Bro. William Henshall (Vice Chairman), V.W. Bro. Arthur W. Stokes (Secretary), R.W. Bros. E. Roy Harrison, Terry Pachal, Gary Bloomfield, John Hunter, Louis J. Lombardi, and Richard F. Hewitt; V.W. Bros. Jim Abrams and David McCallum and W. Bro. Terry Henderson.

On behalf of all of the members of the Blood Donors' Committee, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to the many enthusiastic District and Lodge Blood Donor Chairmen who continue to devote a great deal of their time and energy to promote and encourage their brethren, families, and friends to give the "Gift of Life."

I, particularly, want to express my thanks and appreciation to the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, and the Grand Lodge staff, for their assistance and patience shown to this committee.

We would also especially like to show our appreciation to all those individuals who donate blood on behalf of the various lodges, such as family members, neighbours, friends, etc., who attend clinics because a Mason has invited them to attend.

Some of the key objectives of this Committee for the year were as follows:

Certificates – The committee will continue to produce computer generated certificates that recognize milestone donations. We will recognize milestones beginning at the 25 donation mark and at multiples of 25 up to 100, and at multiples of 50 thereafter. These certificates to be signed by our Grand Master. Appropriate certificates have been presented as reported for this Masonic year and continue to be distributed.

I am sure that there are still more brethren who are eligible for these certificates, but for a variety of reasons they never receive them. Thus, it is very important that Lodge Blood Donor Chairmen, as well as District Blood Donor Chairmen record these special achievements and pass them on to this committee.

Recognition – The committee agreed to recognize the district with the highest number of donations for the year, the district with the greatest per capita donations, and the most improved district. I am most pleased to report the following recognitions:

- Most Donations – Algoma District
- Highest Per Capita Donations – Algoma District
- Most Improved District – North Huron District
(Increase per Capita)

International Plowing Match – The booth from the Canadian Blood Services was present at the Masonic Tent for the International Plowing Match held in Grey District, near Meaford, from September 22 to 26, 2004. Many thanks are extended to C.B.S. and especially to Marg Gow and Janine Smith, who set up and took down the display and insured that handouts were available as well as being present to assist in answering questions. Our thanks to all involved.

Ontario Mason Magazine – It is the wish of this committee that the Ontario Mason Magazine continue to be distributed to the Masons of Ontario. It is one important means by which important contributions of various members can be recognized.

This year, W. Bro. Doug Waller, from Norfolk Lodge, No. 10, in Wilson South District, was recognized by Canadian Blood Services, as one of fifteen volunteers from across the country for his leadership in organizing clinics. As well as, he continues to donate blood and has just recently received an award of Merit Certificate for 100 donations of whole blood.

Congratulations are extended to R.W. Bro. David Sheen who also received an award from the Canadian Blood Services. His was a special recognition for the role he played in helping to initiate the "Sirens for Life" challenge between the three Emergency Services in the Toronto area, in order to help raise the number of donations and increasing the awareness of the need for donations.

The efforts of these two brethren are greatly appreciated.

Communications - Effective communication between this committee and the brethren across the province is difficult. As the committee members themselves are spread across the province from Thunder Bay to Spencerville and Sarnia, even attending committee meetings is impossible for some members. Telephone and e-mail communication thus becomes very important.

As each committee member serves as a regional chairman, each being assigned a group of Districts Nos. 3-6, they then become the link for communication between this committee and the 46 District Blood Donor Chairmen. Likewise, communication from districts and lodges returns to this committee through these regional chairmen.

The District Blood Donor Chairmen and the Lodge Blood Donor Chairmen play a very important role in this whole communication process.

Unrelated Bone Marrow Registry - As a part of the mandate of the Blood Donors' Committee, we are: "To raise the awareness of and encourage the brethren, their families, and friends, to consider participation in the Unrelated Bone Marrow Donor Registry."

Listed below are the numbers of plasma, platelet, and whole blood donations by district to March 31, 2005, our year end.

Conclusion - Changes continue to take place in the Blood Donor Programme since it was instituted by the late M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn in 1958. Although our mandate has changed somewhat, the original terms of reference are still applicable today: "to assist agencies working in this field and to keep identified with their wonderful work." The need for blood and blood products continues to grow. This is due in part to:

a) more complex surgeries

- a) more complex surgeries
- b) more organ transplants
- c) more aggressive treatment of cancer and heart problems
- d) an aging population

Canadian Blood Services are promoting a "Donors for Life" programme in an effort to try to keep up with the demand for blood products. It is simply a programme made up of thousands of Canadians like you, willing to make the commitment to give blood, plasma, or platelets regularly, at least four times a year. You can join by simply speaking to a C.B.S. representative at your next local Blood Donors' Clinic.

The Appointment System also continues to be promoted by C.B.S. and is gaining in popularity. The main advantage for making an appointment seems to be "time." According to a satisfied donor, "I like the appointment system - much more efficient use of my time." However, it is also still important that walk-ins be accommodated as quickly as possible. It is very important that any hopeful donor is never turned away because he does not have an appointment.

Everyone is not able to donate blood due to so many restrictions. Yet, Masons, their families, friends, and neighbours, continue to generously support in other ways and ensure that the supply of the "Gift of Life" is there when needed.

Our present Blood Donor Pamphlets are no longer available as the present supply do not contain current and correct information pertaining to eligibility and various restrictions. Also, due to budget restrictions, the printing of such materials becomes very costly. We will continue to work on this problem as we continually receive requests for brochures.

District Blood Donor Chairmen are reminded that records of blood donations must be kept for the months between May 31 and September. Because District Blood Donor Chairmen frequently change with each new D.D.G.M., this committee strongly supports the suggestion that District Blood Donor Chairmen should remain in a district for at least two years. It is imperative that lodges and districts appoint qualified and eager men as Blood Donor Chairmen.

Our total number of blood donations for this current year is lower than last year but we will continue to strive to increase this total. In some cases, District Chairmen have expressed difficulty in obtaining donation numbers from some of their lodges. Others commented that some clinics were no longer being offered in their areas. The end result is that it is becoming more and more important for all lodge members to assist C.B.S. by encouraging friends and family members to donate on behalf of our lodges. It is imperative that we continue to host clinics, if possible, and perhaps organize challenges so that we can continue to keep our numbers ever increasing. We must work hard and not get discouraged. I'm sure the numbers will come.

Finally, the committee wishes to thank all those who contribute to the Masonic Blood Donor programme - donors, phone and clinic volunteers, lodge and District Blood Donor Chairmen, and the D.D.G.M.s. Their contributions are important to the success of this programme. The need for blood and blood products is greater than ever now and we pledge our support to maintain that the "Gift of Life" is there when the need arises. Special thanks to all Clinic Recruitment Co-ordinators, Marg Gow, our C.B.S. representative, and all of the C.B.S. staff across the province for their continued support and assistance.

If you knew you could save a life - would you? Give the "Gift of Life."

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Blood Donors' Committee.

REPORT OF THE MASONIC FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Report does not appear in the Preliminary Proceedings.

It was my privilege, yesterday morning, to report on behalf of the Board of Directors to the Forty-Second Annual Meeting of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

Highlights of activities of the Foundation form an integral part of the Annual Report. I strongly encourage you to read the Report in its entirety to fully appreciate the widespread nature of the charitable work undertaken and the accountability of The Board to you, the shareholders. There are ample copies of the Annual Report at The Masonic Foundation Display, just outside this room.

Today, I would like to formally recognize the contributions of our Past President, Ron Campbell and three departees from the Board, namely, Tom Hogeboom, Hermann Waxl and Walter Matyczuk. In addition, your Foundation is indebted to the Directors and Committee Chairmen who unselfishly give their time and expertise to ensure maximum benefits to our recipients. I would like to welcome two new Directors to our Board, namely, Paul Todd from Carleton Place, and Kenneth Campbell from Picton.

Your Foundation has enjoyed the unqualified support of our Grand Lodge and our Grand Master, M.W. Bro Donald H. Mumby, who has championed our cause with passion and conviction.

Of note, financially, unrestricted net assets at March 31, 2005, amounted to $7,781,837, up marginally from the previous year. Foundation-supported programs received grants of $420,891 while several Districts partnered with the Foundation to initiate local projects, contributing a further $196,416 to a variety of diverse causes.

The Foundation is most proud of its unique partnership with our Grand Lodge during the Sesquicentennial celebrations. Some 40 Districts took advantage of incentives of up to $3500 per project, that is a commitment by the Foundation of up to $161,000, to become involved in mounting local community-benefitting projects and raising funds in support of many diverse causes. While many of the funds are still trickling in, we can report that over half a million dollars has been raised. Every Mason in this Province, who was associated in any way with this dynamic showcasing of Masonry, can be justifiably proud of his contribution.

During the next year, your Board of Directors is planning a full-blown review of all its activities in an attempt to determine whether or not we are receiving maximum value for the dollars that are disbursed. We are also moving to enhance our communications with our various stakeholders, through our Web page but also through other communications mechanisms.

The Masons of Ontario have clearly demonstrated a sense of pride and purpose during the last year. It is opportune now to move forward, building on tradition and our past reputation, dedicating ourselves to create a future of continued involvement, effectiveness and excellence. The relationship of the Board of Directors of the Foundation and of you, our stakeholders, is reciprocal. The labours of neither can succeed without mutual and inseparable cooperation as we move towards a common set of goals, clearly stated and reasonably achievable . . . for the cause of good.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Directors and Officers of The Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

SAMUEL KALINOWSKY, President

REPORT OF THE DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. Jacklin, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Jacklin, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

There have not been any Masonic trials conducted this year. Accordingly, we have not been called upon to review any verdicts or punishments nor have there been any decisions made by any Board of Appeal or any applications received for restoration.

Two requests were received for Certificates of Severance and they were granted. Doing so saved both the men making the requests and their Lodges from having to conduct Masonic trials and we are pleased with this realistic approach set out in the Constitution to cover such circumstances. Lastly, there was one instance where the Grand Master decided pursuant to the Constitution and after full investigation and review, that the matter had been a private pique and quarrel and further action would not be taken.

Obviously, matters pertaining to discipline under the Constitution can have very significant consequences in the Masonic life of those involved. The Committee takes these matters with the utmost seriousness when arriving at its decisions and making recommendations to the Grand Master. We would ask that any Brother contemplating a complaint keep this in mind so that only those matters which can not be resolved in any other fashion come before us.

In closing, I express my thanks for the guidance, wisdom and generous assistance provided by our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, and all the members of our Committee.

All of which is respectively submitted.

DAVID E. JACKLIN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. Hutton, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hutton, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The committee reviewed the reports of all District Deputy Grand Masters for 2003-2004. The information from those reports was summarized and distributed to the applicable Grand Lodge committees to assist with requests for assistance and concerns. Copies of those findings by district were also presented to the current District Deputy Grand Masters in January 2005.

Specific information was gathered relating to:

Lodge Finances; Brother to Brother Programme; Friend to Friend & Mentor Programme; Work in the Lodges; Lodge Buildings; Long Range Planning.

Lodge Finances

Some lodges acknowledge that they are experiencing difficulty with their finances. Surprisingly, some do not prepare an annual budget and only a few have developed a long-range plan. Increased operating costs combined with lower return on investments make financial planning a key issue. Sound financial management is increasingly important and the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances is available to provide assistance.

Recommendation: Encourage all lodges to have a finance committee responsible for preparing an annual budget to guide their financial well-being.

Membership and Special Events

It is still necessary in some lodges for Past Masters to occupy the progressive chairs. This may well be a positive situation so that the newer officers are not advanced too quickly. The Past Masters who take on this responsibility are to be commended for their commitment, but the younger members must be encouraged to assume an office with proper assistance and guidance during their progression. Lodges that actively make use of the Grand Lodge programmes (Friend to Friend, Brother to Brother and Mentors) appear to be the most active and healthy. As well, it appears that the lodges that are actively involved in visitations, Masonic education and community projects are healthier lodges. Those that do not take advantage of these opportunities appear to be struggling.

Recommendation: Impress the importance of these Grand Lodge programmes to each Worshipful Master and the Officers of each lodge to ensure the future of Freemasonry.

Work in the Lodge

Most lodges proudly present the work in the lodge room in the proper manner. However, a few concerns still exist, most often relating to protocol and fellowship during the banquet time. Grand Lodge programmes such as the Lodge of Instruction plus Officer Progression can help.

Recommendation: All line officers should be encouraged to take advantage of these Grand Lodge Seminars and Workshops.

Lodge Buildings

Concerns have been raised with a number of the buildings. Often, financial concerns limit resources to properly maintain the facilities. This concern provides another reason for good sound planning.

Recommendation: Encourage a long-range plan to ensure that meeting places will be available for the future.

Long Range Planning

Lodges (and districts) that have developed a long-range plan are better prepared to meet the challenges of the future of Freemasonry. These 5-year plans include finances, buildings, membership, as well as other specific needs of the lodge. These plans allow for accurate and meaningful direction for the success of the lodge.

Recommendation: Encourage each lodge to develop their long-range plan, including periodic reviews.

General

A few lodges asked for assistance during the year and those requests were forwarded to the applicable Grand Lodge committee.

The committee wishes to acknowledge the efforts of our Lodge Secretaries, District Secretaries and D.D.G.M.s in the completion of these reports. The committee recommends that the District Secretary be responsible to make certain these reports are submitted to each lodge well in advance of the visitation of the D.D.G.M. so that the lodge secretary has ample time to properly complete the information. The District Secretary should also assume the responsibility of making certain that accurate and detailed information is completed. The information gathered is so valuable in evaluating the condition of Masonry throughout our jurisdiction to help set the future direction of our Grand Lodge and the necessary programmes.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee members: V.W. Bros. Keith Anderson, Ian Dale; R.W. Bros. Paul James, George McCowan, Robert McKee, Edward (Ted) Rutter and Robert (Bob) Taylor.

BARRY J. HUTTON, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMPUTER RESOURCES COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. E. Bond, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bond, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Summonses via E-mail

It is to be noted that over 428 lodges have attended one of the E-mail Seminars. Each attending lodge has received a copy of the training CD and a printed handout regarding the actions to be taken for the proper preparation and delivery of the electronic summonses.

The seminar process is continuing, as it has been found that a change of officers at Installation, or unfortunately, death, sometimes results in loss or misplacement of the information needed to properly complete this task. Also, lodges which have not yet attended are now moving toward this delivery method and need the training. Further, new tools and processes are constantly being added to the list contained on the Distribution CD.

District seminars conducted during this Masonic Year are:

Bruce	December 18, 2004	Hanover
London East & West	January 15, 2005	London Masonic Centre
Peterborough & Prince Edward	April 9, 2005	Campbellford
Sudbury-Manitoulin	May 21, 2005	Little Current

A series of individual lodge seminars, involving the Secretary and/or his assistant, have been ongoing throughout the year. A number of informational contacts on this subject have been addressed by phone and e-mail. In three cases, due to distance and unavailability of a committee member, the local District Representative was empowered to conduct the seminar. The names of the attendees, their rank in the lodge, lodge number and district were reported to the chairman and recorded in the attendance database.

In each of the seminars, it was again strongly noted that the Grand Secretary, Grand Master and D.D.G.M. MUST receive their summons in printed form and delivered by regular surface post.

Semiannual Return

This Return is now included in the Distribution CD in PDF format. A test of the form was conducted during the months November and December 2004, and January 2005, in three districts: Toronto 3, Toronto 4 and Bruce. At the conclusion of the test, permission was given by the Management Committee to open this process to the whole jurisdiction.

A series of rules are to be followed:

1. The form is to be printed on WHITE, ACID-FREE paper.
2. The original form MUST BE RETURNED to the Grand Lodge Office with the completed PDF form.
3. The DATES and FINANCIAL information contained on the original form MUST BE TRANSFERRED to the PDF form.

Lodge Programming

The Distribution CD now contains the following files:

D.D.G.M. Reporting Forms	- Electronic forms for Official Visits, etc
Report of Lodge Officers	- Electronic form to report Officers to G.L. at time of Installation
Semiannual Return	- Electronic form of the Semiannual Return (added in March 2005)
Acrobat Reader 6.0	- Full installation programme
Lodge Finance Programmes	- Microsoft Excel and Quicken files
Helpful Utilities	- Some DOS graphic conversion programmes
Masonic Graphics	- Square and Compass files, etc
Microsoft Applications	- Templates for dues card creation, summons, etc
Microsoft Works	- Some templates for database, summons, etc
Zip Programs	- WINZIP
Spygraphic A	- Website recorder for the concerned parent
Pretty Good Privacy	- Alternate security programme
Lodge Database Programme	- Written by W. Bro. Robinson, Moira Lodge No. 11 (NEW)
Web Browsers	- Microsoft Internet Explorer 6.0
PC-FILE	- Older DOS database application
PDF 995	- PDF Creator programming and explanation
Summons	- An overview of the rules, programming needed, method of preparation and reception of summonses sent by the medium of e-mail

Blind Brethren

The CD for our blind brethren is now being updated to reflect any changes to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada which may be approved in July 2005. It also contains the complete contents of "The Work 1999," "Meeting the Challenge" and "Mechanics of the Work and Guidelines for Officers." Remember that this CD is available only by request from the lodge, signed and sealed, approved by the D.D.G.M. and forwarded to Grand Lodge. It is hoped that approval will soon be obtained to allow this CD to be distributed, under the same process, to brethren with hearing loss as well.

Proceedings

The Proceedings for 2004 are now in CD format and copies have been provided to Grand Lodge for distribution to those jurisdictions outside of Ontario. Our lodges and members will continue to receive a printed copy of the Proceedings. As the costs of printing increase and availability of suitable computers in the hands of brethren become even greater, it is expected that the use of this medium will become more common and will result in considerable cost savings in the delivery of our Proceedings to our members.

Registration

This 150th Masonic Year will culminate in a gala celebration and a renewal of officers. The tabulation of voting delegates at the Annual Communication will be done, in large part, as the result of hard work and expert programming by W. Bro. Kris Nickerson, P.M. of The Barton Lodge No. 6, in Hamilton. I extend my most sincere thanks to him for the assistance and dedication that he has exhibited throughout the year.

Grand Lodge Website

In a recent experiment with the Brother to Brother Committee to post the B2B Handbook and related items on the Grand Lodge Website, it has been determined that this practice allowed greater dissemination of the programme because of its easy access. As the result of presentations made to the Management Committee, approval has been given to expand the space available for the Website and to open the Website up to other committees. When this process is completed, we will arrange for specific committees to have their own separate area and these "committee" areas will be maintained by individual committee webmasters.

The Grand Lodge Webmaster, R.W. Bro. James Kirk-White, has indicated that he would like to see this happen, as it will create a pool of experienced webmasters from which his possible successor could be chosen.

Miscellaneous

In October 2004, a request was made of each district to report the number of lodges using the e-mail delivery system and the number of members so affected. This report was to be forwarded to this committee by the end of November 2004. As of this writing, only four districts have responded. This is too small a number to develop any meaningful information, so the process will continue into the next year.

On behalf of the members of the Computer Resources Committee, W. Bro. Donald Reekie, W. Bro. Kris Nickerson, V.W. Bro. Peter Scott, R.W. Bro. James Kirk-White (Webmaster), R.W. Bro. Robert Manz and the District Representatives, I would like to extend a special "Thank you" to the Grand Secretary and his excellent staff for their courtesy and assistance throughout the past year.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. H. A. Wilson, Grand Chaplain.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Greetings! I have been honoured to have been asked to serve as the Grand Chaplain of our Grand Lodge during this past year, especially in such a special year as the sesquicentennial anniversary of the establishment of our Grand Lodge in Ontario. Despite a particularly busy year I consider it to have been a most memorable one, and one I would not have missed. In my travels I have been welcomed warmly and fed both nutritionally and spiritually; I have made many new acquaintances and renewed several old friendships. I would hope that my work has fostered good will and contributed to the Masonic spirit of relief, truth and brotherly love.

As I began this year, I realized that I could not be all things to all people, so I developed a few priorities. The first was to deal with those responsibilities and events which required my particular participation as Grand Chaplain; secondly, to attend such other services, receptions and meetings as I was able; thirdly, to visit various lodges (particularly in the Prince Edward and surrounding districts) to enjoy the fraternal friendship; and finally, to attend the meetings of my own lodges and perform the duties assigned to me. Unfortunately, time and energy prevented me from being able to accomplish all that I had wished, but I hope that I have served our gentle fraternity well during the past year.

In addition to participating in several official visits of the District Deputy Grand Master to the Prince Edward District, and several District Divine Services, I was able to participate in the following special events:

- Oct 22, 2004 Dedication of Kingston Masonic Centre and Especial Communication Grand Lodge.
- April 3, 2005 Toronto District Divine Service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Toronto to observe the 150th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.
- April 16, 2005 Re-dedication and celebration of the 125th Anniversary of Doric Lodge No. 58, in Ottawa.
- April 22, 2005 Grand Master's Reception and 125th Anniversary of Lorne Lodge No. 375, at Omemee.
- May 9, 2005 Dedication of the new lodge facilities of Lorne Lodge No. 377, in Shelburne.
- May 24, 2005 Amalgamation of Ancient Landmarks and Doric Lodges, in Hamilton.

In closing, I would like to thank the Assistant Grand Chaplains, the District Chaplains and, in particular, Past Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. John Moor, for their general support and for standing in for me when I could not be present at various events. Thanks, too, to the brethren of my lodge, Eureka 283, Belleville, for their outstanding support. I also want to express my sincere appreciation for the courtesy extended to the office of Grand Chaplain with special thanks to the Grand Master for the honour of being appointed part of the Grand Lodge Leadership Team in this significant year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

REV. DR. HAROLD A. WILSON, Grand Chaplain

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. P. E. Todd, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Todd, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The following is the report of the Long Range Planning Team and it is given on behalf of its hard working members: R.W. Bro. Frankland M. Wilson, Vice-Chairman/Secretary, R.W. Bros. Rudolph (Rudy) Mulack, John Ault, Fred Collins, Alfred (Alf) Messenger, James Oliver, Dale Olm, David Salter, Errol Stewart, and W. Bro. Ben Palmer.

One of the roles of the Long Range Planning Committee is to assist districts and lodges to create a Long Range Strategic Plan to ensure the lodge's stability, lodge growth and a lodge presence in our communities by designing a Strategic Plan using the Grand Lodge Strategic Plan as a template.

Last year's request for more members to the Long Range Planning Committee was granted and that gave the committee this year almost complete geographical coverage of our Grand Jurisdiction. Each committee member was assigned Districts for which they were responsible. Each committee member then contacted their assigned Districts by letter, asking if we the committee could assist their District in establishing a Strategic Plan.

Recommendation: The committee recommends that the Long Range Planning Committee have the same number of members with a possible extension for a member in far south western Ontario and the far north west.

Crieff Hills Conference — Strategic Plan

Every two years Grand Lodge holds a "Think Tank" at the Crieff Hills Conference Centre for two purposes. The first being to review Grand Lodge's Strategic Plan and the second to deliberate over various scenarios, which are deemed to be of a concern to our Grand Lodge. The present Chairman of Long Range Planning hosted the conference and he was greatly assisted by the former Chairman, R.W. Bro. Terry McLean.

The biennial review of the Grand Lodge Strategic Plan 2003-2008 determines whether the various committees of Grand Lodge have, through their annual initiatives, continued to align with the Key Results Area of the Strategic Plan.

Once this task has been done the participants of the conference then go into breakout groups to determine if all parts of the plan are still relevant.

Are the Vision and Mission Statements still current, do they need to be changed?

Are the Key Results Areas still appropriate?

Is there a need for additional areas?

Should the name be changed to Key Focus Areas?

Then the various groups are asked to set out strategies (the what) for the recommended Key Focus Areas. Once these strategies have been determined, then the initiatives for various committees (the how) are created and recorded in the updated Strategic Plan. The approved plan then becomes our guide for the next five years, with a review every two years and the tracking of the success is done on the now familiar WINS chart.

The Strategic Plan for 2005-2010 has been approved and the Long Range Planning Committee look forward to assisting all districts and lodges to use it as a template to establish a Long Range Plan.

Recommendation: The Long Range Planning Committee recommends that the review and assessment of the Strategic Plan of Grand Lodge be reviewed biennially.

Crieff Hills — Scenarios

The participants of the conference deliberate on various scenarios of which the following is only a partial list; Management Committee, Board of General Purposes, Finances, Membership, Masonic Buildings, Ritual and several others.

A new twist was tried this year, before the conference began the scenarios were sent out to the members of the Long Range Planning committee for their thoughts and comments. Several members of the committee then sent the scenarios out to the districts of which they are responsible for and the information received was compiled and given to each breakout group regarding the scenario they were deliberating on. These "Grass Root" opinion sheets were very much appreciated by the brethren and they stimulated considerable conversation.

The Chairman of Long Range Planning for presentation to the Management Committee prepared an extensive report regarding the conference at Crieff Hills. It outlined the deliberations of the several breakout groups as it relates to reviewing the Strategic Plan 2003-2008, also the decisions made regarding the updated Strategic Plan 2009-2010.

The report also gave extensive background notes and the recommendations arising from the discussion regarding the various scenarios, which were discussed at the conference. These recommendations are now presently before the Management Committee.

Recommendation: The biennial conference at Crieff Hills is continued as it relates to scenarios on subjects that are of a concern to Grand Lodge and the practice of obtaining "Grass Roots" opinion be encouraged and continued.

Seminars and Workshops

This year the Long Range Planning Committee participated in the Seminars and Workshops held in Kingston, London and Barrie during April. The extended time allotment proved very successful, with much more participation from the brethren in attendance. A revised power point presentation was developed to take advantage of the extra time. Those who attended the seminars were assisted by the use of a blank template of the Strategic Plan and other handouts i.e. Masonic Score Sheet, The Strategic Plan of Grand Lodge, and Qualifications of a District Long Range Planning Chairman. However, in the power point presentation, the list of different initiatives which a district or lodge can use to promote our gentle Craft proved the most popular.

Recommendation: The Long Range Planning Committee recommends that Seminars and Workshops continue to go out into the Grand Jurisdiction, however, with increased awareness to promote better attendance.

Committee Work

Several meetings of the Long Range Planning Committee were held this year in Barrie, which proved to be a central location for all members of the committee to attend, despite winter driving conditions. The following is a brief summary of those meetings:

- (a) Reviewed the annual District Deputy Grand Masters' reports as it relates to concerns related to a need for Lodge and District Long Range Planning.
- (b) Reviewed the previous District Deputy Grand Masters' feed back session at Grand Lodge in 2004, for suggestions/recommendations relating to Long Range Planning.
- (c) Planned and prepared team for Seminars and Workshop sessions in Kingston, Barrie, and London.
- (d) Established sub-committee to report on Masonry's appeal to different cultures. Does our membership reflect the diversity of the population, if not, why not?
- (e) Began work on a Long Range Plan for this committee.
- (f) Chairman report on feedback from the mid-term meeting of the District Deputy Grand Master with our Grand Master.

These are some, although not all, of the topics/subjects discussed at the committee level. Follow-up was done on the District Deputy's suggestions/recommendation and work continues on the several projects which were not completed.

In summation, I would like to give my personal thanks to all members of the committee who once again this year worked hard for the cause of Long Range Planning in our Grand Jurisdiction. I would be remiss not to mention the extra efforts that Vice-Chairman R.W. Bro. Frank Wilson did on behalf of the work of the committee.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee

PAUL E. TODD, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Paul Mullen, Chairman pro tem, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Mullen, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Benevolence Committee is pleased to report that during the year ending April 30, 2005, there was disbursed, in the interest of benevolence, 20 grants and Christmas gratuities from the Memorial Fund totaling $41,540.00. In addition, $11,000.00 was paid for services provided by our Grand Lodge staff and $8,563.86 was paid to the investment firm of Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited for investment management fees. Total expenditures were $61,103.86. Income on investments was $49,075.41, and donations of $150.00 were received. Hence, a net loss of $11,878.45 resulted.

Benevolence Report

The annual meeting of this committee was held on April 21, 2005, in the Board Room of the Grand Lodge Memorial Building, in Hamilton, Ontario, and 12 applications were reviewed. We express our appreciation to the District Deputy Grand Masters, their District Benevolence Chairmen and the many lodges for their ongoing diligence and care in monitoring the requirements for assistance in their areas.

Contact was made with each district chairman and we asked that they encourage their lodges to develop an ongoing practice of regular visits/contacts with their members so that when a need should arise follow-up action can be taken.

The chairmen were also advised of the availability of the revised PowerPoint Presentation entitled "Lodge/Grand Lodge Benevolence." The committee members have made this presentation available at nine locations through the province and it was suggested that this presentation, together with the "Masonic Benevolence Process Chart," can be an effective tool in explaining the process to the membership.

We continue to seek the cooperation of the District Deputy Grand Masters and their District Chairmen in raising the level of Masonic Benevolence awareness.

Your Benevolence Committee extends sincere appreciation to the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, for his counsel and guidance, and to the Grand Lodge staff, Mrs. Dorothy Chalmers and Mrs. Stacey Birks for their dedicated efforts and continued assistance.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee: R.W. Bros. T. R. Davies, P. J. Mullen, K. L. Whiting, G. W. Nelson, J. E. Anderson, L. W. Hammell, R. C. James, R. E. Kerr, J. Trousdale, J. W. Murphy, D. K. Bromley, J. A. Keith and D. A. West.

WALTER MATYCZUK, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. E. Lewis, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Lewis, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee on Audit and Finance of Grand Lodge are set forth in the Book of Constitution in subsection 136(a) and the committee now reports to Grand Lodge on the discharge of these several duties and responsibilities.

GENERAL COMMENTS

Our Grand Lodge this year celebrates the 150th anniversary of its founding, which is truly a milestone and this achievement is certainly worthy of celebrating. In the Grand Treasurer's Report, he states, and I quote, "I suggest that one of our achievements is that we (i.e. Grand Lodge) enjoy reasonably good health at such an age. Also, that our prospects ahead are positive. We are fortunate to have a solid financial base and to have (most of the time) lived each year within our means."

Although we are in a sound financial position, the last several years have been particularly challenging to say the least as far as it relates to our revenue and expenses. In brief, the financial situation of Grand Lodge is as follows:

The investment returns in the market place are at an all time low, which in turn adversely affects the investment income to Grand Lodge.

Membership decline continues to be a "nagging" problem, which, again, adversely affects the revenue received by Grand Lodge.

Although inflation rates experienced remain relatively low, we still experience each year increased costs in connection with the overall operations of Grand Lodge.

After experiencing many years of surpluses as a result of the performance of our Investment Portfolio, we have over the past four years, i.e. fiscal 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005, incurred annual deficits for each and every year.

Traditionally, since 1993, the donations to the Programme Fund, i.e. the Calendar Fund, have provided much needed revenue to fund the various programmes and initiatives of Grand Lodge. Unfortunately, in recent years, donations have declined and the fund balance has diminished accordingly.

IN CONCLUSION

As a result of the foregoing and to endeavour to alleviate the financial difficulties currently being experienced by Grand Lodge with respect to the revenue and expenses, the committee on Audit and Finance, in concert with the Grand Treasurer, is submitting the following course of action to you, the brethren, for consideration and approval.

Included in the report of the Audit and Finance Committee is a recommended Near Balance Budget for fiscal 2005-2006, since it is the opinion of both the committee and the Grand Treasurer that we cannot and must not sustain any further deficits with their adverse effects.

In order to achieve the above, a Notice of Motion has been prepared and submitted for your consideration and approval to effectively raise the annual per capita for each member from $6.00 to $12.00. This increase, if approved, will be phased in over a three (3) year period. Also included in the amendment are proposed adjustments to the various fees charged by Grand Lodge to the lodges to bring them more current with related costs.

The amendment also includes an adjustment to the Commutation Fee to increase the current fee from $100.00 to $250.00.

In order to achieve the near balanced budget as submitted, the revenue and expenses have been reviewed on a "line by line" basis. Projected revenue gives effect to the passing of the above noted Notice of Motion. Expenses, of necessity have been significantly reduced in discretionary areas and other expenses have remained unchanged.

The Programme Fund continues to be under review for alternate methods of encouraging donations and your committee on Audit and Finance recommended to the Management Committee the continuation of the Calendar Programme until other means are determined. The Audit and Finance Committee also recommended to the Management Committee that for fiscal 2006, that expenditures from the fund be capped at $50,000.00 and subsequently adjusted marginally to $53,600.00.

Brethren, your Audit and Finance Committee has been meeting on an ongoing basis throughout the past year to address these and other financial concerns and I can assure you that a great deal of consultation, thought and deliberation have gone into the foregoing course of action and we trust that you will appreciate and support our recommended course of action.

ACTIVITIES

Again, the Audit and Finance Committee continues to review the monthly financial statements as prepared by the Grand Lodge office and compares the results of operations and financial position of Grand Lodge to budget. The results of operations and financial position compared favourably to the budget adopted last year for fiscal 2005 for the General Fund. As indicated in the audited financial statements, the statement of operations for the General Fund resulted in a deficiency of $51,719 as compared to a budgeted deficit of $104,125. The improvement from the budget was basically as a result of a slight increase in revenue from budget and a significant decrease in the expenses.

The committee has once again reviewed and considered the Annual Reports of the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and the Auditors' as referred to in these Annual Proceedings. These reports were found to be most informative and complete in all material respects. Accordingly, the committee recommends the adoption of these reports.

INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO

The Grand Treasurer, in his report, reviewed the status of the Grand Lodge Investment Portfolio. The overall Investment Portfolio of Grand Lodge at April 30, 2005, has a market value of $4,292,353.00 as compared to $4,315,138.00 at April 30, 2004. Generating investment income continues to be a challenge, given the historic low investment returns on fixed income securities and given that by mandate 70% of our portfolio is invested in fixed income securities. Nevertheless, our portfolio is performing as well as can be expected.

Accordingly, we would recommend that Scotia Cassels Investment Counsel Limited continue to be engaged as the Grand Lodge portfolio managers and that the Investment Plan remain the same in that our investment asset mix stay at 70% debt securities and 30% equity investments.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The audited financial statements for Grand Lodge for the year ended April 30, 2005, were reviewed and discussed in detail with our auditors, Grant Thornton, L.L.P., Chartered Accountants, at a recent meeting of the Audit and Finance Committee. These audited financial statements can be found elsewhere in the Annual Proceedings. For the year ended April 30, 2005, your Grand Lodge experienced a consolidated net loss of $106,647.00, which includes an extraordinary expense in the amount of $59,014 (net), which relates to the 150th Anniversary Celebrations. Adjusting for the foregoing, we in fact incurred a consolidated net loss of $47,633.00, as opposed to a consolidated adjusted net loss of $89,466.00 for fiscal 2004.

We again congratulate the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary, the Grand Master, the Chairman of the Management Committee, and the members of the various Grand Lodge committees for the efficient manner in which they have managed the financial resources of our Grand Lodge.

Accordingly, the committee recommends that the audited financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2005, be adopted as submitted. We also continue to recommend the engagement of Grant Thornton, L.L.P., Chartered Accountants, as our auditors.

A special thanks to our auditors, Grant Thornton, L.L.P., Chartered Accountants, and in particular, Mr. George Benton, C.A., for their overall assistance and interest during the year.

We also wish both Mr. George Benton and his wife many years of health and happiness on his recent retirement from the firm.

BUDGET 2005-2006

The Audit and Finance Committee received from the Management Committee the budgetary requirements of all the Grand Lodge committees for the ensuing year, which were carefully considered in preparing the annual budget for the Grand Lodge for the year ended April 30, 2006. These amounts aggregated $14,810.00 together with allocations made from the Programme Fund.

The budget for the General Fund for the ensuing year is set out in the appendix to this report, which reflects anticipated revenue of $608,400.00 and expenses of $618,960.00, resulting in a deficit of $10,560.00, a near balanced budget for fiscal 2006.

As in prior years, a budget for the Special Programme Fund has been prepared, which is set out in the appendix attached to this report and reflects budgeted expenditures, as mentioned, of $53,600.00.

In addition to the foregoing, set out in the appendix to this report is a budget for the 150th Anniversary Committee for the year ended April 30, 2006, of $112,600.00 (net). Funds for this Anniversary Event have been set aside from the General Fund for a number of years and with the disbursement of the $112,600.00 during the fiscal 2006, the fund will be completely drawn down and closed. A very special congratulations and thanks to R.W. Bro. Terry McLean and the 150th Anniversary Committee on the excellent 150th Anniversary Programme and the very efficient manner in which they managed the 150th Anniversary financial resources.

The operational and Special Programme budgets were prepared on a line by line examination based on the actual results of the previous year and giving consideration to the needs of Grand Lodge to facilitate desirable and meaningful programmes.

In accordance with subsection 134(c) of the Book of Constitution, your committee submits for consideration and approval, as set out below, an estimate of the revenues and expenses as they relate to the General Fund for the year ended April 30, 2006. Your committee believes that the budget set out in this report is realistic and provides for items which can reasonably be foreseen to meet the obligations, financial responsibilities and commitments of the General Fund of Grand Lodge for the current fiscal year.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS

The Committee on Audit and Finance has also reviewed the donations made by the Grand Master on behalf of Grand Lodge. The donations aggregated $2,000.00, and were made to the Peterborough Flood Relief and M.S.A. Disaster Relief for Hurricane Charley. As such, we recommend the approval of the same.

GENERAL

In conclusion, as Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee, I particularly wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the Grand Treasurer, R.W. Bro. T. R. Davies, for all his efforts and work in connection with Masonry in general and the financial affairs of this Grand Lodge in particular.

I wish to express my appreciation to the members of the committee for their interest and involvement in the management of the financial affairs of this Grand Lodge, in the persons of M.W. Bros. D. H. Mumby, T. Shand; R.W. Bros. G. L. Atkinson, T. R. Davies, J. Sutherland, S. Cohen, W. Shields, E. Standish, and P. McGrenere. And a very special thanks to the Grand Lodge staff for their assistance and guidance during and throughout the year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

THOMAS E. LEWIS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, this Report was presented by M.W. Bro. C. E. Drew, seconded by M.W. Bro. D. C. Bradley, and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

It is my pleasure and honour, on behalf of the committee, which is composed of all of the Past Grand Masters, to present the report on the Grand Master's Address.

The committee sincerely endorses the gracious welcome to our guests and members, and the tribute paid to those of our dear brethren who have laid down their working tools.

Of the three Ad Hoc Committee reports; the report on the office of Grand Secretary and the report on the Special Programme Fund and Committee Expenses were referred to the Management Committee for review. The committee endorses the recommendation of the Grand Master on the third committee, i.e. the Condition of Masonry within the Greater Toronto Area.

With great pleasure the committee recognizes the five deserving recipients of the William Mercer Wilson Medal, and joins with the Grand Master in extending congratulations, sincere thanks and best wishes to each of these distinguished brethren, who exemplify all that is best in our Order.

The committee concurs with the recommendation of Past Rank on the brethren so named, likewise on the appointments to the Board of General Purposes, and the Meritorious Service Awards, and join with the Grand Master in recognizing the continuing efforts of the Grand Lodge office staff.

The gracious acknowledgement of the Past Grand Masters is sincerely appreciated by the committee, as is the tribute to the Grand Lodge Officers.

The presence and participation of the Grand Master at so many special events, anniversaries, dedications, amalgamations and numerous other occasions has left lasting memories to all who were in attendance. The continuing communications with concordant bodies has enhanced the progress of Freemasonry in our jurisdiction, and the committee is appreciative of the efforts of our Grand Master in this vital area.

The committee is cognizant of the many sacrifices made by the family of a Grand Master as he fulfills the duties of the office, the acknowledgement of the support of his family, and in particular his wife Marion, is certainly well deserved.

The Grand Master concludes by reviewing what has been accomplished over the past two years by the Masons of Ontario, where our members have taken the admonition to "let your light so shine before men . . ." your committee notes that before any worthwhile task is completed inspired leadership is required.

On behalf of all the members of our jurisdiction, we extend our thanks to M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby for his inspirational leadership.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE ONTARIO MASON COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. Dainard, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Dainard, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present the following Report which highlights the activities of the Ontario Mason Magazine for 2005.

W. Bro. Bob Price and I met with the customer account representative, Mr. Ron Joyce, at the plant in Owen Sound, on Tuesday, August 10, 2004, to review the costing factors and design elements of the magazine. In addition, the reduced production schedule was discussed, in order that we might confirm the preferred publication pricing which has been based on two issues per year, as it appeared at this time that only one issue of the magazine would be published in November of 2004 and subsequently in November of 2005.

The Editing Committee, comprised of R.W. Bro. Bill Thompson, W. Bro. Bob Price and I met at my home on Sunday, October 16, 2004, and reviewed the content and layout elements of the fall 2004 issue of the magazine. The elements were set and corrected with a final viewing on the R.B.W. Web Site; (InSite) scheduled for the week of November 6, 2004.

As noted previously, and on several occasions, the Ontario Mason magazine is funded through the Grand Lodge Special Projects Fund, which is driven by the Calendar Program offered yearly. As the capital for this fund is not being topped up from the calendar offering, the future of the Ontario Mason magazine as a hard copy book cannot be continued into the foreseeable future.

The committee had recommended that I request agenda time from the Deputy Grand Master at the Advisory Group meeting on November 13, 2004, so that a full discussion with recommendations might be conducted, in light of the lack of funding for the continuation of the Ontario Mason magazine. However, as the agenda for that meeting was full, an open discussion with recommendations could not be conducted.

The committee met on several occasions to discuss any general recommendations in light of these facts, and to develop a resolve for the future of the Ontario Mason which will be to devise and recommend a strategy for the funding required to provide a two issue per year long range plan for the magazine.

In February, the Deputy Grand Master requested that I submit a Business and Cost Analysis plan which would allow the magazine to be published on the Internet. I presented a plan to the Management Committee on April 26, 2005, which is as follows.

This Business and Costing Proposal is to facilitate an online internet E-zine version of the Ontario Mason magazine, with the possibility for future expansion of the services to be offered on the site. The following items were recommended:

1. Create an online presence to communicate on a quarterly basis with the 46 Masonic Districts of Ontario, and those who chose the Web Site, through an online E-zine type publication.

2. A partial viewing of the site's articles and photographs will be allowed to anyone, anywhere, for a subscription fee. A full viewing will be made available to those who pay that fee. The recommended subscription fee for online viewing is three (3) dollars per quarter for both members and non-members of this jurisdiction. In addition a CD would be made available at five (5) dollars for each of the quarterly issues of the E-zine.
3. That a database verification system be initiated. This would verify, by last name and Grand Lodge certificate number, each member of the jurisdiction, thereby entitling that member to a full viewing of the magazine. Non-members would be required to submit information which would guarantee their access to the site once provided.
4. The revenue generated would be deposited into the Ontario Mason magazine account, and form the income necessary to support published hard copy issues of the magazine. In addition, the hard copy production would be supported by a subscription fee, to be established at the time of publication consideration.
5. To create a secure, password protected verifiable editing environment for our authors and the contributors of articles, education materials and photographs.
6. Create a user friendly environment for content to be shared or submitted to the Magazine Committee members and those authorized to edit the magazine in various parts of the province. With the editor and chairman of the committee to make the final production approval of the submissions.
7. To make the E-zine a self sufficient and a self-funding entity by use of online advertising and e-commerce sales of articles and books in order to generate revenues for the continuation and expansion of the hard copy magazine. The entire database driven components of the Web site and servers will be secured and password protected to ensure the privacy of our editors, authors and membership. The Web site will be in the sole and full control of the Webmaster and editor of the Ontario Mason Committee in order to certify and protect all copyrighted and personal information supplied by the Grand Lodge.
8. Once the setup of all functions of the Web site are established, it will be automatically updated and overseen by the Webmaster and editor of the magazine. With all e-commerce and sales controlled by the editor or the Ontario Mason Committee or a designated authority of the Grand Lodge.

All sales, advertising revenues, contents and copyrights will be owned and licensed in the name of "The Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario."

Estimated Costs of the E-zine:

1. Purchase, search and registration of Name: www.ontariomasonmagazine.com or facsimile. (www.ontariomasonezine.com - www.omm.com or www.omm.org www.omm.on.ca or www.omm.net) extensions. Annual fee $65.00 or 3-year term for $135.00 plus applicable sales taxes.
2. Dedicated Hosting on private e-commerce and commercial secure servers with all php scripts and private password protected cgi's. Room for future development available with unlimited bandwidth, for 1 year trial period "GRATIS." Monthly or yearly fees to be discussed at the end of one year term, and if secured for a longer term of more than one year a minimal yearly fee will be added.
3. The everyday layout, maintenance and upgrading of the site may be done on a straight quarterly fee scale of $1,400.00 per issue, as currently established by the committee and Grand Lodge.

4. The current advertisers and/or new advertisers would be invited to advertise on the various pages of the Website as currently done in the magazine at a rate dependent on the size of advertisement and where positioned on the site. They would be encouraged to advertise monthly, or by a quarterly pro rated fee scale which would include 24/7 advertising.

This will hopefully generate a continuous income for improving and maintaining the Ontario Mason magazine site. The income generated may allow for the publishing of a hard copy magazine in the near future.

In addition, this initiative may have the possibility of increasing our membership by being seen by a larger cross section of web viewers; which will showcase Freemasonry in Ontario.

REPORT OF THE BROTHER TO BROTHER COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. Conway, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Conway, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On Behalf of the Brother to Brother Committee, it is my pleasure to submit the following report:

Brother to Brother continues to be a lodge driven programme to enhance the skills of all Masons to RETAIN, REVITALIZE and RENEW their lodge membership by empowering them with the right ideas and tools. It is aimed at better lodge management, attracting and keeping new members, better and more diverse programmes in lodge, more participation by members, a better sense of belonging to a fraternity, more activities that include family and friends, and simply making all members feel that they belong and are an important part of the lodge.

Your Brother to Brother Committee has worked this year to continue to improve the Program. Our manual is a great resource tool for all lodges and our task has continued to add to it and communicate to all the brethren how to access the contents and put the programme into practice where needed.

The following are the highlights of our year:

- 1) Manual/Tool Kit: New chapter additions have been completed covering Long Range Planning, Blood Donor Lodge Sponsorship, District Lodge of Instruction, Personal Touch Communications, and Lodge Finances. All chapters with additions and revisions have been uploaded to the Grand Lodge Web Page and can be found in the Brother to Brother section where the manual is published.
- 2) Power Point Seminar Presentation: A new power point seminar presentation for Brother to Brother has been completed that incorporates the changes to the programme made this year. It is available to the brethren again by download or viewing from the Grand Lodge Web Page. Copies are also available through personal communication with the committee.
- 3) Seminars and Workshops: The committee provides support for all lodges or districts who desire assistance. These sessions communicate how to access the manual from the Grand Lodge Web Page, content of the manual and how to implement the ideas of the programme.
- 4) Regional Coordinator Review: The ongoing task of working with our Regional Coordinators has continued. These brethren can be of great support to the lodges and districts in their assigned regions.
- 5) Success Stories: Every year there are those lodges that through use of the ideas contained in the programme achieve remarkable results in either retaining, revitalizing or renewing their membership. Their enthusiasm is contagious and your committee wants to continue to communicate these success stories. A new method for gathering and publishing these success stories by means of a Web feedback page has been introduced with subsequent publishing of approved material on the Web in our Success Stories section.

Recommendations

- The Program should continue to be strongly promoted as there is ample proof that those lodges that put the ideas to use, even on a selective basis, can show significant increases in the areas of membership, lodge attendance and all around enthusiasm. Success breeds success.
- Each district should be encouraged to have a Brother to Brother Committee with an experienced brother as chairman. District Seminars to review the Program can greatly assist in getting the message across.
- It continues to be beneficial to identify lodges or districts that could use direct committee support. Assistance can then be offered by either committee members, regional coordinators or district chairmen.

- The need for experienced and long term serving lodge facilitators will be a constant. Lodges should always take care to appoint the right brother to the position.
- Success stories need to be heard and reported in the feedback section of the Website for publication in the Success Stories areas.

Summary

The committee continues to draw enthusiastic brethren as members who all carry that knowledge within them that they can make a difference. They have worked hard across our jurisdiction to promote the ideas contained in the manual and, as chairman, I would like to personally thank them for their dedicated and selfless loyalty to the task.

The rewards of promoting Brother to Brother come when one has the opportunity to assist a struggling lodge take hold of the ideas contained in the Program. It is a great feeling to see renewed brethren open the doors of their lodges to a new generation of Masons who in turn are now enabled to enjoy the blessing of our gentle Craft. It is the work of Masonry.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

DOUGLAS A. CONWAY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE D.D.G.M. ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. Hazlitt, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hazlitt, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Someone once said:

"There is no future in any job. However, the future lies in the man who holds the job."

The office of D.D.G.M. is an awesome responsibility and must never be taken lightly. Each candidate for that high office must first have made the decision in his own heart and soul that he is personally ready and prepared to assume the duties of office, that he will have assimilated the necessary skills and knowledge that will assist him in his duties, and that he feels confident that he is capable of making a positive contribution to the Craft and mankind in general.

The Orientation Program for prospective D.D.G.M.s is about preparing oneself for a role of responsibility and leadership. It is about fine-tuning organizational skills, and it is about acquainting oneself with Grand Lodge publications and resources. It is also about seizing an opportunity to dialogue with a panel of experts: I.P.D.D.G.M.s in order to glean that information so valuable from having already experienced the trials and tribulations of the office. Sacrifices of time, energy, and personal financial resources must never be negated when making the decision to proceed with assuming this role. Nor can the effects upon those 'nearest and dearest' to the prospective candidate be diminished.

Orientation Sessions were convened in Hamilton, Mount Forest, Newmarket, Oshawa, Ridgeway, Toledo, and Sturgeon Falls. Committee members undertook the tasks of coordinating the sessions, as well as presenting the prescribed material. From a simplistic point of view, the seven Orientation Sessions held in the fall of 2004 have been deemed successful by the committee as 75% of those brethren indicating an intention of attending one of the preselected sessions actually were present and participated in the four-hour evening session. For the committee, itself, however, the measure of success has been a realization that the programme and the process leading to the programme require some modifications. To this end, the following thrusts have been adopted and placed on the committee's immediate agenda:

1. That the existing programme be reworked for two purposes:
 - (a) In order that the information in the programme always remain current.
 - (b) To bring about a renewed freshness and enthusiasm to the presentation for both the recipients and presenters alike by utilizing Power Point technology.
2. That the District Awareness Message, previously presented at spring District Association Meetings, be modified in an attempt to streamline its effectiveness, again for both the recipients and presenters. I am pleased to report, following a presentation to the Management Committee on April 26, 2005, that this initiative will be effected at Grand Lodge in July 2005, when the newly elected D.D.G.M.s assume office.

Brethren, make no mistake about it. Each district needs the 'best of the best' qualified men to lead in succession in order to have that continuity of strength and focus from year to year. The steps leading to that role are very clear. They are three-fold and begin at least three years (4/5 is best) prior to assuming office:

1. That he is very clear in his own mind that the position is right for him and, indeed, right for his family.
2. That successful completion of the D.D.G.M.s Correspondence Course is an integral part of his preparations prior to the Orientation Program.
3. That he take the four-hour evening Orientation Program in the fall preceding his election to office. Please note that the Correspondence Course should precede the Orientation Program.

Bear in mind that the object is to come to the office as well prepared as possible to meet the obligations as prescribed in the Book of Constitution, and to have the skills and knowledge ready to deal with the many unknown challenges that may present themselves while in office.

I am pleased to report that the Orientation Program has been delivered either in part or completely to each of the 46 districts this year. To that end, I am indebted to R.W. Bros. Donald A. Campbell and D. Garry Dowling for offering to deliver an abridged version for the Aspirants of Algoma and Western Districts while attending the mini-Grand Lodge in Thunder Bay. This fulfils a recommendation carried over from the previous year's committee.

It has been a distinct pleasure to have had the opportunity to work with the following brethren of the Orientation Committee: R.W. Bros. Dan Dawson, Tony Ellison (secretary), Cliff Farber, and John Harrison. To each, I extend heartfelt appreciation for contributions of personal time and resources required to travel to the respective locations in order to perform their duties as mandated. The committee, also, appreciates the assistance provided by R.W. Bros. Tom Hogeboom, Terry McLean, and Paul Todd, at the sessions held in Toledo and Newmarket. Thanks, also go to Gail Nickerson and Ken Schweitzer at the Grand Lodge Office for compiling and collating books as requested for each of the sessions.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GREG. H. HAZLITT, Chairman

REPORT OF THE FRIEND TO FRIEND/MENTOR COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. C. Green, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Green, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I present the following report on behalf of the Friend to Friend/Mentor Committee.

We have enjoyed a very productive year putting on seminars and providing information to those individuals and lodges who have made requests to our committee.

In our effort to provide information in a more efficient manner we provided each district with a C.D. which contained the power point presentation of both Friend to Friend and Mentor programmes along with Friend to Friend explanation of the lodge room, regalia and officers, etc., as well as, the Mentor script which contains the four lectures for the new member. Having this material in each district will allow both districts and lodges to present their own seminars, as the material is more readily available locally.

I am pleased to report that there have been nearly 59 seminars held in the Grand Jurisdiction this year, which is a 64% increase over last year.

I also want to highlight a couple of real success stories as a result of the Friend to Friend programme. Lansdowne Lodge No. 387, in St. Lawrence District, is a small lodge in a small community and has been challenged greatly in recent years. They held a Friend to Friend event, and as of April 11, 2005, they have received 7 applications. Simpson Lodge No. 157, in Frontenac District, had a very successful evening in which they received 6 applications for initiation and 1 application for affiliation.

We should also be aware that those people who we invite to Friend to Friend nights that do not apply for membership go out into the community with a better understanding of Masonry. Thus, there is a significant public relations value to this programme.

We have also continued to ask the D.D.G.M.s to assist us by filling out surveys on how each Friend to Friend event was conducted and estimate their success. This helps Grand Lodge monitor the value of the programmes for future planning.

The Mentor Program provides new members with valuable knowledge that many of us received over several years after joining Masonry. The new member receives important facts and vital information as a candidate after each degree.

Thus far this year we have made presentations at 7 seminars that were well received. I believe the Grand Lodge has two programmes that can help our lodges build and retain new membership in Friend to Friend and Mentor. It requires us to use them to be effective. My best example is Composite Lodge No. 30, in Whitby, where 15 new members are in progress to become Master Masons. This lodge also has all Master Masons sitting in the chairs.

I want to take this opportunity to thank our committee members, Bros. Dave Inglis, Jeff Dickson, Tom Siemiernik, Herb Visser, Bob Cresswell and George Snowden, for their input and guidance during the past year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN C. GREEN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE OFFICER PROGRESSION COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. C. Reid, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Reid, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have successfully completed all of our objectives set out in the original action plan. The three subject papers presented were: Leadership, Protocol & Etiquette and the Master's Chair, along with a group discussion and a question and answer period. During the month of August the programme was revised to allow us to hold Workshops for the individual lodges and Grand Lodge Workshops, with a time span of approximately 1 3/4 hours and 2 1/2 hours respectively. In September 2004, letters were mailed to all D.D.G.M.s advising them of the programme and that our team was willing and ready to give them any assistance they requested. We have held three individual District Workshops and the attendance was: in Madoc (35), Coboconk (37) and Toronto (27), along with three Grand Lodge Workshops in Kingston (20), London (21), and Barrie (20) for a total of 160 brethren. The comments from the participating brethren have been very positive and encouraging.

In January 2005, a letter was mailed to those D.D.G.M.s who had lodges reported by their previous D.D.G.M. in his final report that they may need some assistance from our committee. In that letter, we once again offered our assistance.

We also took the opportunity to sell the Grand Lodge publications, with the result of $783.00 in sales.

Recommendations

- Expand on individual District Workshops on week nights
- Encourage more Junior Officers to attend
- Contact earlier districts with lodges who may need assistance
- Continue to sell Grand Lodge publications

At this time, I would like to acknowledge the time and effort put forth by R.W. Bros. Kenneth Campbell, Andre Cayer, William Elliott, James Parker, Raymond Dobbs, Bruce McLennan and W. Bro. William Brimer.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

CHARLES H. M. REID, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND JURISPRUDENCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. F. Halpern, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Halpern, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your committee has received nine Notices of Motion for consideration and begs leave to report thereon.

1. The first proposal deals with the requirements necessary to reject the report of a committee on amalgamation as found in Section 161(a) of the Book of Constitution.

The proposal suggests amending Section 161(a) to read as follows:

161. (a) The report of the joint committee, if favourable, shall recommend the name, number and district of the proposed amalgamated lodge and the time and place for such amalgamation. On the approval of the report of the committee of each lodge, a copy thereof shall be mailed to the last known address of each member of each lodge. Unless 25% or more of the membership, as reported on the latest semi-annual return of any of the lodges notify the secretary of their lodge, in writing, of their objection to such amalgamation, within ten days from the date of mailing said notice, the amalgamation shall be carried into effect as soon as the Grand Master shall approve of such amalgamation.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

2. The second proposal suggests an amendment to Section 384 dealing with Regalia and Insignia. The proposer submits that we add to the list of acceptable jewels listed in Section 384, a Lewis Jewel, so that the Section would read as follows:

384. No jewels shall be worn in a lodge other than those specified for the officers, except the Jewel of a Past Master, a representative of another Grand Lodge, a Royal Arch Mason, a Lewis Jewel (may be worn by a Master Mason who is the son of a Master Mason) and any other jewel, button or medal specially designed and/or authorized by Grand Lodge and any lodge insignia approved by the Grand Master.

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

3. The third proposal deals with amending Section 56(a) which states who in the lodge can vote at the annual meeting of Grand Lodge. The proposed amendment shall read as follows:

56. (a) Each lodge shall be entitled to three votes to be cast by the Master and Wardens if present. If any one of them be absent his vote shall be given to the senior officer present. If all three be absent the three votes of the lodge may be cast by the proxy delegated by the lodge. In the event of the representative officers and proxy of a lodge being absent, the senior past master of the lodge present will be entitled to the vote of his lodge.

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

4. The fourth proposal deals with fees payable to Grand Lodge and the proposer submits an addition (p) to Section 152 to read as follows:

152. (p) Two dollars per annum for every member of each lodge for the semi-annual production and distribution of the Ontario Mason magazine.

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

5. The fifth proposal would entitle William Mercer Wilson recipients to one vote by adding a subsection (d) to Section 56 of the Book of Constitution. The proposal reads as follows:

56. (d) In addition thereto, each member who has been awarded the William Mercer Wilson Award under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall be entitled to one vote.

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

6. The sixth proposal deals with fees payable to Grand Lodge under Section 152 of the Book of Constitution. The proposed amendments would read as follows:

Section 152. Fees payable to Grand Lodge shall be as follows: (2005)

- (a) Two hundred dollars for a warrant or the replacement of a warrant or a permanent name change uniting two or more lodges. (2004)
- (b) Two hundred dollars for a dispensation for the formation of a lodge.
- (c) Two hundred and fifty dollars for the commutation of dues to Grand Lodge.
- (d) Thirty dollars for a dispensation to confer any degree within four weeks of the previous degree.
- (e) Twenty dollars for a dispensation to accept a petition for a person residing outside the jurisdiction. (2004)
- (f) Fifteen dollars for the registration of every person initiated in a lodge including the issuance of a Grand Lodge certificate.
- (g) Fifteen dollars for the registration and Grand Lodge certificate for a brother who, either as an Entered Apprentice or as a Fellowcraft coming from another recognized Grand Lodge, has received the remaining degree or degrees in this jurisdiction.
- (h) Ten dollars for dispensation to accept a petition for initiation from a person who has not resided for one year within the jurisdiction. (2004)
- (i) Fifteen dollars for a Past Master's Certificate.
- (j) Fifteen dollars for the replacement of any lost certificate.
- (k) Fifteen dollars for a dispensation to elect and install (or either) at a time other than fixed in the by-laws of that lodge.
- (l) Fifteen dollars for every Mason joining from another lodge.
- (m) Eight dollars per annum payable January 2006, ten dollars payable January 2007, thereafter twelve dollars per annum for every member of each lodge whose fees have not been commuted to Grand Lodge, including honorary and charter members.
- (n) Five dollars for a dispensation for any public procession or function, other than a Divine, Memorial or Remembrance Service.
- (o) Five dollars for any dispensation, other than for a Divine Service or a Lodge of Instruction.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

7. The seventh proposal deals with visitation privileges of a member who has been issued a Certificate of Standing and suggests an amendment to Section 195 to read as follows:

195. A brother who has been issued a "Certificate of Standing" or has been granted a demit without conditions, shall be entitled to visitation privileges within the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge for a period of one year from the date of the Certificate of Standing or the Certificate of Demission.

Your committee finds this proposal regular.

8. The eighth proposal deals with the creation of a collar for William Mercer Wilson recipients by adding a Subsection (a) to Section 172 of the Book of Constitution to read as follows:

172. (a) William Mercer Wilson recipients shall be entitled to wear a white collar as follows: (i) The collar shall be of white corded moire ribbon and 102 mm in width throughout. The centre seam at the bottom of the collar shall be covered with 13 mm silver braid. The collar shall be lined with sky blue cloth material and shall have a silver-finished metal fastener at the point to which the jewel of office may be attached. The interlining of the collar shall be of sufficient stiffness so that the collar will not pucker or wrinkle unduly, nor become limp.

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

9. The ninth proposal deals with removing the 5 year time period before a brother may apply for restoration in the lodge after requesting and being granted a Certificate of Severance.

This proposal suggests changes dealing with Sections 425(b), or Section 410.1(d)

Your committee finds this proposal irregular.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

FREDERICK HALPERN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE AWARDS COMMITTEE

(WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL)

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, Chairman, seconded by the Deputy Grand Master, and received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is but sixty short years since The William Mercer Wilson Medal was instituted in order that our Grand Lodge might honour the individual Mason who goes far beyond the call of duty in providing Meritorious Service to his Lodge, his Brethren and indeed his Community. This year five Brethren have been selected to receive this recognition. They are to be commended and we trust that the Almighty may allow each of them many more years of health and happiness as they continue to serve their fellow man.

Congratulations to these worthy recipients, whose names are officially recorded in the Grand Master's Address, as they now join the ranks of the 201 others who have been Honoured in a similar way over the past 60 years.

Sincerely and fraternally,

M.W. Bros. N. R. Richards, D. I. Greenwood and
R. E. Davies, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, Grand Historian, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLeod, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Once again, it is appropriate that the Grand Historian should express his gratitude to the Grand Master, for honouring him with this title. According to the book of Constitution, one of the duties assigned to this office is to record matters that are connected with the history of Freemasonry in Ontario.

One of the objectives of Freemasonry, we are told, is "the cultivation and improvement of the human mind." This can be done in many ways, and one of them is through Masonic Education. In this context, it is appropriate to talk about Masonic Research Lodges.

Quatuor Coronati Lodge, No. 2076, London, is the oldest such body that is still active. Its warrant is dated November 28, 1884, and it was consecrated January 12, 1886. At the regular meeting of March 3, 1887, the Worshipful Master, Sir Charles Warren, outlined the main objectives of the Lodge:

1. To provide a centre and bond of union for Masonic students.
2. To attract intelligent Masons to its meetings, in order to imbue them with a love for Masonic research.
3. To submit the discoveries or conclusions of students to the judgment and criticism of their fellows by means of papers read in lodge.
4. To submit these communications and the discussions arising thereon to the general body of the Craft, by publishing, at proper intervals, the transactions of the lodge in its entirety.
5. To reprint scarce and valuable works on Freemasonry, and to publish manuscripts, etc.
6. To make the English-speaking Craft acquainted with the progress of Masonic study abroad, by translations (in whole or part) of foreign works.
7. To tabulate concisely, in the printed Transactions of the Lodge, the progress of the Craft throughout the world.
8. To acquire permanent premises and form a masonic library and museum (AQC 1 [1886-1888] 34).

Not a bad set of ideals!

In the wake of Quatuor Coronati, many other research lodges were founded, in various parts of the world. In New Zealand, the oldest such body is Masters and Past Masters Lodge, No 130, in Christchurch, which was warranted in 1902. The oldest one in North America that is still active is the American Lodge of Research in New York, founded in 1931. And in Canada, the oldest is our own Heritage Lodge, No. 730, which was formed in 1977, more than a quarter century ago. It seems appropriate to celebrate its achievements briefly on this occasion.

Its founder was Brother Jacob Pos. Let us mention a few details of his career. He was born on April 4, 1921, in Amersfoort, in the Netherlands, twenty kilometres east of Utrecht. He was brought to Canada by his parents, arriving soon after his fourth birthday. He entered the academic world, and taught from 1950 to 1986, first at the Ontario Agricultural College, and then at the University of Guelph after it was formed in 1964; his special areas of expertise were Farm Structures, and Environmental Engineering. He was initiated into Masonry in Guelph Lodge No. 258, on October 13, 1953, and was Worshipful Master in 1965. He served as a member of Grand Lodge's Board of General Purposes from 1981 to 1990. In 1973-74, he spent a year on sabbatical leave from his college, working at Canterbury University, in New Zealand, and while there he helped to develop a graduate program in Waste Management. During that time, he became closely associated with Masters' and Past Masters' Lodge, No. 130 (which we just mentioned). And there he got the idea of founding a research lodge in Canada.

On his return home, Bro. Pos began working on this possibility. This is a project that had been tried more than once, but without success. After all, our Grand Lodge has a clear idea of what a lodge is supposed to do. It confers degrees, drawing its members from a limited geographical jurisdiction. The notion of a lodge that did no degree work, and admitted members from all over the province, was completely alien. Not for the first time! Apparently, it was because a Research Lodge was not feasible that the Toronto Society for Masonic Research was formed in 1921, and the Canadian Masonic Research Association was founded in 1949.

Anyway, Bro. Pos worked tirelessly and fearlessly. Some of the details are familiar, but some less so. The first organizational meeting was held on October 27, 1976. And in November Jack Pos was "invited to present the proposal for this unique Lodge to the Grand East." There was only token support, because the Past Grand Masters insisted that it was necessary "to proceed in complete conformity with the Regulations and Constitution of Grand Lodge." But one Past Grand Master, M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey "was able to clear the air, with the result that the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, directed the Grand Secretary to send a copy of a petition for dispensation to form a new lodge." So the Founders' Meeting was held on May 18, 1977. The lodge was instituted on September 21, 1977, and constituted on September 23, 1978. There were 104 Charter members. By 1980 the membership had risen to 240; by 1990 it was 670; and in 2004 it was 683.

At the Sixth Regular Meeting of the lodge, on October 18, 1978, the bylaws were approved. They included a statement of the Purpose and Objectives of the Lodge:

1. To preserve, maintain and uphold those Historical Events that formed the foundation of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masonry.
2. To promote the study of Masonry in general and provide a service by responding to requests for Masonic information.
3. To produce Lodge Proceedings, Research Papers, and Historical Reviews; and to arrange special lectures and visual presentations.
4. To organize and maintain a "General Inventory" of Items of Historical Interest in the possession of Lodges.
5. To encourage participation by Regular Lodges and their Members, in the activities of this Lodge.
6. To endeavour to establish a "Masonic Museum."
7. To encourage Masonic Scholars and Lodge Historians to become more interested in the history of their own Lodge and its artifacts.

We might report a few of the items in the history of the lodge. Its home location has been Cambridge ever since its founding. It has also held meetings elsewhere in the province. The first of these was recorded as a visitation (June 7, 1979) to Belleville. But soon it began to request dispensations from the Grand Master, to enable it to meet outside of its district. The first such occasion was the 16th Regular Meeting (February 28, 1981), held in London. Up to March 19, 2005, a total of 114 Regular Meetings have been held, and 48 of these (42%) took place outside of Cambridge.

Over the years, more than a hundred research papers have been presented, at lodge meetings or at the annual banquet, and most of them have been published. They include a wide range of topics – such as the local history of Masonry in various parts of Ontario, and elsewhere in the world; biographies of notable Masons, including a number of Grand Masters; discussions of Masonic symbolism, and Masonic music, and our relationship with religion; surveys of Masonic jurisprudence, and concordant orders, and antimasonry; explanations of such organizations as the Conference of the Grand Masters in North America, and the Masonic Boards of Relief. Most of the lectures have been delivered by brethren from Ontario, but some were presented by distinguished visiting scholars, such as John M. Hamill, the Librarian and Curator of the United Grand Lodge of England (May 13, 1989), and Robert L. D. Cooper, Curator of the Museum and Library of the Grand Lodge of Scotland (September 19, 2002).

As well as such educational talks, there have been a number of special occasions. At the 4th Regular Meeting (May 17, 1978), the brethren of Wellington District, clothed in 18th century costumes, presented a dramatised Initiation Ceremony as it was performed in 1774. (Over the next three years, the team repeated this show in a number of other lodges).

At the Annual Communication that marked the 125th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge of Canada (July 15–17, 1980), Heritage Lodge presented a play, "The Birth of Our Grand Lodge," written by Jacob Pos; it also arranged an exhibition of artifacts, "The Heritage of Masonry Display," organized by Edmund V. Ralph.

The 62nd Regular Meeting of the lodge, on March 18, 1992, was held at Niagara-on-the-Lake, as part of the Bicentennial Celebration of Niagara Lodge No 2. And on January 28, 1993, at St. Lawrence Hall, Toronto, Heritage Lodge celebrated the 200th anniversary of the arrival of Masonry in Toronto. On the basis of his extensive researches, Edmund V. Ralph was able to report that, "The Menu and speeches were a duplication of the Banquet held on December 27, 1892, at Webb's Tavern, which celebrated 100 years of Freemasonry in Ontario."

Next, a look at publications. From the beginning, the Proceedings of the Lodge have been made available. But as well, in 1981, Heritage Lodge published a booklet, written by R.W. Bro. Charles Grimwood, on the duties and responsibilities of the "Lodge Historian."

In 1982, the lodge began to ponder the possibility of reprinting the Papers of the Canadian Masonic Research Association, which amounted to 109 addresses, delivered between 1949 and 1976. And on November 19, 1986, the editor, Balfour LeGresley, reported that the project was completed, and the work had been published in three volumes.

The lodge had also hoped to reprint John Ross Robertson's indispensable History of Freemasonry in Canada (Toronto, 1900), but in due course (September 19, 2001) this project was dropped, apparently because of the high estimate of the cost involved, and a general lack of interest.

On October 30, 1984, the lodge arranged its first public lecture, in MacNab Street Presbyterian Church Hall, in Hamilton. Professor Dr. Robert L. Fraser spoke on "The Making of the Peaceable Kingdom from Toryism to Conservatism: A New Perspective on Sir Allan Napier MacNab."

On May 19, 1993, another lecture was delivered by a non-Mason, Carl Benn, Curator of Military and Marine History for the Toronto Historical Board, who spoke on "Two Freemasons of Two Hundred Years Ago: John Graves Simcoe and Joseph Brant."

On March 31, 1985, the First Annual Heritage Banquet was held in York Masonic Temple, Toronto. The Guest Speaker was H. Allan Leal, who spoke on "James Kirkpatrick Kerr: His Life and Times." And since then, there has been a banquet every year except for 1994.

One of the lodge's major projects was concerned with Black Creek Pioneer Village. Let us remind you of the development of this idea. At the eighth regular meeting, on March 21, 1979, Brother Pos reminded the members of the old restored lodge room in Heritage Park, Calgary, and suggested that it might be useful to do something similar in this province. This information was brought to the attention of the Senior Warden of the Heritage Lodge No. 730, R.W. Bro. Ronald E. Groshaw; and on the evening of his Installation, on November 19, 1980, in his Inaugural Address he told us that an old building in the town of Woodbridge, with a Masonic lodge room on its second floor, was about to be demolished. He suggested that the lodge might wish to become involved in purchasing this old building and moving it to Pioneer Village and restoring it.

The proposal was presented to Grand Lodge's Board of General Purposes on July 13, 1981, and discussed at its autumn meeting on November 14, 1981. Soon after, the Grand Secretary sent a letter to the lodge, approving the project in principle, but setting a number of guidelines for it, primarily to ensure that it was practical from a financial point of view. In the course of its obedience to these rules, the lodge formed a fund-raising committee, to raise $100,000 ($65,000 for purchase and moving and rebuilding, $10,000 to build a solid concrete foundation with a basement, and $25,000 as an endowment fund to provide perpetual maintenance).

The sod-turning ceremony at the new site was conducted by M.W. Bro. Howard Polk on March 31, 1983. On October 1, 1983, the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Ronald E. Groshaw, presided at the cornerstone laying, in the presence of the Honorary Reeve of the Village, Pauline McGibbon (the former Lieutenant Governor of Ontario); and on June 25, 1985, M.W. Bro. Groshaw dedicated the restored lodge room. It was beautifully equipped and decorated, and has been open to the public ever since, generally with several volunteers from the Heritage Lodge in attendance, to answer questions from the visitors. These guides have been recruited and trained by the chairmen of the committee known successively as H.O.M.E. (Heritage Ontario Masonic Endeavour, until 1986) and Black Creek Masonic Heritage Committee, Alan D. Hogg (1984 to 1993) and E. J. Burns Anderson (1993- 2004). An official notice in Pioneer Village says that "The entire building was donated, restored, and furnished (upstairs) by the Masons of Ontario." An expensive, but very successful project!

In 1985, Heritage Lodge decided that it would be appropriate to recognize the outstanding contribution made by some Mason to the Craft within Ontario, by presenting a plaque called the "William James Dunlop Award." The first such presentation was made on November 20, 1985, and since then nine other such awards have been made.

On September 21, 1988, E. V. Ralph suggested that it would be useful for the lodge to have a newsletter, and he volunteered to produce one for inclusion with the Summons during the coming year. It was given the name CHIPS, and it proved to be a successful project; Bro. Ralph edited it for fifteen years.

On August 20, 1986, the artist Basil Liaskas (who lived from 1941 to 2004) presented to the lodge his recent painting of the old lodge building in Pioneer Village, together with 300 prints of the picture, which the lodge was authorized to distribute. This project was very successful, and generated a lot of money. Ultimately, on March 20, 1991, Brother Liaskas was named the 1st Honorary Member of the lodge.

At the 45th Regular Meeting, on November 18, 1987, it was announced that a meeting was planned between the Bylaws Committee of the Lodge and the Chairman of Grand Lodge's Committee on Jurisprudence, to discuss permitting Heritage Lodge to be recognized as a special lodge, not attached to any district. Finally, at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, on 18 July, 1990, a Constitutional Amendment was adopted, setting the regulations for "Lodges of Research."

In 1995, the lodge presented $5,000 "to help defray the cost of the new Museum and Library Complex, which has now been dedicated in the Grand Lodge Memorial Building in Hamilton."

On September 1, 1998, Robert D. Watt, Chief Herald of Canada, issued a coat of arms to The Masonic Heritage Corporation. Against a blue background, the shield has the square and compasses over a trillium (the flower of Ontario) and seven stars.

And to mark the 150th anniversary of the foundation of our Grand Lodge, on March 19, 2005, Heritage Lodge held the first John Ross Robertson Memorial Lecture.

Altogether, an impressive array of achievements.

There are a few areas of concern, of course. The original intention had been to publish in the Proceedings all the papers delivered in lodge meetings. In general this has been done. But, of the total presented on various occasions, copies of five were never submitted for publication.

Over the years, a number of senior officers have expressed their desire to see "all the officers of the lodge ready to prepare a paper for presentation to the lodge on some aspect of Masonic tradition" – preferably before they reach the East. Since the founding, there have been 28 Worshipful Masters. And of course each of them had an opportunity to deliver an inaugural address at his installation. But only five seem to have delivered an actual research paper in lodge (Jacob Pos, Balfour LeGresley, Edmund Ralph, Gordon Finbow, and Raymond Boland).

The initial practice was to submit an advance copy of a paper that was to be presented in lodge to one or more members, and have them deliver comments (of approval, disagreement, or correction), which would be presented in lodge after the paper, and then the author would be allowed to respond. This was the regular procedure in the early years. But in recent years it has become more infrequent.

In conclusion, let us emphasize that a number of members have worked very hard for the various projects of the lodge. We have mentioned some of them, but it seems appropriate to remind you of several others. One thinks of W. Gray Rivers (Secretary of the lodge, 1983–1992), Samuel Forsythe (Secretary, 1994–2004), and John F. Sutherland (Editor, 1992– 2004).

Heritage Lodge has been doing good work for a quarter century. So if you aren't already a member, you may want to join.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

WALLACE McLEOD, Grand Historian

PRESENTATION OF NOTICES OF MOTION

The following Notices of Motion, presented on the floor of Grand Lodge, were duly adopted.

Section 152 amended as follows.

Fees Payable to Grand Lodge

152. Fees payable to Grand Lodge shall be as follows: (changes in bold)

- (m) Eight dollars per annum payable January 2006, ten dollars payable January 2007, thereafter twelve dollars per annum for every member of each lodge whose fees have not been commuted to Grand Lodge, including honorary and charter members. (2005)
- (n) Five dollars for a dispensation for any public procession or function, other than a Divine, Memorial or Remembrance Service. (2005)
- (o) Five dollars for any other dispensation, other than for a Divine Service or a Lodge of Instruction. (2005)

NOTE: subsections (a), (e) and (h) were amended in (2004) and are unchanged. (All other sections were last changed in 1991.)

Section 161 (a) amended to read:

(a) The report of the joint committee, if favourable, shall recommend the name, number and district of the proposed amalgamated lodge and the time and place for such amalgamation. On the approval of the report of the committee of each lodge, a copy thereof shall be mailed to the last known address of each member of each lodge.

Unless 25% or more of the membership as reported on the latest semi-annual return of any of the lodges notify the secretary of their lodge, in writing, of their objection to such amalgamation, within ten days from the date of mailing said notice, the amalgamation shall be carried into effect as soon as the Grand Master shall approve of such amalgamation. (2005)

Section 195 amended to read:

195. A brother who has been issued a Certificate of Standing or has been granted a demit without conditions, shall be entitled to visitation privileges within the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge for a period of one year from the date of the Certificate of Standing or the Certificate of Demission. (2005)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Once again, it is an honour and privilege, on behalf of this committee, to present the report or foreword to the following thirty-seven Reviews of the Annual Proceedings of our sister Grand Lodges received during the past year. Sincere thanks and gratitude must be extended to R.W. Bro. Frederic R. Branscombe for his careful selection of items and the countless hours of preparation of these Reviews for the interest of the brethren. Special thanks are directed to Mrs. Agnes Arts, Englehart, Ontario, for her kind assistance in translating the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the Netherlands. Each year has seen an increase in the number of Proceedings received on computer disk thereby requiring downloading for which thanks are extended to R.W. Bro. Peter Matijek, Kirkland Lake, Ontario, for arranging this. The intention of these Reviews is to inform the membership of the conditions and activities throughout the Masonic world.

Those brethren proposing or responding to Masonic toasts, active in Masonic Education, welcoming visitors, delivering Masonic addresses, will find these Reviews a useful source for topics, quotations and information. The reader will note many similarities between our Grand Jurisdiction and the Masonic world.

Some jurisdictions have seen the need to improve their PUBLIC IMAGE in order to quell the negative perception the public and media have with regard to Freemasonry. The Maine Masonic Council is a group dedicated to the advancement of the Order and active in making the public aware of the contributions of Masons to the community. They produced a Masonic Family Booklet and placed an insert in major daily newspapers, stating, "We must let the public know who we are and what we do!"

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT is evident throughout many jurisdictions as a means of relaying the Masonic message of who and what we are in an attempt to educate the public and attract new members. The Cancer Car Project, Salvation Army Kettle Drive, the Child Identification Programme (CHIP), Mom and Kids Identification Programme, Community Outreach, Child Camps, food drives, drug and alcohol abuse, local charities, scholarships, day and home care, Habitat for Humanity, and Masonic Homes, are but a few that are supported by financial and manpower assistance from Lodges and Grand Lodges. The Board of General Purposes of the Grand Lodge of Newfoundland and Labrador emphasized in a section headed COMMUNITY PROJECTS that, "this is an extremely important responsibility of our Lodges so as to let our light shine in our cities, towns, and villages. No matter how small the project may be, it is important to show the public that we are supportive."

MEMBERSHIP RETENTION and its importance has been addressed by some Grand Lodges in order to curb the loss and decline of members. Involving new and younger members with their fresh ideas and energy must be given high consideration. Interesting and informative lodge meetings, communication with members, Masonic Education, and leadership training are essential to retaining members. The Report of the Condition of Masonry of the Grand Lodge of Alberta referred to younger men joining lodges is "to ensure that they are involved and that they are given the opportunity to move forward and assume some of the roles that senior members have assumed for so long."

Many jurisdictions are supportive of YOUTH ORIENTED PROGRAMMES with financial assistance and volunteers to the DeMolay, Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls, and the Boy Scouts. This is viewed as a positive step to the betterment of society and the future of Freemasonry. The Report of the Youth Committee of South Dakota emphasized that the young people wanted to be accepted as partners of Masons and to work with them. "What they need," the committee told members of Grand Lodge, "is your support. They need it for the Bethels, they need it for their Adult Leadership, and they need it for you to attend their meetings."

ONE DAY CLASSES have been introduced in some jurisdictions. The making-of-masons in one day has brought new Master Masons and many are taking an active part in their lodges. Some candidates, however, asked their lodges to give them the degrees again, in the traditional way, because there was too much to absorb in one day.

CHANGES in Freemasonry are regarded as essential for the future by some Grand Lodges. The Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Montana pointed out that there are changing social factors that make changes in Masonry necessary and, though some members may find these difficult to accept, the Craft must move with the times. "Most of us do not agree with change for the sake of change," he said, "but there are certain adjustments or modifications that we need to accept to ensure Freemasonry continues to attract new members and, more importantly, enables us to keep those members active in our ranks."

The foregoing is a brief analysis of some of the topics contained in the Reviews. As the Reviews are contained in the Annual Proceedings and forwarded each year to every lodge, it is recommended that they be used for Masonic Education, Newsletter information, and Summons material. The Reviews are time consuming to produce, but time saving for resource.

Sincere thanks are extended to the Office of the Grand Secretary and others who assisted in obtaining Proceedings from our sister Grand Lodges in order to make this report possible.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

G. WAYNE NELSON, Chairman

ALBERTA

99th Annual CommunicationEdmonton, Alberta, June, 2004

In his Epilogue, M.W. Bro. Norman R. Thomas reminded his brethren that Masons, knowing instinctively that the fundamental message of Freemasonry is very much alive, are happy to see men apply for admission to the Craft. "We need only to continue," he said, "to explore ways of effective delivery of that message by way of ritual, education and research, through workshops and corporate worship. The world badly needs what we have been entrusted to deliver: the essential necessity for all men to pursue absolute truth, to nurture brotherly love and to join in fellowship and concord with all mankind."

With reference to younger men joining lodges, the Report on the Condition of Masonry stated that the real challenge is to ensure that they are involved, that they take a place in the lodge, that they "are given the opportunity to move forward and assume some of the roles that senior members have assumed for so long." The Board of Benevolence in its Annual Report indicated that, in addition to financial assistance in cases of need, it was lending equipment such as electric wheelchairs and a chair-bed to those with physical handicaps.

Another very successful year was experienced by the Masonic Higher Education Bursary Committee. It stated in its report that "Alberta Masons must be congratulated for the major effort they have made to continue the funding of this very important outreach charity." Donations amounted to $149,322.35, which was enough to fund 100 bursaries of $1,500.00 each.

The following proverbs were quoted in the printed Proceedings of the Communication, possibly to assist members in proposing or responding to toasts or in discharging similar duties:

- (i) It isn't our position that makes us happy, but rather our disposition;
- (ii) Life is 10% what happens to us and 90% how we respond;
- (iii) Kindness is a language that the deaf can hear and the blind can see;
- (iv) The person who rows the boat, generally doesn't have time to rock it.

ARIZONA

121st Annual CommunicationMesa, Arizona, June, 2003

Speaking of the increasing number of members who are being lost because of unpaid dues, M.W. Bro. John L. Krom pointed out that there are two groups that are quietly leaving by the back door. First, there are the young members who find that "we are not what we say we are." Secondly, many older members "tire of the constant power struggles and bickering in many lodges and vote with their feet." In his opinion the solution of the problem is for Masons to rekindle the flame that once burned within them and then there would be fewer disappearing members. "When we become who we say we are," the Grand Master stated, "our lodges will be filled with Brothers who are there to share knowledge and light and to experience the brotherhood of man. I will continue to believe that it is up to us individually to make the difference and be the Masons we wish to be: men of integrity inciting each other to individual acts of greatness."

With reference to attracting and retaining members, the Report of the Membership Committee gave this advice to lodges: "All of your efforts in every endeavour in your lodge, be it community, social, or charitable, will eventually come to naught, if membership, new and retentive, is not your first priority. Without the fresh ideas and energy supplied by new members, and the ritual proficiency needed to process them, your lodge will eventually just dry up and blow away."

In his Annual Report, the Grand Lecturer spoke of a change in the Ritual that had been introduced during the year. He reminded his brethren that in 2002 Grand Lodge had "voted to read Amos 7:7-8 for the circumambulation of the candidate during the Fellow Craft degree, for a trial period of one year. The significance of its reference to the plumb line is to lead us to consider our teaching and meaning of 'rectitude of conduct.' The Grand Lecturer reported, also, that good progress is being made, as authorized in 2002 by Grand Lodge, in translating into Spanish the ritual used in Arizona. This will assist Spanish-speaking Masons in Arizona who are not fluent in English, as well as, Masons from Mexico who wish to visit a lodge in Arizona.

ARKANSAS

Little Rock, Arkansas, February, 2004

M.W. Bro. Bobby D. Pope announced that he had been asked to have the current Grand Lodge prohibition against lodges participating in business ventures repealed. It was his recommendation that lodges be allowed to raise funds by commercial activities if "the entire net proceeds of the event are being given to a legitimate, recognized charity or foundation, provided that the lodge have liability insurance sufficient to cover the event (which will protect the assets of the lodge, Grand Lodge and other lodges in the jurisdiction) and that the fund-raising shall be designated as a lodge function." An additional stipulation was that the fund-raising event must be held within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas. The Grand Master's Recommendation received the necessary approval by Grand Lodge.

The Grand Secretary reported on the official Grand Lodge Charity Programme for 2003, which was financial assistance to the Association of Sheltered Workshops of Arkansas. These workshops give training to those in the community who are mentally or physically handicapped and assist in obtaining employment for them. Grand Lodge supports each of the twenty-five workshops in Arkansas by providing money to improve their programmes. As of December 31, 2003, the fund, which had been established for this Grand Lodge charity, had received about $40,000.00 in contributions from individual Masons and from lodges.

In November, 2003, the Grand Lodge Library celebrated the 150th anniversary of its founding. To mark the occasion the library published They Made a Difference: Arkansas Freemasons. As a public relations gesture, the Grand Lodge Library gave a copy of this book to every public library in Arkansas.

BRITISH COLUMBIA AND YUKON

Salmon Arm, British Columbia, June, 2004

M.W. Bro. Charles W. Ferguson sounded an optimistic note in his Grand Master's Address when he announced, "We are indeed turning the corner concerning our membership! I am impressed by the number of young members we are initiating into our lodges. Let's keep them coming and let's ensure that what they find in Freemasonry meets their needs. We must be relevant!" He urged caution, however, with reference to participating with regalia in civic ceremonies and parades. "This is a new type of community involvement," he said, "It is recommended that great care be taken in organizing such participation. We wish to be seen as part of the community, but seen in the best light as a positive, well organized part of the community. Assurances that will be the case are needed from those organizing these events."

The Grand Secretary observed that though some lodges are suffering from dwindling rolls others are frequently receiving petitions for Initiation. He commented that "Many of those who are joining are young men in their twenties and thirties. They are finding our web sites. They are reading books like the best selling The Da Vinci Code, which arouses their interest in things like 'sacred geometry,' and they are ready to follow their grandfather's footprints."

The Community Relations Committee stated in its report that there had been an increase in the number of community events in which lodges had participated: "The Salvation Army Kettle Drive involves lodges and members in every part of our jurisdiction. Lodges are now involved in annual events in just about every community, some large, some small – it doesn't matter. The key words here are 'involve' and 'participate.'"

The Report on the Cancer Car Project informed Grand Lodge that the original 15-year guarantee to the Canadian Cancer Society had been completed and that, as the service continues to be well received by cancer patients, an extension of the project had been undertaken. The project had achieved its goal that "all Cancer Clinics in the province, where the Canadian Cancer Society does not have its own Volunteer Driver Programme, are now serviced by the Masonic Cancer Car Programme." In 2003, the project provided 30,655 rides, transporting patients 725,771 kilometres. Since the programme began in 1989, the totals are: 320,700 patient rides and 6,457,296 kilometres.

CONNECTICUT

214th Annual Communication

Farmington, Connecticut, April, 2003

The importance in the Craft and in society of DeMolay was recognized by M.W. Bro. Walter E. Kaechelle in his Address to Grand Lodge. "The young men of DeMolay," he said, "are the future of our fraternity and our country. I am proud of all they do."

The Grand Master spoke of the power created in an individual by what Dr. Norman Vincent Peale called the POWER OF POSITIVE THINKING. M.W. Bro. Kaechelle assured his brethren that in every successful Grand Lodge programme during the year positive thinking had been the key ingredient for success. "Added to this ingredient," he said, "was the dedication, support, hard work and perseverance of many Master Masons both from within and without our Grand Jurisdiction. This year we have had a positive attitude and have worked as a team. As a consequence, we have known joy and victory. We have begun to solve some of our problems. And we have met our difficulties successfully. Together, we have achieved the goal. Together, we have moved Connecticut Freemasonry in a positive direction. And together, we will continue to move in a positive direction."

In his Annual Report the Grand Historian spoke of problems that are being created now that will create difficulties in the future. He confided that while he watched the videotaping of children in several CHIP (Child Identification Programme) events he often saw "the need for videotaping our veteran or seasoned brothers as they discuss their Masonic careers. I can visualize placing a camera in front of a sixty-year Mason asking him to relate some stories about when he first entered the portals of Freemasonry and the brothers who were seated about the lodge then."

The Grand Secretary noted that there have been some "modest changes in the area of membership statistics in part through our increasing visibility within our communities throughout Connecticut." Regarding loss of members through NPD, he reported that "in co-operation with our Lodge Secretaries the Grand Lodge is informed of those brothers who are 'near NPD'. Each brother then receives a personal letter from the Grand Master encouraging him not to let his membership lapse. This programme has been successful in past years but it still requires direct intervention from each respective lodge."

ENGLAND

Quarterly Communications and Annual Investiture

London, England, March, April, June, September and December, 2004

In his Grand Master's Address at the March Quarterly Communication, M.W. Bro. H. R. H. the Duke of Kent expressed his pleasure in having been able to participate in "the splendid ceremonies at the Royal Albert Hall last October, setting up both the Metropolitan Grand Lodge and the Metropolitan Grand Chapter of London. It was a magnificent occasion." He commented, "It will take time for the new structure to bed down because this is the biggest change in Freemasonry for almost 200 years, but there are already welcome signs that a new spirit of co-operation and companionship is beginning to transform the newest Masonic venture into something of which we will be very proud."

With reference to recent changes in Masonry the Grand Master observed that "the almost obsessive secrecy of the thirty years from the 1950's onwards has been followed by a policy of increasing openness which has encouraged us to be more outward looking. The consequence of this has been a greater desire to defend ourselves against unwarranted external attack and a willingness to correct malicious falsehoods about the Craft spread by those who do not wish to hear the truth."

A report on the Centre For Research Into Freemasonry was given at the September Quarterly Communication by Professor Andrew Prescott. This academic institution at the University of Sheffield, he pointed out, "was the first centre devoted wholly to the study of Freemasonry to be established in a British university. Its mission is quite simply to encourage British scholars to recognize the potential of Freemasonry as a field of research and put the study of Freemasonry firmly on the academic map in Britain." He thanked the Grand Lodge which, along with the Provincial Grand Master and Lodges in Yorkshire, West Riding, as well as the Grand Chapter, provided the necessary funding for the Centre.

IDAHO

Idaho Falls, Idaho, September, 2003

Concerning the State of the Craft, M.W. Bro. Joseph E. Alexander stated in his Annual Report that, although there had been a loss in membership during the year, he felt that progress had been made because the loss was the smallest in ten years. That progress, however, had been accomplished as the result of a tremendous amount of work. There are good men in every community and if Masons continue to be active in their communities, displaying who Masons are and what they do, new members will continue to be found.

The Grand Master spoke of the problem of the loss of members by NPD and acknowledged that there is no easy remedy. "One thing we can do," he said, "is to be more attentive to our members' needs and make sure that we don't wait too long before inquiring about the circumstances surrounding their particular situation before doing something to assist them. Additionally, we need to go back to those dropped members and determine if their circumstances have changed and if they are now ready to continue their Masonic journey."

The Grand Secretary concluded his Annual Report with a recommendation that is worthy of active consideration well beyond the bounds of his Grand Jurisdiction: "Every year I request the brethren of Idaho to stop by the Secretary's desk in lodge and thank that brother for his efforts. His work is not accomplished in the two hours it takes to conduct a Stated Communication. Much of his own time (and sometime his family's time) goes into the smooth running of his office. Knowing that you appreciate his efforts makes his task seem a little lighter."

ILLINOIS

164th Annual CommunicationSpringfield, Illinois, October, 2003

M.W. Bro. Charles H. Sullins gave an account in his Annual Report of a Masonic knowledge proficiency competition, known as The Eureka Challenge, which had been developed and launched by the Lodge Programmes Committee, in conjunction with the Masonic Education Committee. "This unique quiz game," he stated, "involves a lodge's members, at either a stated or special meeting, matching questions on myriad aspects of Freemasonry with 33 correct answers within a 33-minute period." The lodge with the best score and the fastest time in each district advances to further competitions, leading eventually to a state championship competition at an evening session of the Grand Lodge Annual Communication. He reported that within its first year this activity "has proven to be one of the most popular and entertaining Grand Lodge programmes in the state, as well as a powerful educational platform which can be used to convey almost any subject matter we wish." The beneficial influence on lodge attendance is clearly suggested by his report that "feedback has been overwhelmingly positive, with members enthusiastically anticipating future competitions and discussing the questions for weeks afterwards."

The Grand Master referred to an event in 2003 that he considered made Masonic history. A lodge in Illinois was "twinned" with one in the Philippines. As the term "twinning" is not one that is commonly used in Masonry, he explained that it "alludes to two subordinate lodges in different jurisdictions forming an alliance for the purposes of mutual assistance, education and closer fraternal relations. The intended result is that a member of a twinned lodge in his travels may find a home away from home in the counterpart lodge."

INDIANA

187th Annual CommunicationIndianapolis, Indiana, May, 2004

Referring in his Annual Address to the Condition of the Craft, M.W. Bro. James L. Chesney said, "In my travels throughout the state, I have seen degree work performed in many different lodges. The work that I observed was credible on all accounts. While some lodges could not fully perform the work themselves, they were able to draw ritualists from neighbouring lodges. A number of the lodges that I visited have been actively involved in their communities and in bringing in new brothers."

The Grand Master emphasized the importance of advertising in bringing the Craft to the attention of potential members. He drew their attention to the billboards that Grand Lodge, in co-operation with the Scottish Rite Valley of Indianapolis, Indiana York Rite and Murat Shrine Temple, had erected along a heavily travelled highway. He felt that they helped to promote Freemasonry in Indiana because they drew attention to the Indiana Masons on line Website. "I am pleased to report," he said, "that with the help of the billboards and Website, we are generating leads from men who are interested in Freemasonry. These men have been referred to local lodges in their immediate area for contact and information. I would encourage each lodge that receives an inquiry to diligently follow-up with the prospective member."

The Youth Groups Committee reported that it was working to maintain mutually beneficial communication with the Youth Groups and their sponsoring bodies, both at a local and a state level. Besides referring to its close relationship with DeMolay, the committee acknowledged "the co-operation of the Supreme Deputy for Rainbow and her staff, along with the Grand Guardian for Job's Daughters and her officers, in helping to further the goals of both their own organizations and the Grand Lodge as a sponsoring body." The committee expressed its thanks to "the Indiana Freemason for its frequent publication of material promoting the youth groups and for the solicitation of information for each issue."

IRELAND

Quarterly Communications

Belfast, Northern Ireland, Dublin and Kingsport, Ireland

March, June, October, December, 2003

At the October Quarterly Communication, the Board of General Purposes reported that it had received a request to extend the boundaries of the Province of Jamaica to include the Bahamas. It recommended approval and this was confirmed by Grand Lodge.

In his Grand Master's Report, at the Quarterly Communication in December, M.W. Bro. Eric N. Waller spoke of the vigorous support which the Grand Lodge Charity funds give members and their dependents who are in need. By way of example, he indicated that 424 boys and girls are being supported in all levels of education throughout Ireland and 950 people, mostly ladies, are receiving annuities to supplement low incomes. Funds are being raised for Masonic charities in various ways, one of which he found particularly interesting. It was a novel Website that "offers a virtual or simulated Tour of the Temple of Solomon. Visitors can navigate through the courts and passageways as if they were walking through the Temple." The address of this Website is www.masonichavens.ie.

M.W. Bro. Waller reported that the Grand Lodge P.R. strategy had achieved spectacular results in 2003: "The media are less hostile and we have improved our public image. Local press and radio covered many events all over Ireland." The Grand Master stressed that every Mason has an individual responsibility to foster good public relations for the Craft. "We must continue to make the public aware," he told them, "of what we are and what we stand for and to reassure the public that they have no reason to fear Freemasonry. In fact the opposite applies – Freemasonry is a major force for good in society. It would help greatly if more of our brethren felt comfortable talking about Freemasonry in their everyday lives, hopefully they will as the public perception of our Order improves."

The chairman of the Dublin Board spoke in December about Almonering. "It is surprising," he said, "how easy it is to forget a brother or a dependent of a member if they fail to attend or pass on to the Grand Lodge above. Visitation to a brother or a widow or a dependent is often not a matter of financial need. Being remembered and having time to talk is often worth more to a lonely member or some one who has lost a loved one than a cheque."

IOWA

Des Moines, Iowa, September, 2003

In his Annual Report M.W. Bro. Clifford C. Godsey said of the State of the Craft that he sensed an excitement and enthusiasm in all parts of the state about the future of the Craft. He understood that more conventional degree work is being done and that many more Master Masons are taking the Masonic Instructors Examination. To continue this success into the future the Grand Master stated, "We really must continue to think of various ways to present ourselves and our works in the community as a positive influence on the brilliant future of Freemasonry in Iowa."

The Grand Master substantiated his view that they were in a period of outstanding success with the following statistics: "Iowa had the smallest net loss since 1957, while having the most Raisings since 1976. The Grand Master's One-Day Classes brought new Master Masons and many are taking an active part in their lodges. The number of suspensions for non-payment of dues was the lowest since 1946. The excitement is continuing this year. The number of traditional Raisings is on track to be the second highest since 1985."

The Executive Officer of Iowa DeMolay thanked Grand Lodge for financial support that made possible the introduction of several innovative programmes. He reported that in 2002 there had been increases both in membership and in advisors from sponsoring lodges and there is a great need for the same to happen in 2003. "DeMolay continues to build toward the future by developing young men who possess the qualities of leadership and character," he said and pointed out that "Iowa Masonry will continue to receive the long-term benefit of better Masonic leaders because they were in DeMolay first."

JAPAN

Tokyo, Japan, March, 2004

M.W. Bro. Jack Miller stated in his Grand Master's Report that he was happy to be able to give assurance that Masonry is doing very well in Japan. He was especially pleased to see a large number of young people present at Grand Lodge. He told them that in fifteen years some of them will be conducting Grand Lodge and he expressed the hope that they will go away from their Grand Lodge attendance rededicated to serve Masonry to the best of their ability.

"Of special interest this year," the Grand Secretary reported, "is the seeking of Masonic information by a small group of Japanese university students. It may be that the light has finally come on in Japan and we will see younger Japanese men asking the most important question." He referred to some regrettable incidents in Masonic lodges in Turkey and other countries. He maintained that "the incidents themselves are of concern, but of equal concern is the reporting by the media that is rife with inaccuracies and untruths sufficient to feed the anti-Masonic advocates for weeks and months to come."

The Committee on Ritual (Japanese) reported that "the entire First Degree Ritual in the Japanese language had been completed." Before it is published, however, the committee plans to conduct further examination of it on the basis of tests in various locations. Another report on a similar project was received by the Committee on Translation. It indicated that it was pleased to inform Grand Lodge that "the translation of the Constitution into Japanese was finally completed" and that copies of the Japanese version will be delivered to all lodges requesting one.

KANSAS

Topeka, Kansas, March, 2004

The Grand Master, speaking in his Address about the State of the Craft, issued a challenge to all Masons, wherever they might be. "My thought is," M.W. Bro. Robert L. Tomlinson stated, "that if we all want to have a vibrant and flourishing organization, we must make it that way. We are the only interested persons who can accomplish this task because, I hate to tell you, nobody else cares. Are you willing to do whatever is necessary to improve the State of our Craft?"

The Public School Total Youth Committee reported that it had held the annual state wide Public School Scholarship Essay Contest for public, junior and senior high school students. The prizes were provided by Grand Lodge and they ranged from $2,000 for first prize to $500 for fourth prize. The topic for the current year's contest was, What Price Freedom: for current national security, immigration policy and the role of the USA as world peacekeepers. Sixty-five essays were received from local lodges. Three well qualified judges were appointed to read the essays and determine the winners.

The committee gave a positive report concerning the other aspect of its responsibility, namely the welfare of DeMolay, Order of the Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters. These groups, the committee reminded Grand Lodge, are the future of Masonry and therefore lodges should support them in their activities and membership drives, as well as by attending their meetings and using them in lodge programmes.

MAINE

Portland, Maine, May, 2004

M.W. Bro. Charles E. Ridlon began his Address to Grand Lodge with this upbeat statement: "This past year has been full of Masonic milestones, both joyous and disturbing, but I truly believe we have moved Freemasonry in Maine in a positive direction as brethren from every corner of this vast jurisdiction have come out to attend their lodge meetings and greet the Grand Lodge Officers." He reported that the Long Range Strategic Planning Committee had held two Leadership Development Seminars during the year, which were very successful. He stated that loss of membership was continuing because, even though they probably had raised more Master Masons than in any year during the past decade, they were steadily losing members to death.

The Grand Master was particularly proud of the Maine Masonic Council, which he described as a group dedicated to the advancement of the Order and active in making the public aware of the contributions of Masons to the community. He spoke of their dedication to the improvement of public relations. "This past year," he said, "they printed an updated version of the Maine Masonic Family booklet, which every Mason should see is in his Barber Shop and his Doctor's office." Noting that this Council had recently produced an insert in three major daily newspapers, he declared, "We must let the public know who we are and what we do!"

He ended his Address by giving his brethren some fraternal advice: "Enjoy your Freemasonry and remember, have fun, enjoy the family and fellowship and focus on the future of the Fraternity."

The Grand Secretary reported that the Grand Lodge of Maine had been the host for the annual Brotherhood Night for Masons from the New England States. The speaker was Bro. Harte, the Chairman of the CHIPS programme for the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. The Grand Secretary said of Dr. Harte, "Recently he assisted our Grand Master in obtaining the endorsement of our CHIPS Programme by the Maine Dental Association. Additionally, this programme has been endorsed by the Maine Chiefs of Police Association and the National Centre for Missing and Exploited Children."

The Committee on the Condition of the Fraternity recommended Fellowship Nights, if properly planned and conducted, as a means of introducing Masonry to people.

MANITOBA

Winnipeg, Manitoba, June, 2004

M.W. Bro. Kenneth Thomas gave a glowing account of a year that was marked by many accomplishments: "The Constitution revision is finally finished and ready to be published. The Board of General Purposes will be in its new format this year. The Mom & Kids ID has been refined, tested and ready to go big time. We have had great publicity from the Mom & Kids ID and the Cancer Car programme. We had our first public installation of lodge officers at Assiniboine Lodge No. 7. We initiated our first Lewis, and had several before the year was out." He pointed out that Manitoba had established a permanent strategic planning committee and developed both a Mission Statement and a Vision Statement, as well as a Strategic Plan. The Lodge Education Officer programme had held two seminars and was under way with vigour and enthusiasm. The general fund had been budgeted for a deficit but finished with a surplus.

The Mom and Kids ID Programme, to which the Grand Master referred in his Address, reported that it had progressed beyond the organization phase and now was capable of processing about sixty children per hour. The Vision Statement of the programme is: "It will highlight the commitment to the public good and increase the visibility of the Free Masons of Manitoba." Its Mission Statement is: "It will provide a secure system contributing to the safety of all children and to the peace of mind of all parents, by providing a valuable tool for the use of police or judicial services." It becomes operational in a community when a coordinator is appointed by a lodge (or lodges), who then appoints a team and arranges for their training. Several lodges have expressed an interest and are taking steps to become involved. It was pointed out that the programme benefits participating lodges in that it enables them to give new members, particularly younger men, more opportunities to be active in the lodge, thereby increasing their interest in the lodge and the likelihood of maintaining their membership. The committee was particularly pleased to report that "several jurisdictions have shown a keen interest in our developing programme, i.e., the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia and members of lodges in Saskatchewan and Ontario."

MASSACHUSETTS

Quarterly Communications and Stated Communication

Boston, Massachusetts, March, June, September and December, 2003

M.W. Bro. Donald G. Hicks, Jr., began his Address with some suggestions how his brethren could improve the image of Masonry. "As you discuss our Craft with friends and associates," he said, "you can point with pride to the community service work of Massachusetts Masons. Point out to them that it is our Massachusetts Masons that have identified over 142,000 children using the most comprehensive programme. Our State Director of CHIP (Child Identification Programme), R.W. Bro. David B. Harte, reports that over thirty Massachusetts School Systems have adopted our programme, and that a recommendation has been made to the American Dental Association to consider making the CHIP programme a national campaign."

He reminded Grand Lodge that Massachusetts Masons created the Masonic Angel Fund, by which fifty-nine lodges in six states actively and anonymously help children. He indicated that in partnership with local school systems participating lodges provide funds to help a child receive a winter coat, eyeglasses, a pair of shoes or other assistance as needed. The Grand Master added that the participating lodges are receiving valuable benefits from this community service outreach. They are gaining recognition, but of equal importance they are gaining members and they are practicing the tenets of our profession: Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

The attention of Grand Lodge was directed to a report that had been received previously concerning the age that one must have reached before he can join a Masonic Lodge. According to that report, "the age requirement to become a Mason has not been absolute throughout the Masonic world. Masonic history reveals that the age to become a Mason has been as high as twenty-five and as low as sixteen. Currently more than half of the Grand Lodges in the United States permit membership at an age less than twenty-five years." There is general agreement, however, that "a Mason must be a man, free born and of full age according to the law and custom of the time and place." The Grand Master stated "the law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts since 1973 clearly defines 'full age' as eighteen years of age." Accordingly, he issued a Ruling that the minimum age at which a man may join a lodge in Massachusetts is eighteen years of age.

MONTANA

Kalispell, Montana, June, 2004

M.W. Bro. Alan D. Harkins was optimistic concerning the State of the Craft in Montana. "I am happy to say," he stated in his Annual Address, "that although we had a net loss of 281 members, that is about 100 less than last year. It also appears to me that we are attracting younger members that will hopefully be a source of new members for our appendant bodies and our youth groups."

The Grand Master informed Grand Lodge that he had been privileged to perform a relatively rare Masonic ritual. He related that a man had indicated that he would be "unable to complete all three degrees prior to his National Guard Unit receiving orders to ship out to the Mideast, and I therefore made him a Mason at Sight."

With regard to the future, the Grand Secretary was of the opinion that "while our reduction in membership numbers does still continue, it does not mean that Freemasonry is in decline." He pointed out that there are changing social factors that make changes in Masonry necessary and, though some members may find these difficult to accept, the Craft must move with the times. "Most of us do not agree with change for the sake of change," he said, "but there are certain adjustments or modifications that we need to accept to ensure Freemasonry continues to attract new members and, more importantly, enables us to keep those members active in our ranks."

The Youth Group Committee reported that an invitation had been received for a Montana Master Mason to be a member of an advisory board for the Montana Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

An announcement was made concerning a clarification of the mandate of Grand Representatives to and from the Grand Lodge of Montana: Most Worshipful Grand Master has directed that in accordance with the (Montana Masonic) Code, Section 11010, Grand Representatives to other Grand Jurisdictions near Montana shall be appointed to:

- a) Attend Montana Grand Lodge Communications;
- b) Communicate with the Grand Jurisdiction represented;
- c) Make a written report to the Grand Secretary not later than April 30th each year as to the contents of communications exchanged with the Grand Jurisdiction represented.

Each year the incoming Grand Master shall check the record of each representative and he shall determine if their commission shall be terminated and a successor appointed."

NETHERLANDS

Annual Communication

Utrecht, Netherlands, June 2004

M.W. Bro. J. D. Rossum cautioned his brethren, in his Grand Master's Address, against the danger of isolating symbolism in their thinking about Masonry. He maintained that "although the day to day business and the symbolic realities are different, they are not to be separated. Separation of these two realities would take away the depth of Freemasonry and degrade it to a superficial museum piece – that the outer quality and the inner capability of the Order can easily go together is shown in the fact that two new lodges were formed during the past year. During the Installation it was seen how much work the brethren of both lodges had done in preparation for this special event."

The Grand Master announced a recent event of interest to Grand Lodge members, as well as to many in the general public. "In Jakarta, Indonesia," he informed them, "the book written by Bro. Stevens about Freemasonry and the community in the Dutch East Indies from 1764 to 1962 has been translated into Bahasa and was presented publicly in May. A few hundred guests were present at the Hyatt Hotel in Indonesia amongst whom were the Historian of the University of Jakarta, the Dutch Ambassador in Indonesia and, not to be forgotten, our member of the executive, the V.W. Bro. Olman. According to Indonesian tradition, big flower plates were placed by the different sponsors, including our Order."

M.W. Bro. Van Rossum emphasized that in voting on resolutions in Grand Lodge the Officers and the Executive can advise members how to vote on a given issue but not direct them how to vote. He made it very clear that "those present today and eligible to vote, having heard the voices of their brethren, at last can vote without consultation. It is up to you to do the work within the fibre of our democratic Brotherhood. Within the Order, there is no place for action groups who use the law of big numbers to have influence. Neither within the Order, nor outside of the Order, is one entitled to speak for another brother."

The members of the Grand Executive are united, the Grand Master stated, in their belief that though in some lodges the inner power of the Order is dormant, "here and there it is starting to wake up and, in some places, this fire of desire is burning in full force. It is the waking up of the inner power that guarantees the promise of the future."

NEVADA

Verdi, Nevada, November, 2003

In his Annual Report, M.W.Bro. Roger W. Denn said of the condition of Masonry in Nevada that he found it alive and well and that lodges were receiving petitions for the degrees and for affiliation. He concluded, "I feel that we Nevada Masons are taking a great step forward in Masonry this year."

The Grand Master issued a Proclamation related to youth. As all Masons should observe and display their pride in the Masonic Youth Organizations: DeMolay, Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters, he proclaimed the month of March as Masonic Youth Observance Month and he issued a Grand Master's Order that "each lodge or several lodges shall join together to attend and observe our Masonic youth at their labours in their Chapters, Assemblies or Bethels on their meeting night, if any Masonic Youth Group is located in their area. If this is not possible, they are to present an informative programme for the brethren of their respective lodges."

Also with reference to youth, the Grand Master stated, "I do hereby proclaim Public School Observance Week to be Observed at some period between April 14, 2003, and June 14, 2003. It is my Order that each lodge, or several lodges join together in the presentation of a programme to display our Masonic Fraternity's support of Public Schools. Our support is sometimes better displayed when the programme activities are presented to the public."

A report was received on the progress of the Nevada Masonic Child Identification Programme, which stated that the Programme "has now been up and running for two and one half years. Over 10,000 children have gone through the identification process, with four thousand done in this year alone." It added the observation that all adults that had brought their children to be processed expressed their thanks for CHIP and were grateful that they could participate. The report concluded with the observation that "teachers, parents and sponsors appreciate the work that is being done in this field."

NEW BRUNSWICK*137th Annual CommunicationSaint John, New Brunswick, May, 2004*

An optimistic view of the State of the Lodges in the Province of New Brunswick was expressed by M.W. Bro. Gordon R. Rattray in his Grand Master's Address. "This past year," he said, "has proven to be another year in which the Lodges of the Jurisdiction have worked very hard to revitalize themselves. This appears to be going very well for most of the lodges. The number of candidates has gone up for many lodges and attendance in their meetings is also improving."

The New Brunswick Masonic Charities and Housing Company Ltd., which administers Grand Lodge charitable projects in the community, reported on a successful 2003 season for Camp Goodtime. There were in attendance approximately fifty boys and girls, who were 7 to 13 years of age. All had a history of cancer. The camp lasted for six days but plans were made to extend it by one day, making it a full week. Another new feature will be a Junior Leadership Programme for campers who are 13 and 14 years old. It is expected that this new feature "will offer a unique opportunity for these youths to develop their leadership skills."

The Masonic Charities also supported the Deaf, Blind, Rubella Summer Camp. It reported that it had increased its donation to it to $5,600 so as "to sponsor eight children, together with their interveners, to attend this one week summer camp held in the Richibucto area. The children and adults who attend this camp are deaf and/or blind, many since birth."

The Committee on Youth reported an increase in the number of Masonic Youth organizations operating in New Brunswick. It stated that there were two Assemblies of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls and also two DeMolay Chapters.

NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR*7th Annual CommunicationSt. John's, Newfoundland, October, 2004*

Having asked his brethren to remember that his theme for the year had been Caring and Sharing, M.W. Bro. James Tulk stated that he continued to believe that if Masons gave serious attention to the teachings of the Craft, Freemasonry would play a major role in making society a better place for future generations. "As I have often said during my visitations to lodges," he reminded them, "brethren, get out into the community and practice what we are taught within the lodge and show the public what we are all about."

The Board of General Purposes gave additional emphasis in its report to the theme of community involvement. In a section headed COMMUNITY PROJECTS, the Board emphasized that "this is an extremely important responsibility of our lodges so as to let our light shine in our cities, towns and villages. Many lodges sponsor scholarships, food drives, contributions to local hospitals and to many other charities. No matter how small the project may be, it is most important to show the public that we are supportive."

NEW HAMPSHIRE*Semiannual Communication and 215th Annual CommunicationManchester, New Hampshire, November, 2003, and May, 2004*

The New Hampshire Masonic Foundation for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Among Children (D.A.R.E.) reported at the Semiannual Communication that it had presented the State Police with $10,000 for the New Hampshire D.A.R.E. programme. The report stated that "positive results are being realized in our effort to help our young people avoid the pressures of those who seek to involve them in the use of drugs and alcohol." Support from New Hampshire Masons enabled D.A.R.E. to teach many young people to say "NO".

The DeMolay Committee reported in November that some Chapters had been asked by lodges to assist at banquets and other social events, while other DeMolay Chapters had provided special programmes for lodges and Eastern Star Chapters. The committee recommended that all Masters be requested to inform their members of DeMolay meetings in their localities "so that they may visit and become acquainted with the young men and their fine work."

In his Address, in May, M.W. Bro. Wendell L. Woodward said of the State of the Craft that "Improvement has once again been seen in lodges from the previous year. This is the result of a number of factors. Lodge meeting programmes have increased; public awareness is improving through semi-public affairs and involvement in community projects; lodges are opening and working in other degrees to involve their candidates; lodges are participating in District Master's Classes which improves administrative skills and communication within that District; but mainly lodges, according to trestle boards, are receiving petitions and working Degrees, even in lodges which have not had candidates for years."

The Chairman of the Committee for the Widows Programme extended congratulations to those lodges that had programmes for widows and he encouraged all lodges to have a Special Ladies event each year. The committee gave special recognition to one lodge that had done several things for their Special Ladies. These events included taking them to a nursery and then to lunch, inviting them to programmes at the lodge, inviting them to a Christmas dinner and presenting each with a poinsettia, inviting them to a Ladies At The Table and also to their annual Installation. A Silver Bowl was presented to that lodge.

NEW MEXICO

Albuquerque, New Mexico, March, 2004

M.W. Bro. Jeffrey D. Johnson devoted a segment of his Annual Address to the importance of Ritual because, in his judgement, it defines who Masons are and by it they teach their lessons. "To benefit from it," he said, "the Ritual must be studied, word by word, action by action until it is understood." He distinguished, however, between the importance of Ritual and the importance of forcing other people to like Ritual. While leaders in a lodge should encourage young members to like Ritual and to take part in working the Degrees, it must be remembered that there are several ways to encourage them to participate and the manner of encouraging should vary in accordance with the needs of the individual being helped. He pointed out that "some people need you to praise them for every little thing they do correctly. Some need you to set up classes and call them before each class meeting. Some need you to challenge them and say that it can't be done or simply ask a question and let them find their own answer."

The Grand Master said that when the one-day degrees were first introduced he feared that working degrees in the traditional manner would gradually disappear. He was elated, however, to find that one-day classes were having the opposite effect. After a recent one-day class, some candidates who had received the three degrees on the same day "asked local lodges to give them the degrees again because there was too much to absorb in one day. Lodge Masters scheduled degrees to make sure that those petitioners attended future meetings and to reinforce the lessons taught in the degrees. Coaches and mentors were assigned to make sure petitioners understood the Ritual and to acquaint them with lodge operations and to make them feel a part of their lodge."

NOVA SCOTIA

139th Annual CommunicationTruro, Nova Scotia, June, 2004

In reporting to Grand Lodge his activities during the year, M.W. Bro. G. Shane MacFarlane stated that he had "forwarded a letter to each newly raised Mason who entered our Grand Lodge during the time I have served as Grand Master. These will be sent over the next while, as we can only do so when the information has been received by the Grand Secretary. This is a welcome letter which I hope will show the new brethren that they are important to their lodge and the Grand Lodge. It also requests that they become involved."

The Report on the Condition of the Order observed that "there seems to be adequate reason for bleak outlook for several lodges." Problems which the committee indicated were likely to be found in lodges having serious problems included declining membership, aging membership, poor attendance, dull meetings, inadequate leadership and unsatisfactory ritual work. With reference to the problem of declining membership, the report gave this advice: "It is very necessary that lodges provide programmes and social activities that capture and retain the interest of our membership. Remember that lodge meetings are where we do the business of the lodge but most of our Masonry occurs outside the lodge room. More socialization among the membership will help reduce suspensions and demits." The report expressed the opinion that dull, uninteresting meetings often cause demits and suspensions, because some members find a ball game or a hockey game more attractive than an evening devoted to hearing the reading of minutes followed by business items, such as the paying of bills. The report stated clearly that, notwithstanding the disappointments and problems in some lodges, the Annual Reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters show that "most lodges are doing well and it is particularly impressive to note the growth and vitality which is occurring in the Halifax-Dartmouth Metropolitan Area. There has been an improvement in the Ritual activities and the calibre of members being initiated."

OHIO

194th Annual CommunicationDayton, Ohio, October, 2003

In his Grand Master's Address M.W. Bro. William P. Mayberry explained why he had selected as his theme Freemasonry: Building a Brighter Tomorrow. The three principal concepts in it relate directly to Masonic teaching and practice. First, Building implies that Masonry is creating something that adds value to life. Second, Brighter relates to the symbolism of light in Masonry, implying that the Craft is a lighthouse sending forth a beacon of hope to a world where Faith, Hope and Charity sound old fashioned. Third, Tomorrow is where Masons and their families will spend the rest of their lives, even though Masons recognize the strong appeal of their unique history. He concluded that his theme, Building a Brighter Tomorrow, is a statement that Masons "can make the future a better and brighter place to live, work, raise our families and worship God."

M.W. Bro. Mayberry reported on the Grand Master's One-Day Classes held during the year, when all three Symbolic Lodge Degrees were conferred on one day at one location. All candidates had to have petitioned a Regular Lodge, as well as having been investigated and approved by ballot in the usual way and had paid the normal initiation fee of that Lodge. No requirements for examination or memorization were enforced in relation to the Degrees but each candidate was assigned a mentor to be with him and be of assistance throughout the ceremony. The Grand Master stated, "By having a one-day class in each district, we were in a better position to serve our candidates. More than 3,100 new Master Masons raised this past March."

A report was given on the Masonic Student Assistance Programme, which is a three-day seminar that trains teachers "to effectively identify at-risk youth in the classroom and intervene in their lives before the student can become a disruptive force in school or society." There is no cost to participants for attending the seminar nor for meals and accommodation. More than 700 teachers from 90 schools have been trained by the project since it was initiated.

The Youth Organizations Committee invited the adult leaders of the Youth Groups to report on the successes and problems of each group. The Ohio Executive Officer spoke about the DeMolay Chapters, the Ohio Supreme Inspector spoke about the Assemblies of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls and the Grand Guardian for Ohio spoke about the Bethels of Job's Daughters.

PENNSYLVANIA

Quarterly Communications and Annual Communication

Elizabethtown and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania,

December, 2002, June, December, 2003

The Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Marvin A. Cunningham, spoke at the Annual Communication about his theme: HOPE, Helping Others Pursue Excellence. "As we travelled north, south, east and west in this great Jurisdiction," he said, "I recognized that all of us are striving for excellence. Brethren, when we are in our communities, or wherever we may be, and whenever we get the chance, we should talk about Freemasonry. Let our friends and neighbours know – let everyone know – that in Pennsylvania Freemasonry is 'alive and well' serving mankind and doing good unto others." He continued, "I re-emphasize that we have to let the public know about Freemasonry: who we are, what we stand for and what we do! Brethren, we, the Masons, are the ones who can do that job. Yes, I have heard the unfounded challenge, 'Oh, you belong to that secret organization.' It should be a goal of ours to overcome that misconception. One fitting response to that can be, 'The only secret is that there is no secret.' We, . . . all of us in the Family of Freemasonry . . . can accomplish that if we work together."

The Board of Directors of the Masonic Library and Museum of Pennsylvania reported that the library had responded to over 480 reference questions, which was an increase of forty percent over a two-year period. The report indicated that "Research assistance was provided to numerous college professors, and both Pennsylvania Masons and Masons from other Jurisdictions were assisted in researching areas of Masonic interest." An announcement was made that the library had established a sub-collection consisting of "books related to other social and fraternal organizations that, in some way, can help the researcher better appreciate the unique nature of Freemasonry."

The Pennsylvania Youth Foundation reported that it funds the Websites of DeMolay, Rainbow and Job's Daughters, which tell the stories of the successes of the Pennsylvania Youth Groups. The foundation announced that it was establishing weekend classes on Publication and Website Design to help the Masonic Youth Groups present themselves in a better light to the public. Although they may have access to software that allows them to create newsletters, brochures, posters and Websites, they need training and experience to be able to design something that is attractive and informational.

PHILIPPINES

Manila, Philippines, April, 2003

One aspect of the 87th Annual Communication was certainly rare, if not unique, in that it was originally scheduled to meet in Davao City but, as reported in the Proceedings, "unfortunately only a few weeks before the convention terrorists exploded bombs in the airport and later in the wharf of Davao City killing scores of persons and injuring a greater number. President Gloria Macapagal declared Davao City to be 'in a state of lawless violence,' Because of the unexpected developments and fearing for the safety of the delegates, Grand Master Eugenio S. Labatoria issued Edict No. 219 on April 3, 2003, transferring the situs of the Annual Communication to Manila. The decision pained the brethren from Davao who saw all their efforts go to waste, but being true Masons, they accepted the decision of the Grand Master calmly and without rancour and extended whatever help they could to make the Annual Communication in Manila a success."

In his Annual Report M.W. Bro. Eugenio S. Labatoria stated that the new magazine, Cabletow had been successfully launched and three issues already were in print. Regarding a new Scholarship Fund, he reported: "We have received P1,002,000.00 for the Grand Master's projects from generous brethren. Of this amount P1000,000.00 was set aside in a bank for the M.W. Eugenio S. Labatoria Scholarship Fund to finance partially the cost of education of some deserving sons and daughters of worthy Masons. There were two sons and a daughter of worthy Masons who have availed of this programme." He added that, though some of the funds had been spent on other projects, whatever was left at the end of his term would go to the Scholarship Fund.

M.W. Bro. Labatoria spoke of a recent visit to Grand Lodges in Canada and the United States. "The brethren there, both past and present," he indicated, "have been and still are role models for citizenship and civilization. The contributions of Freemasonry to the national life of these countries flow out of the hallowed halls of the Craft, halls that vibrate with continuing programmes in Masonic education and leadership exposure. No wonder that the Craft was a dominant force during the birth of their nations and continues to play an important role in sustaining the spirit of their creation." In closing his report, he acknowledged the warmth of his reception in Canadian and United States Grand Lodges which he saw as manifestations of their love, affections and longing for their brethren in the Philippines.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Summerside, Prince Edward Island, June, 2004

M.W. Bro. J. Wayne Newson began his report by assuring his hearers that what they so appreciate in their own lodge is found in Freemasonry in every part of the world. "I wish," he said to them, "it was possible for every brother on Prince Edward Island to have the opportunity to travel to other jurisdictions and see the brotherly love, fellowship and friendship displayed and extended at their lodge meetings. I truly believe that it cannot be equalled in any other organization."

The Grand Master reported that all but one of the meetings of the Board of General Purposes had been open to all brothers. He announced, also, that in order to have better lodge historical records a committee had been formed "to meet with all lodge secretaries across the Island to get input and suggestions on how to come up with a uniform set of historic records being kept for future reference."

The Committee on Membership indicated in its Annual Report that it had "discussed the reasons for declining membership in Masonic Fraternities. It was agreed that this problem is not unique to Masonry as all service clubs and similar organizations seem to be experiencing it as well. There are several reasons for this, including the fact that both adults in the family usually work and often this is shift work. With children involved in sports and artistic programmes, it is difficult to find young men who will commit to joining another organization."

The Committee on Membership recognized that some lodges were not experiencing a loss in membership. It reported that, "We endeavoured to find out what factors contributed to lodges that have been successful in attracting new members. We found that the lodges that put on breakfasts, have fundraising events or contributed to local charities, etc. seem to be better able to increase membership."

QUEBEC

Montreal, Quebec, May, 2004

M.W. Bro. John E. Leide gave an account of the Conference of the Grand Masters of North America that he had attended in Washington, D.C. He reported that "the Conference formed a committee to promote the C.H.I.P. (Child Identification Programme) by Grand Lodges throughout North America. Several Jurisdictions, notably in the North Eastern United States, have already implemented programmes, some in conjunction with local dental associations, to provide parents with identity kits containing photographs, video, fingerprints and bite plates to aid in the timely recovery and identification of missing children. It is a programme worthy of our serious consideration as it addresses a real need in our increasingly troubled world and will give the Craft much needed visibility in our communities."

The Grand Master reminded the brethren that at a Special Communication of Grand Lodge the Grand Master's Ruling that an elected officer in one lodge should not hold an office in another lodge was rescinded. M.W. Bro. Leide announced the name of the recipient for the current year of the Grand Master's Tutor Pin. This pin is presented by the Grand Master "to a Brother who has dedicated himself to the furtherance of Masonic knowledge and encouraged the observance of our customs and usages. The Craft relies on dedicated Brethren who provide knowledge and guidance to members within our Fraternity, study Masonic history or deepen their knowledge of our ancient usages." The Grand Master remarked that, as his theme had been daily advancement in Masonic knowledge, he was particularly happy to present the Grand Master's Tutor Pin to a brother "for his exemplary service as District Education Officer of the Bedford District, active participant in the St. George's Study Club, and lecturer sans frontiers in the lodges of this Jurisdiction."

The Masonic Foundation of Quebec reported that during the year it had received more than $67,000.00 in charitable donations, to which the Foundation added some funds it had so that it was able to provide financial assistance amounting to $102,000.00 to various charities. The Foundation made a welcome announcement when it reported that it had been successful in its bid to be declared largely exempt from taxes assessed by the City of Montreal.

QUEENSLAND

Quarterly Communications

Brisbane, Queensland, Australia

March, June, September, December, 2004

An announcement was made at the Quarterly Communication in March by M.W. Bro. Alan H. Wright of a gift that would be made to the Nambour Hospital. Two members of Grand Lodge had been injured in an automobile accident and were taken to that hospital. The Grand Master indicated that in recognition of the outstanding attention they had received several brethren "contributed to a fund which has been matched by the Board of Benevolence and will result in the presentation of $10,000 worth of equipment needed in the intensive care unit at Nambour Hospital."

Speaking to the June Quarterly Communication at the close of his term as Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Wright said that, although he had not succeeded in achieving everything that he had hoped for, "we have some positives to our credit. Due to the efforts of literally thousands of Freemasons, and their wives, partners and families, the Leukaemia Foundation partnership had been an outstanding success. Not only did we achieve our target of $1.2 million, we exceeded it by $300,000. Far more importantly, however, we were able to use the partnership to go into communities to show ourselves as an organization which cares about others, and that we are prepared to give of our time in the interests of those less fortunate."

Following his installation in June, M.W. Bro. John A. Menzies stated that his principal goal as Grand Master was "to stem the wastage of new members who, for one reason or another, drift away. The younger generation has been taught to seek information and unfortunately we, the older generation, in the main are not able to fulfil this desire." To address this problem he appointed a "new-look Education Committee," to create a "meaning education" programme.

In his Address, in September, M.W. Bro. Menzies spoke of the responsibilities of a sponsor. "The sponsor's responsibilities," he said, "do not cease when the signature is applied to the application . . . they only begin. It is a privilege to sponsor a man into the Craft and, like a small child, he must be guided, assisted and taught the principles and tenets of our Craft. Remember, all members of a lodge have an obligation to extend the right hand of fellowship to new and inexperienced Masons but sponsors have a particular task to ensure that they are provided with guidance and support."

SASKATCHEWAN

Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, June 2004

In his Address M.W. Bro. Raymond C. Moffatt expressed the hope that his theme, The Face in the Mirror, had created an awareness in Saskatchewan Masonry of the need to be ever mindful of the public image of the Craft. "We need to be aware," he stressed, "of how we act in the public eye so that our actions will be received in a positive manner, which hopefully will encourage more interest in the Fraternity. Therefore this interest will encourage the general public's view that we are a worthy organization and will want to join us and become a contributing member of the organization."

The Lodge Development and Renewal Committee pointed out in its Report that there is a relationship between the financial health of a lodge and the level of activity involving its members. When dues and initiate's fees cover the operating costs with some capital left over, a lodge is more likely to undertake projects of interest to the members. The committee's view was that in such cases lodges normally "have fund raising events, such as special dinners, dances, bingos, etc. It follows that lodges engaged in these fund raising activities are able to keep their present members because they are active and involved. It also follows that through their increased visibility in their communities they are able to attract new members and thereby keep their lodges active, vibrant and full of life. Brethren, in these lodges they do not have any problem giving answers to the question, 'What do Masons do?' when it is asked of them."

The Youth Programmes Committee prefaced its report with the following summary of its mandate, as stated in the Grand Lodge Constitution:

- a) "Ensure the awarding and distribution of all scholarships and other prizes provided by, or administered through the Grand Lodge;
- b) "Encourage and assist the development and enhancement of the Order of DeMolay and the International Order of Job's Daughters within the Province of Saskatchewan;
- c) "Develop and endorse programmes for the consideration of the Board of General Purposes, which are designed to develop student leadership skills;

- d) "Encourage and assist lodges to undertake community youth programmes and projects which will be consistent with the intent of the 'Youth' philanthropy adopted by Grand Lodge."

SCOTLAND

Quarterly Communications and Annual Communication Edinburgh, Scotland

February, April, June, September, October, November, 2004

The Benevolence and Care Committee recommended at the April Quarterly Communication that Grand Lodge support the HIV-Aids Caregivers and Support Group. It was stipulated that the funds would be used "towards the cost of providing a support network for caregivers of people who are suffering from HIV and Aids, including the running of a respite caravan, the operation of a telephone helpline and the holding of seminars and information days." This was approved.

In reporting to the September Quarterly Communication, the Grand Committee included reports from Working Parties which it had established to investigate several issues, including family involvement. Various events and functions that might help to increase family involvement were proposed and it was agreed that these suggestions should be further developed as appropriate. The proposal of a Grand Lodge Divine Service was considered to have considerable merit and it was decided that it should be actively developed.

Also at the September Quarterly Communication a Report was received from the Trustees, which included an account of the Grand Lodge under the following headings: (a) Constitution; (b) Objectives; (c) Activities; (d) Future development and strategy; (e) Investment Policy. With regard to OBJECTIVES the report stated: "The Grand Lodge is committed to developing its charitable work which takes the form of providing benevolent assistance to eligible Freemasons, their widows and dependents and of the operation of care provision for older people by way of Residential Care, Day Care, Home Care and Respite Services." Its report on ACTIVITIES was: "During the last 14 months the Grand Lodge Resource Centre provision at Dunblane has been up-graded. This is the base for our Day-Care Services which varied during the period from 10 to 20 client placements per day, our Specialist Sensory Day-Care Provision and our outreach Provision. The centre also houses our Snoezelen room and our Respite Suite. At Bridge of Weir, our Day-Care Services have been expanded to include a 'pilot' Evening Care Provision, to which market response has been most positive. Our Reporting System to manage the grant-giving activities has been reviewed and additional information included to facilitate the role of Lodge Almoners and visiting brethren."

SOUTH CAROLINA

Spartanburg, South Carolina, April, 2004

In his Grand Master's Address, M.W. Bro. Jack A. Marler reported on the condition of the Craft in South Carolina and gave his explanation for its condition. "In my travels this year," he said, "I have found the overall attitude among the Craft to be very positive and I believe that Masonry is alive and well due to this positive outlook. Believe it or not, our attitude does affect those around us. Therefore, we must maintain a positive outlook as Masons towards God, our fellow man, our Craft in general and even ourselves. You have heard me say many times, Masonry is not good because it is old; it is old because it is good. So we today in 2004 must be positive thinkers, we must be faithful as our fathers were, so that those who come behind us can enjoy the Fraternity just as we have the privilege to do so."

Regarding the future prospects for Masonry, M.W. Bro. Marler had this to say: "Even though we have had another year of decline in membership, due mainly to N.P.D.'s, I believe that we are turning that corner, and I will remind us all again, as I have done so many times, this cancer that is eating us away is the responsibility of all, not just a few. Our concerns of membership should be more heavily placed in maintaining our present membership versus seeking new ways of attracting new members. Both are important, but I believe the former should be our primary focus."

"I am pleased to have had the opportunity," M.W. Bro. Marler said, "to continue sending letters of welcome and encouragement on the Grand Master's letterhead to those newly raised Master Masons of our Grand Jurisdiction. I mailed 290 such letters along with a Grand Master's calling card giving each brother an opportunity to contact me directly if they were to have a question or comment. I did receive some replies." He felt that these letters encouraged new members to be involved and participate in their lodge.

The Masonic Education Committee indicated its endorsement and encouragement of Outdoor and Early Morning Degree meetings: "These meetings generally result in brethren from various lodges and districts coming together for good fellowship at a meal and a degree. The usual good attendance and fellowship of brothers from other lodges impresses the candidates with our Fraternity."

SOUTH DAKOTA

Mitchell, South Dakota, June, 2003

M.W. Bro. Alvin T. Wahlert greeted his brethren with this Report of Conditions in South Dakota: "Masonry is alive and well and it will survive. We must realize that our Masonic ideals are our heritage and we must pass it on to other deserving men. If we don't, who will? Let us keep working to keep our fraternity alive and relevant."

The Grand Treasurer-Secretary addressed the question of membership. "The loss this year," he reported, "shows a .0059% drop in membership which is much less than the last three years of over 2%. We are going in the right direction but really must work on increasing members by more new Master Masons and by fewer Suspensions N.P.D. and Demits. Communication with brothers who are not paying their dues and/or requesting their demit is a must. They may have a different outlook on the Fraternity when they see that someone cares."

The Fraternal Correspondent listed the jurisdictions with which he had been in correspondence and reported, "The Masonic Model Student Assistance Programme had been adopted in two of these jurisdictions, as an effort to help the students and make Masonry more visible to the public."

The Report of the Youth Committee emphasized that the young people wanted to be accepted as partners of Masons and to work with them. The Committee stressed that for the Youth Groups money is not the primary priority, although it is nice to receive it to meet necessary expenses. "What they need," the committee told the members of Grand Lodge, "is your support. They need it for the Bethels, they need it for their Adult Leadership and they need it for you to attend their meetings."

TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tennessee, March, 2003

In his Annual Report, M.W. Bro. Joseph C. Harrison spoke of the various programmes that Grand Lodge had initiated in preparation for its bicentennial in 2013 and stated that lodges were seeing benefits already from them. One example was that Habitat for Humanity, with Masonic participation, had built a house in the Grand Master's home district. He pointed out that this project in the community "not only provided a house for a deserving family, but also secured several petitions for area lodges from non-Masons working with local Masons."

More information concerning the house-building project referred to by M.W. Bro. Harrison was given in the Report of The Vision 2013—Habitat for Humanity Partnership Task Force. This report gave an outline of the Task Force. It stated that the basic concept of the Masonic Habitat for Humanity partnership is that, since Masons often are operative builders in their community, the relationship is a natural one. There are several instances in Tennessee, besides those in the partnership with Habitat for Humanity, in which Masons are doing work projects, in the community. Usually these projects are repairs to homes of needy families, whether Mason or non-Mason.

Consideration was given to a proposal from the Jurisprudence Committee that "Any three Tennessee Master Masons who are on active deployment with United States military forces, the National Guard units or the military reserves, outside the boundaries of the fifty United States and its territories, may open (call) a 911 lodge for the purpose—only—of Masonic communication and fellowship in any properly tileable facility." In support of this proposal the following comment was offered: "Since many of our Tennessee Masons are members of the military, National Guard and Reserves, they are quite possibly going to be deployed into areas where there are no Masonic lodges. These men should not be deprived of Masonic fellowship because of their sacrifices for their nation." There was opposition to this proposal from the State of the Craft Committee. It observed that relations with other jurisdictions are based on promises not to have lodges meeting within the boundaries of their jurisdictions. The committee's opinion was, "It is not necessary to have a chartered and tiled lodge to engage in any of the activities proposed." Grand Lodge rejected the proposal.

VIRGINIA

Richmond, Virginia, November, 2003

M.W. Bro. Frederick G. Martin, III, began his Grand Master's Address by giving his understanding of the nature of leadership. "Success," he observed, "comes in many forms, but it comes quickly to those who walk in front of the line and move forward to accomplish the objectives of the Almighty and the helper of the helpless. The mantle of true leadership cannot be delegated or shared for the path you walk requires decisiveness and direction and not mutual consent." In commenting on the closure of a lodge M.W. Bro. Martin stated that it "reinforced the need to let our communities know about the Fraternity, to reach out and, above all, be positive. No one wants to come to any fraternity or organization that is not positive and active. Both of these are up to us to accomplish."

The Grand Master was optimistic concerning the State of the Craft in Virginia. He reported that in all regions of the State he met energized and enthusiastic members of lodges. "The positive comments I received," he said, "were not only encouraging, but also uplifting. You become more energized with positive approaches. The time for negativism to end is NOW! We, as a Fraternity, must be aggressive in our positive approach and this has been shown wherever I have been." He summed up his view of the State of the Craft in these words: "There is an energy in the Craft that says to me, 'We have turned the ship and now we must test our skill at picking up steam. A good sailor does not show his skill sitting in the harbour.'"

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence gave a report on a Visitation Compact with the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Virginia that is to govern inter-visitation by brethren from either Grand Lodge. The procedures set down in the Visitation Compact are "to facilitate and regulate inter-visitation and to assure that visitors will invariably adhere to the laws, rules, regulations and customs of their host lodges or jurisdictions."

The Committee on History reported that it had received completed histories of all lodges. It stated that it felt that "it will be too expensive to try to publish those histories in book form. After evaluation of the size of any publication and realizing that the Grand Lodge Proceedings are being furnished on compact disk, the committee is of the opinion that the compact disk offers the most cost effective method of providing these histories to the Craft."

WEST VIRGINIA

Clarksburg, West Virginia, October, 2004

Reporting on the State of the Craft, M.W. Bro. Robert M. Vincent stated that in general terms he found the Craft "to be working diligently toward improving the mode of operation in each Lodge."

The Board of Governors of the West Virginia Masonic Home stated in its Annual Report, "Our Masonic Home continues to be an excellent facility and in a fine state of repair. Situated on a bluff overlooking the Ohio River at Parkersburg, the stately home and grounds compose some 100 acres of prime real estate. Our Masonic Home was designed by the legendary Charleston architect H. Russ Warne and is considered a classic structure in West Virginia. This pristine setting was opened in 1924 and is a proud heritage of our ancient Craft. It is and continues to be our greatest charity."

Following his Installation as the Grand Master for the ensuing year, M.W. Bro. William R. French gave his brethren an indication of what he wanted them to accomplish under his leadership. "Our members and most certainly our candidates come to us seeking the light that Freemasonry can shed on their lives. We owe them the teaching and development they seek. Each of our lodges should be a place where we continue to grow in Masonic knowledge. To accomplish this, we must be willing to provide enlightenment on those evenings when degree work is not scheduled." He went further and made some specific recommendations concerning the agenda for meetings. While he recognized that most lodges plan their meetings well, he told them plainly that some lodges merely open, read the minutes, conduct the necessary business and then close. He declared bluntly, "This is not as it should be. If this occurs, we have lost an opportunity that can never be regained. We can 'Talk Masonry,' read the law book, have question and answer sessions or Masonic talks. This, without a doubt, would make a deep and lasting impression upon our minds. We must begin the process of renewing communication with members who attend and reach out to those who should."

R.W. Bro. James W. Daniel
Past Grand Secretary
United Grand Lodge of England
Guest Speaker at the
GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET
Friday, July 22, 2005

INTRODUCTION OF GUEST SPEAKER

BY M.W. BRO. DONALD H. MUMBY

My brethren,

This evening it is my good fortune to be able to introduce a man who is well known and highly regarded in Masonic circles throughout the world, R.W. Bro. James W. Daniel. He is the Past Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of England and was afforded the title of Honorary Past Grand Secretary of this Grand Lodge in 2001.

Born in St. Ives, Cornwall, United Kingdom, he received his Master of Arts Degree from Leeds University and entered her Majesty's Service, serving as a Cultural Officer and Department Head in Cambodia, Venezuela, Washington D.C., London, and finally on attachment with the foreign and commonwealth office.

Between 1989 and 1998 he served as the chief executive of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite for England and Wales and its districts overseas. He left that office to serve as the Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of England, retiring in 2002.

R.W. Bro. Daniel has held a number of civil positions, including Governor of Archbishop Tenison's School at the Oval in London, a trustee, director and company secretary of the Cornish not-for-profit organization "promoting effective parenting," a trustee and director of the Cornwall Heritage Trust and a trustee and director of the Bernard Leach Trust Limited.

From a Masonic perspective, you name it and he has done it. He was initiated in 1960 while under the age of 21 in the Apollo University Lodge No. 357, in Oxford, and has served as the Worshipful Master in four regular lodges in London, as the Worshipful Master of Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Research and as the Worshipful Master of one of the three remaining time immemorial lodges in London.

He has held the office of Grand Scribe Ezra in the Supreme Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; first Great Constable and Knight Commander of the Temple of the Knights Templar; Most Illustrious Grand Secretary General 33° and member of Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite for England and Wales; Grand Junior Warden in Mark and Royal Ark Mariner Masonry; Provincial Grand Master of the Province of the Cotswolds in the Royal Order of Scotland; Grand Senior General in the Red Cross of Constantine and Grand Lecturer in Royal and Select Masters.

He is a prolific writer, having authored at least eight articles that have been published within the United Kingdom.

Married with two adult children, his hobbies include sailing, reading music and travel.

My brethren, it is my great pleasure to present our Guest Speaker for the evening, R.W. Bro. Jim Daniel.

Grand Master,
 Distinguished Guests,
 Fellow Past and Honorary Past Grand Secretaries of this and other Grand Lodges,
 Brethren,

Little did I realise when I had the honour of addressing the Grand Master's Banquet in Toronto in 2001 that I would be back here as your guest once again and quite so quickly.

In 2001 I was still the Grand Secretary of the UGLE and, in my report to its Board of General Purposes, I recommended that the Grand Master, HRH The Duke of Kent, or his representative, should attend this Grand Lodge's sesquicentennial celebrations in 2005. In the event, however, HRH was not able to travel to Canada at this time, and I was surprised and honoured to be asked to represent him here this week. As one of our Royal Arch rituals has it, 'the lot, Most Excellent, fell on me.' You may yourselves be equally surprised to learn that James Daniell [sic] was already a prominent Mason when this Grand Lodge of Canada was established in 1855 – but of that more later.

Four years ago, when I spoke to you (somewhat off the cuff, I seem to remember) on the theme of 'Freemasonry today and tomorrow: back to basics,' I also touched briefly on your early history. This Grand Lodge then kindly made me an Honorary Past Grand Secretary – and I am pleased to see several other members of the Past Grand Secs Club here today.

Since retiring in 2002 I have become a student again and have begun research for a PhD. This has led me to me look more closely at the early history of this Grand Lodge and the events surrounding its formation. This evening we celebrate this Grand Lodge's 150 years of independent and continuous existence, and its pride of place as the senior Grand Lodge, after England, Ireland and Scotland, in the Commonwealth. I hope therefore that you will not mind if I first try to rekindle your interest in the early years of this Grand Lodge by bringing to your attention a few of the individuals involved with its formation and its eventual recognition by the UGLE, and by correcting a historical statement made about relations between this Grand Lodge and the UGLE. I shall then with your help look at our two Grand Lodges today and consider our future.

[That is what I wrote before I discovered after my arrival here two days ago that you had commissioned the talented young playwright Paul Ciufo to put some of the early history on stage yesterday. For a non-Mason I thought he did exceptionally well to come to terms as quickly as he did with the origin of this Grand Lodge and, more remarkably, with the spirit of Freemasonry throughout the ages. I salute him, and those who acted in his play 'Then and Now' for making history alive and relevant.]

One of your predecessors, sir, as Grand Master, namely MW Bro Richard T Walkem QC, stated, when he attended a Grand Lodge meeting in London, England, in June 1890 (the first GM of this Grand Lodge so to do, I believe) that when the 41 English, Irish and Scots Lodges 'met at Ontario, and declared their independence and erected a Grand Lodge of Canada ... The course they adopted was fully acquiesced in ... by the Grand Lodge of England...' Such was definitely not the case. Nor have I been able to find any evidence that the establishment of the Grand Lodge of Canada had any backers in England until some time after its foundation. Let me try to paint some of the background for you and try to explain why in the end it took three years for the UGLE to recognise the Grand Lodge of Canada.

In 1853 the then Grand Master of the UGLE, Lord Zetland, had refused even to answer the petition from the Province of Canada West to elect its Provincial Grand Masters or to respond to its hopes that in due course 'the whole Craft in the province would be united in one harmonious body' and that an independent Grand Lodge would then be formed. Zetland did not publicly admit his inaction until the Quarterly Communication of the UGLE in June 1856, when, under pressure, he explained that (in his view) the petition was 'opposed to the principles upon which their order was founded' in that 'the proposed alteration would have detracted from the prerogative of the Grand Master' which he was bound by his obligation not to do. It was therefore not at all surprising that when this Grand Lodge sought the UGLE's recognition soon after it had been established, Lord Zetland declared that 'it would be impossible for him to allow a petition' on behalf of the 'self-constituted Grand Lodge of Canada' even to be entertained by Grand Lodge and he referred to the new body as 'rebels.'

The loss of Provincial Lodges in the USA and the formation there of independent State Grand Lodges consequent upon the American Revolution was still remembered by some and regretted by many in the English Grand Lodge. The Craft in England had only recently been united. Never before had 'English' Masons in a British colony broken away from their mother Grand Lodge and expected it to accept their masonic independence and to permit intervisitation with them – and Zetland and his advisers were initially determined not to participate in the creation of a potentially dangerous precedent. For them and, I suspect, most of the UGLE's members around the world, fragmentation had to be avoided and the supremacy and unity of the UGLE maintained.

As you probably know, the United Grand Lodge of England was not formed until 1813, when two Royal Brothers, the Dukes of Sussex and Kent, Grand Masters respectively of the Grand Lodge of England and of the Antient Grand Lodge which had broken away from the original Grand Lodge in 1753, unified the two bodies. That Duke of Kent had previously come to Canada from Gibraltar with the British Army and, while here, he served as the Antient's Provincial Grand Master for Lower Canada from 1791 to 1800 – apparently while he was still the original Grand Lodge's Provincial Grand Master for Gibraltar. While in Canada¹ he saw how detrimental it was for the Craft as a whole that there were two opposing English Constitutions in the same territory, and this Canadian experience probably strengthened his determination to help unite the two Grand Lodges when he got back to England. So you can rightly claim that Canada – or at least a Past Provincial Grand Master for Lower Canada – bears some responsibility for the creation of the UGLE in 1813.

On the other hand, it was the Provincial Grand Master for the Provinces of Durham and Northumberland, England, and a former Deputy Grand Master of the UGLE, the 1st Earl of Durham, who, after resigning as Governor General and Captain General of Canada in 1838, wrote what soon became known as 'the Durham Report' in which he recommended the union of Upper and Lower Canada and 'a system of responsible government [such] as would give the people a real control over its own destinies.' As all good Canadians know, I am sure, the union was effected in 1841, and by 1856 most of the Canadian colonies had indeed been granted 'responsible self-government' and 'left to their own devices in matters of internal administration.'²

Unfortunately for the 'English' Freemasons in Canada there had been so much advance in masonic governance. They had good reason to complain of the way in which the Craft had fallen behind the improvements 'which marked every other branch of social and political economy of this noble country' and of how they had been treated by the UGLE. Attempting to summarise and to explain to the UGLE why the independent Grand Lodge of Canada had been formed, its first Grand Master, MW Bro Colonel William Mercer Wilson, (whom I much enjoyed seeing represented in the play yesterday) told London that the Craft's problems in Canada resulted not just from having to pay dues to London while having to bear the cost of a Provincial Grand Lodge and bail out Masons emigrating to Canada from Britain but also from

'... the want of harmony in action and working, resulting from the growth in the province of Lodges hailing from the Grand Lodges of different countries [ie Ireland and Scotland] thus perpetuating local and national feelings and prejudices and conflicting interests...'; from delays in communication amounting to 'a neglect highly discourteous'; and from the appointment of Provincial Grand Masters.

'without reference to the opinions of the Fraternity in Canada ... although they would naturally be the best informed on the subject and most deeply interested in the result.'

Pushed to breaking point, and without any response from London – and possibly with one eye on the success enjoyed by the independent American State Grand Lodges south of the Canadian border – 15 of the 50 English Lodges in the English Province of Canada West, 10 English Lodges from the English Province of Canada East, one Scottish Lodge from Quebec and 15 from the Irish Constitution in Canada – that is to say 41 Lodges in all or two-thirds of all the British Lodges in Canada, had voted to form the Grand Lodge of Canada on 10 October 1855. The USA connection was exemplified³ when Grand Master Wilson was installed on 2 November 1855 by Past Grand Master Backus of the Grand Lodge of the State of Michigan – and how appropriate it is that the present Grand Master of Michigan is with us here tonight. Once installed, Wilson appointed my namesake, Bro James Daniell [sic], as his Junior Warden. (I noted with disappointment that RW Bro Daniell did not have a speaking part in Mr Ciufo's play – but perhaps the author knew that I would make up for that tonight.)

Through the masonic press of the time, news of the 'defection' of Lodges in Canada gradually reached some of the younger and/or more critical members of the 'mother Grand Lodge' in London, the UGLE, such as the Rev George Portal and WWB Beach. It strengthened their view that the UGLE had fallen into the hands of an incompetent and colonially-insensitive clique, headed by a rarely visible Grand Master, Lord Zetland. The February 1856 edition of The Freemasons Magazine and Masonic Mirror reproduced an article that had appeared in the New York Masonic Messenger of 15 December 1855 in which the establishment of the independent Grand Lodge was reported and the journalist added, by way of commentary:

'For our part, we cannot see what benefit England derives from a Provincial Body three thousand miles distant; and we think it would redound to her credit to yield up the truncheon where she cannot compel obedience. We certainly would have felt more pleased if the Canadians, after setting forth their grievances, had requested the Grand Lodges to absolve them from their obligations, and assist them in forming a government suitable to their wants ... and yet, we hope the Grand Lodge of England will make a virtue of necessity, and imitate the father whose favorite [sic] daughter clandestinely married a man of her choice, for fear she might be refused on asking — give them a scolding for their precipitation, a blessing and good advice for their future life...'

The same edition of the English magazine carried a letter from Portal which he had written the previous month and in which he succinctly stated:

'The recent defection of Canada from the jurisdiction of the GL of England is a matter upon which the Craft has a right to the fullest explanation. One of two things is certain; either there has been a most unmasonic precipitation on the part of the Canadians, or else the most culpable neglect and dereliction of duty on the part of the authorities of GL.'

Portal (then 29) and Beach (then 30), both of whom had been initiated as undergraduates in the Apollo University Lodge, Oxford, had recently been the leaders of a group of Oxford graduates who had taken over the Westminster and Keystone Lodge in London with a view to turning it into a masonic base in London in which those of like mind and background could concert their criticism of Grand Lodge and from which they could campaign to get the right men into the right places in Grand Lodge. Portal was a gifted orator, having been President of the Oxford Union and was already a well-known and published Anglican priest. He seems to have had no personal connection with Canada or any reason to take up cudgels on behalf of 'English' masons there except for the fact that their maltreatment by 'the dais' in the UGLE provided him with a rod with which to beat the executive's back. Persuasive as Portal was, and influential as Beach could be (he was elected to Parliament in 1857 and did not retire from it until his death in 1901, by which time he had become a Privy Counsellor and the Father of the House of Commons), what became known as 'the Oxford Party' had so far lacked a charismatic leader of sufficiently high social standing to challenge Lord Zetland.

However, in March 1855 a young nobleman, the 23 year old 4th Earl of Carnarvon, had demonstrated in one of his early speeches in the House of Lords that he was not only well versed in Canadian affairs but keen to support the laudable efforts of the Canadian colonies to develop themselves within the framework of responsible self-government and to render what assistance they could to the mother country in the Crimean War, now into its second year. In that speech Carnarvon asked:

'whether it be the intention of Her Majesty's Government to propose a vote of thanks or some other public acknowledgment to those colonies or dependencies of the British Crown who ... have evinced their sympathy with the mother country by moral or pecuniary proffers of assistance?'

He particularly mentioned 'the peculiar strength of the feelings manifested by the Canadians on this occasion' and their donation of £20,000 to the 'Patriotic Fund,' set up 'for the relief of the widows and orphans of the soldiers, sailors and marines who may fall in battle, or by other casualties during the war.' In his opinion:

'Such a vote would tend to strengthen the attachment to the mother country which exists in the Colonies, and which it is so important to maintain unimpaired at the present crisis, when we are only at the commencement of a possibly long contest ...'

A reporter of the Toronto Daily Colonist who attended the House of Lords that day was much impressed by this 'young nobleman of very prepossessing and intellectual appearance' and 'surprised at his intimate acquaintance with our doings.' He suggested that 'Lord Carnarvon ... is likely to reflect lustre upon his order.'

Carnarvon, of Highclere Castle and with a first class degree from Oxford, was a friend and neighbour of both the Rev George Portal and WWB Beach. I have no doubt that they spotted his potential and were responsible for his initiation into Freemasonry in their Westminster and Keystone Lodge in February 1856. They and their friends ensured that Carnarvon was made a Warden only three months later, thereby entitling him to attend and speak in Grand Lodge. A Special Meeting of Grand Lodge was held on 1 October 1856 to complete the business of the September Quarterly Communication when Grand Lodge had not had time to vote on the proposal to refer all colonial correspondence to a Colonial Board (thereby bypassing the normal channels and ensuring, it was hoped, better and faster communications) or to consider GM Zetland's belated response to Canada West's petition about the appointment of Provincial Grand Masters. Carnarvon spoke at some length and with considerable success on the Canadian question and set out broad principles he wanted to see adopted 'in our colonial policy.'

While Carnarvon deplored the precipitancy of those in Canada who had already seceded from the UGLE's jurisdiction and joined the independent Grand Lodge of Canada, he showed his sympathy for them when he asked his audience 'Do you wonder that such neglect ripened into bitter fruit the seeds of discontent which had been sown?' He praised those who had remained faithful to England 'despite the glitter and temptations of a species of independency and false ambition' but he did not approve of Canada West's request 'for the free and absolute right of electing their ProvGM' as it would 'lead to alienation.' Instead he favoured Portal's proposal that the remaining 'English' Lodges in Canada should elect two candidates from which the Grand Master of the UGLE would select one as Provincial Grand Master. Carnarvon hoped that by granting 'further independence or self-government' in this way the UGLE would yet stem the haemorrhage. In his view, 'The great secret of government is, that the main body shall only attempt those duties which it is competent to perform.' He believed in 'the necessity of maintaining the due dependence and allegiance of the Canadian Lodges to the Grand Lodge of England.' He wished 'to see the Grand Lodge the fountain of appeal – the sole arbiter ... but I would utterly surrender to the ProvGL all the minutiae of local business...' Carnarvon therefore moved that the GM's proposed response to the Canada West's petition be referred to the Colonial Board to consider, and 'that the Grand Lodge considers that no scheme will be satisfactory which fails to approve of the Colonial Brethren having a voice in the appointment of the ProvGM....'

Portal, Carnarvon, Beach and others also spoke about the Canadian question at meetings of private Lodges and used the Masonic press to highlight the danger that because of maladministration in London the remaining English Lodges in Canada West might also secede. In Grand Lodge Portal warned that unless something were done promptly the Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada West would secede as a body and form another independent Grand Lodge. (When someone cried 'So much the better!' Portal replied that it would be so much the worse, because in his view the GL of England 'should continue to exercise supreme power throughout the dominions.') In a speech to a meeting in Bath, reported at length in the local newspapers, Carnarvon said that 'Following closely in the wake of Colonisation, wherever the hut of the settler has been built, or the flag of conquest waved, there Masonry has soon an equal dominion. In Canada, the noblest possession of the British Crown, it has reflected – and I will not stop here to inquire how much it has consolidated – the English Empire. Alas, that I should say that this "has been" the case, and is so no more! And yet it must be said, that Canada, the brightest jewel in our tiara, the fairest flower in our wreath, is in danger of falling to the ground.'⁴

At last aware of the justification of many of the Canadian complaints, Zetland wrote to the Canadian Provinces in March 1857 offering 'to consider the propriety of appointing as Provincial Grand Master of Canada West any Brother whom they shall report to me as most acceptable to themselves,' but this concession was already too little and too late: Beach went or was possibly sent to Canada on a fact-finding mission at about the same time. Back in London, on 5 May 1857 Beach wrote to Zetland that when he visited Toronto he found that although the remaining English Lodges there 'appeared to be very desirous of maintaining their allegiance to the Grand Lodge of England if such could be done without injury to Canadian Masons,' the concessions were now too late;

'the Independent body had gained such strength, that it was now impossible to resist them ... The greatest friends were debarred from Masonic intercourse ... Nothing could restore the happiness of the Provinces [sic] that failed to unite the whole of the Freemasons in Canada. The independent movement might have been checked, but several causes rendered it now impossible. The Grand Lodge of Ireland, on being applied to for recognition of the Independent Body as a Grand Lodge, wrote to the Grand Lodge of England for advice on the subject. Unfortunately no answer was received. The Grand Lodge of Ireland proceeded to recognize the Independent Body ... It is almost needless to say that this had greatly added to the difficulties...In short, nothing short of Independence would suffice for the present emergency...'

Beach hoped that if the UGLE permitted the English Province of Canada West to form a Grand Lodge the Independent body established in 1855 would agree 'to join them, and to elect a Grand Master, and that they would then recognize the Grand Lodge of England as their Court of Appeal ...'

Lord Zetland referred Beach's letter and other relevant papers to the Colonial Board for consideration at the Quarterly Communication in June 1857, having already frankly confessed to Grand Lodge that he 'was not acquainted with the whole state of affairs relating to Canada West when [he] addressed Grand Lodge on a former occasion.' He may have hoped that this apology, his acceptance of the need for a Colonial Board, the concessions he had already outlined to Canada West and his appointment of Lord Panmure as his Deputy Grand Master would have been enough to halt Canada West's moves towards independence. After all, Panmure had been initiated in Quebec Lodge in 1828 while serving in British North America for twelve years with the 79th Highlanders and had declared that he therefore had 'a deeper interest than perhaps any Brother present [in Grand Lodge] in seeing peace restored between the Canadian Lodges and this Grand Lodge.'

But it was all too late. On 30 June 1875 the English Province of Canada West rescinded its ruling against Masonic intercourse with the independent Grand Lodge of Canada and itself voted for independence with a view to eventual union with that body. According to the report of the meeting printed in The Freemasons' Magazine of 1 August 1857:

'The sentiment was uttered by many, "England, with all thy faults, I love thee still!", but, as Canadians, they could not forget that they must love Canada better.'

There could hardly be a better expression of Canadian feeling towards the mother country as the future Dominion and later member of the Commonwealth began to develop its identity as a nation at that time.

The same edition reported Carnarvon's notice of motion for the meeting of Grand Lodge the following month:

'That Grand Lodge laments the present position of affairs in Canada.

'That Grand Lodge, whilst it admires the loyalty and Masonic feeling so long evinced by the Provincial Grand Lodge, under circumstances of peculiar trial and provocation, deeply regrets that they should have thought it necessary to withdraw from the authority of the Grand Lodge of England and to violate the unity of English Freemasonry.

'That Grand Lodge, taking into consideration the peculiar circumstances of the case, is of opinion that the interests of Freemasonry will be best served by a ready and generous recognition of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada as an independent body...'⁵

The Province voted to constitute itself into the second Canadian Grand Lodge on 10 September 1857 and the next day the Provincial Grand Master, Sir Allan MacNab (whom we also saw in the play yesterday) was installed as its first Grand Master.

What happened next in Canada I am sure you are well aware: with the assistance of the Deputy Grand Master of Kentucky and the Grand Master of Vermont the two Canadian Grand Lodges were eventually reconciled and their union was sealed in Toronto on 14 July 1858. The official notification of the union did not, however, reach the UGLE until 30 November 1858, but the very next day, apparently in a rush to compensate for the delays of previous years, or as Lord Zetland put it 'bis dat quis cito dat,' his proposal to recognise the Grand Lodge of Canada West was accepted. Both Portal and Carnarvon had argued that Grand Lodge should have more time to consider the matter in detail, Portal pointing out that 'there was a great deal of difference between habitually travelling by a goods train and embarking all at once on a runaway engine' - but they were overruled. Yet they were right, for while this Grand Lodge accepted the UGLE's recognition it had to point out that it was not the Grand Lodge of Canada West but the Grand Lodge of Canada.

So I hope you will now agree with me that MW Bro Walkem was inadvertently misstating the facts when he claimed that the formation of the Grand Lodge of Canada 'was fully acquiesced in ... by the Grand Lodge of England...' (I am sure that you will also agree with me that since at least 1890 the relations between the UGLE and the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario have been excellent, and that both Grand Lodges should do what they can to maintain the links that a common heritage and shared ideals afford them.)

Such was the commotion that Portal stirred up in England over the Canadian question between 1855 and 1858 that he did not receive Grand Rank in the English Craft until 1885, by which time he was a Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons, and the first Grand Master of the Royal and Select Masters and of the Allied Masonic Degrees. I am not aware that he evinced any further interest in the Craft in Canada after 1858, but the Canadian question had prompted him to challenge the powers that be and, I suspect, to turn his energies to Mark Grand Lodge which was established in London in 1856. Of that Grand Lodge he, Carnarvon and Beach became Grand Masters and attempted to demonstrate to the English Craft how a Grand Lodge should be run. Once again, the Canadian connection had influenced the way in which Freemasonry developed in the mother country and indeed throughout the British Empire.

Unlike Portal, Carnarvon kept up and increased his interest in Canada. As the Colonial Secretary in Derby's Cabinet in 1867 it fell to him to steer through the House of Lords the Bill for the Confederation of the British North American Provinces, which paved the way for Canada's new status as a Dominion within the British Empire.⁶ During the negotiations that led up to that Act Carnarvon learnt to appreciate the character and ability of Sir John Alexander Macdonald, and struck up a friendship with him that lasted until Carnarvon's death in 1890. (You will recall that we also met Macdonald yesterday when he spoke to us from his own coffin in 1891.) Macdonald was not only 'regarded as the organiser of the dominion of Canada' and the chairman of the London colonial conference when the British North America Confederation Bill passed into law, but, as I sure you know, a Freemason under the English Constitution in Canada, having been initiated in St John's Lodge in 1844. Zetland made Sir John Macdonald, by then the first Prime Minister of Canada, a Past Senior Grand Warden in 1868 and appointed him as the UGLE's representative at this Grand Lodge, and you in turn also made him a Past Senior Grand Warden of this Constitution.

Carnarvon and Macdonald shared the same view of the future of the Empire, which Macdonald had earlier formulated as 'an alliance of equal and autonomous states linked together by a common sovereign.'⁷ This formula provided the solution to the 'Britannic problem' which Carnarvon defined in 1870 'as being to preserve on the one hand the self-government of the colonies and on the other to add to it a more real connection.' However, although I do not doubt that the sovereign's health continued to be drunk in the Lodges under the unified Grand Lodge of Canada, the formal connection with English Grand Lodge had been severed for ever. A Grand Lodge acknowledges no higher Masonic authority than its own, and the Grand Lodge of Canada was from the moment of its creation an independent body. Indeed, when Carnarvon - by then the Prince of Wales' Pro Grand Master - visited Canada, including Toronto, in September 1883

the Grand Lodge of Canada does not seem to have invited him to attend the laying of the foundation stone of the new Masonic Hall at Parkdale⁸, Toronto, on 6 September. And Carnarvon restricted his Masonic visits in Canada to the Carnarvon Royal Arch Chapter in Montreal – by then under the independent Quebec masonic authority – and to a morning meeting with members of the three remaining English Constitution Lodges in Montreal. In fact, the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario fell out with the UGLE that year when it accused the UGLE of invading its territory by permitting St George Lodge No. 440 in Montreal (still under the English Constitution) to initiate a man who had been rejected by a Toronto lodge. This, together with his initial disapproval of the formation of the Grand Lodge of Canada, probably explains Carnarvon's diary entry that he 'did not enter into any of the past controversies.'⁹

While in Ottawa Carnarvon stayed with his friend Sir John Macdonald, but Macdonald was unable at the last moment to accompany Lady Macdonald to the grand public banquet given in Carnarvon's honour in Montreal on 19 September. There *The Gazette*¹⁰ had welcomed Carnarvon with the words 'No English nobleman will be more welcome to Canada than Lord Carnarvon' and at the banquet Sir Francis Hinks acknowledged 'with gratitude the services of the statesman who was the chief instrument in obtaining the sanction of the Imperial Parliament' for the Canadian Confederation in 1867. In reply Carnarvon said that he regarded the British North American Confederation Act 'as the greatest pride of my public life.' He foreshadowed President Kennedy's words at the Berlin Wall with the words 'I came here half a Canadian at heart, and now I am entire Canadian.'

The Canadian High Commission in London still occupies Macdonald House, and the Carnarvons still live in Highclere Castle. But in the history of this Grand Lodge's first 100 years by Foley and Herrington there is hardly a mention of Macdonald, surely one of the most eminent Canadian Freemasons – let alone of your first Junior Grand Warden, one James Daniell. I wonder what our successors will write about our Grand Lodges in fifty years time. I am prompted to ask that by two things which cropped up last week which in turn reminded me of a conversation I had in the capital of Togo a few years ago.

The first was a story circulating in a Masonic meeting I attended last Saturday. An acquaintance of mine, a Christian and a respected member of his local community and church, asked a local vicar whether the Freemasons might hold their annual church service in her church. She replied: 'We only let Christians use our church.' I am told that he replied that he apologised for having left his horns and forked tail at home that day.

Then, just before I left for Canada, my wife – whom I left on grandmotherly duty in Cornwall and who very much regrets not being here – showed me an article from a recent edition of an English daily newspaper, The Guardian,¹¹ in which the writer, slightly tongue in cheek – unlike the vicar – defined 'silliness' as 'what you have if you don't have common sense' and then claimed that 'The human being, once all its basic needs have been met, aspires to spirituality or descends into silliness. There is a middle way between silliness and religion: this is known as freemasonry.'

And in Togo I asked a university professor and wife of the local worthy I had just installed in a Masonic chair what she thought of her husband's Masonic activities. Amazed that I had even raised the subject with her, she replied that she was not even allowed to touch his gloves.

Would I be right in thinking that similar ignorance, intolerance and confusion exists in Canada? Ignorance and confusion we can still hope to overcome with reasoned arguments, good communications, and, above all, by telling people that we are Masons and proud of it, and then letting our public and private lives speak for themselves. We are all ambassadors for Freemasonry. Each one of us must do more to make Freemasonry better understood and appreciated by those we live and work with. We cannot expect anyone else to do this for us.

But wilful ignorance, intolerance and prejudicial discrimination against Freemasonry when exercised by influential and vocal members of public institutions is more difficult to overcome, as the German Freemasons in Hitler's time, the Spanish Freemasons during Franco's regime, and Eastern European Freemasons under communist dictatorships discovered, often at the cost of their lives. As some of you are aware, we in England have decided that enough is enough, and where no other course has remained open to us we have had to threaten such bodies as the Ministry of Defence and the Welsh Assembly with action under the European Human Rights Act. In these, and other similar instances, we have been successful in having the overtly discriminatory instructions, standing orders and the like removed or re-written – but I doubt if we have yet persuaded those who had them introduced in the first place that it is incompatible for a member of

we are facing deep-seated if irrational beliefs about Freemasonry - or, more cynically, the use of Freemasonry as a whipping-boy or convenient incarnation of the devil himself. I do not know if this Grand Lodge has developed a strategy for dealing with this, or how successful the UGLE will be seen to have been in its dialogue with, for example, the Church of England - but do you not agree with me that in today's world, where interfaith communications have become ever more essential, Freemasonry, which is open to all men of faith who believe in a Supreme Being, should be valued rather than vilified by those who truly want peace in a multicultural world?

But let us also briefly compare notes on more mundane things such as membership, meetings and costs. Is your membership still declining? As it happens, we in England seem to have begun to stabilise at about 280,000 members and 8,500 Lodges - fewer than immediately after the Second World War, but still enough to make us one of the largest voluntary organisations in England and larger than the paid-up membership of any of the political parties at Westminster. Recently there has even been a slight growth in the number of initiates, and we are trying hard to do better at retaining Master Masons and, indeed, Past Masters. Is the scene similar here? Several reforms have been suggested and introduced, including candidate-mentoring, shorter meetings at more appropriate times, and even fewer meetings where the flow of candidates or the other 'work' does not merit meeting every month. (Most of my London Lodges meet only four times a year, for example.) Our Lodges have become smaller again, and the average age of an entrant is about 45. I suspect, though I do not have the statistics to prove it, that the average age of our members has risen as the life-expectancy of men has increased. 'Daylight Lodges' are being introduced for those who cannot or prefer not to go out at night - is that happening here? We still raise amazing amounts from our members - not from the general public - for Masonic and non-Masonic charities. We still hear the old charge that 'the Masons only look after themselves' from some individuals and from some quarters, but by raising our profile through such activities as a nation-wide 'Freemasonry in the Community' week we hope that we are educating those who are willing to be educated about our charitable work.

But all is not rosy in the English garden. Although 'good practice' is to change the executive officers of a Lodge every five years or so it seems to be becoming increasingly difficult to find volunteers prepared to take on the essential tasks of Secretary, Treasurer, Almoner, Charity Steward and - of course - Director of Ceremonies. There also seems to be a tendency towards 'rank drift': the proportion of chiefs to indians appears to grow as the size of the organisation declines. We are facing some difficult financial problems. In real terms, dues, fees and subscriptions in England are cheaper today than even 45 years ago when I became a Mason, and we suspect that some potential candidates see the Craft as cheap and therefore of not much value. On the other hand, we are an organisation that still needs to attract younger men (just when they have their lowest income) and to retain members who in retirement are no longer as well off as they were in their heyday. Yet we still charge the same dues, fees and subscriptions whatever the age of the member. Should we reconsider this and introduce a scale of charges? Or in other words, would the middle-aged membership be willing to subsidise the others? Has that question been asked and answered here? The costs of maintaining our Masonic Halls are also rising and have to be met from somewhere. In England, certainly until recently, we lived off the fat of our fathers, neglecting to reinvest in the often splendid buildings that they erected for our Masonic activities, and forgetting that these are often the only permanent public face of the Craft. I do not have the answer to these conundrums but I know that all of us here today, and our Brethren around the world, have to think and work very hard to ensure that Freemasonry remains an enjoyable and valuable activity in today's world.

For what it is worth, I am not one of those who will risk throwing the baby out with the bathwater. Today's generation are but the trustees of a tradition that has always been able to adapt itself to changing times without diluting its essence. I therefore accept Lord Carnarvon's view that 'the law of all individual and political life is this, that there must be constant progress, but orderly, harmonious progress.' Or, as a rising statesman in the 1850s put it, 'Reform, to be efficient, must partake of the nature of conservatism.' I am not aware that one-day classes, in which hundreds of men are initiated, passed and raised at a time, have materially improved the active membership of the Craft where this experiment has been conducted. Nor do I believe that 'modernising' the language of our rituals will prove worthwhile, or that the younger men of today are unable to learn our ceremonies by heart. But I am absolutely certain that the way to lose members is to have a Lodge dominated by a tyrannical Director of Ceremonies, a Lodge Committee without representatives of the younger members, no occasions when wives and partners can socialise with Lodge members, Secretaries and Treasurers who are no longer up to the job, and divisions between the generations and ranks in a Lodge. Worse still, Lodges whose recruitment policy is quite simply to have one or more candidates for every meeting – whatever their aptitude for membership. Quantity is not the answer, Brethren, but quality is. That some Lodges die, and new ones are formed, is and always has been a fact of masonic life. It is one of the Craft's ways of adapting to circumstances. If, because of the pressures and other demands of modern life, and despite doing everything we can to keep the Craft attractive and relevant, we end up with fewer members and smaller Lodges, so be it. Far better to have a small valuable jewel that we can wear with pride than a safe full of paste.

I suspect that I have already spoken for too long. None of you has acted like the student who got up to leave the room during one of his professor's lectures and, on being asked by the professor why he was leaving, replied that he was going for a haircut. The professor said that he should have had one before – but the student replied that when the lecture started he hadn't needed one. I hope I have rekindled your interest in the early history of this Grand Lodge on the occasion of its sesquicentenary and shown you that we share not only a common heritage but are faced with similar problems and opportunities. I thank you, sir, for your kind invitation. On behalf of the UGLE I greet you all. I congratulate you on behalf of my Grand Master, HRH the Duke of Kent, and I hope that when you celebrate your bicentenary there will be another equally happy James Daniel – with one or two ells – to join in the occasion.

DEPUTY GRAND MASTER'S THANKS TO R.W. Bro. JAMES W. DANIEL

M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, Grand Master; Distinguished Head Table Guests, Recipients of the William Mercer Wilson Medal, Reverend Sirs, My Brethren all:

On July 18, 2001, the brethren of this Grand Lodge had the pleasure of listening to our Guest Speaker at our annual Grand Master's Banquet, on an evening such as this.

He was described by our Grand Master of the day – the late M.W. Bro. Robert J. McKibbin – as one of the three world renowned Masonic Leaders. That evening, the topic of discussion was "The Future of the Craft: Back to Basics."

A most timely topic for that period as we prepared to meet the challenges of the day.

R.W. Bro. James Daniel, what a pleasure it is to welcome you back to our Grand Lodge.

During the Installation Ceremony, when we appoint a Lodge Historian, we charge him to record the events of the day, so the brethren of the future may know and appreciate the past.

Bro. Daniel, your presentation this evening has been most timely. You have been most informative, as you have helped us understand "just a wee bit better" about our Grand Lodge history . . . from Then to Now.

I know the Masons throughout the room unite with me when I ask you to accept my sincere "thanks" for a most enjoyable, witty, interesting and thought-provoking presentation.

R.W. Bro. Daniel, on behalf of the brethren who have joined with us here tonight, I would like to wish you and your Lady, Jennifer, good health, safe travels, and may the Great Architect of the Universe continue to be your guide.

My brethren, would you please join with me in thanking our friend, R.W. Bro. James Daniel.

Gary L. Atkinson

SUMMARY REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS 2004 – 2005

ALGOMA DISTRICT – 11 LODGES

R.W. BRO. PETER H. BREITSPRECHER

Masonry in Algoma District has indeed been exciting and progressive in 2004 and 2005. Exciting, because the Masonic Community in Algoma District so generously and so enthusiastically supported the District Charitable project for cancer stricken children, "Camp Quality"; exciting because so many Masons, from all the various lodges, worked so energetically and so harmoniously together to host the 150 year celebrations being held in Thunder Bay.

Algoma District consists of 10 lodges. There are six lodges within the boundaries of the City of Thunder Bay there are four small town lodges within a 350 mile radius of some of the most beautiful country in Ontario. Our small town lodges collectively face the same challenges concerning membership and activity; however, to date they unanimously resolved to maintain a Masonic presence in these small communities. To this end, some of the city lodges have made significant contributions of personal presence to assist in the activities of these lodges, which may need to be continued in the short run.

Within the City of Thunder Bay, the members of Lakehead Lodge No. 709 chose to surrender their charter. The consequence of their decision was that many of the City lodges were strengthened through affiliation and talent.

On the whole, almost all the lodges in the district maintain an active involvement in the social fabric of their communities. The government of the lodges universally has taken on a younger, more enthusiastic and energetic face. Youth and energy has contributed in the very large part to the growth in lodge memberships and a more active social force within and without the lodge.

Masonry in Algoma District is well equipped to meet the challenges of the Craft in a positive, enthusiastic and supportive environment and there is absolutely no doubt that growth and harmonious association will be the result.

ALGOMA EAST – 8 LODGES

R.W. BRO. KENNETH J.M. MacKENZIE

Masonry in Algoma East District is doing quite well, although our numbers continue to fall, the quality of our new members appear to be of a higher calibre, and we are blessed with an experienced and dedicated group of members in each lodge who are determined to overcome any adversity when it appears.

Most of our 8 lodges are located in small towns, and this part of Northern Ontario continues to struggle to compete for jobs to keep their population steady; however that breeds a very determined and proud Mason.

The work this year has been generally well done, and protocol has been adhered to, which I believe is a result of the Grand Lodge and District Lodges of Instruction. The brethren proving their proficiency had been well instructed. Attendances at the official visits were very good, and there was good support from the other lodges.

All lodges have some form of Long Range Planning. Financially, each lodge is operating within its means for the present, and addressing any imbalances.

The Brother-to-Brother programme has a facilitator in each lodge, and the Friend-to-Friend programme is being used by most lodges, with a favourable degree of success. A successful Open House was held in the Masonic Hall in Sault Ste. Marie, on 23rd April 2005, which involved the York Rite, Scottish Rite, Shrine Club, and both Chapters of the Eastern Star.

Our District Project, which started in December, was a great success; the district raised over $13,700.00 for the Sault Area Hospitals, Paediatrics Area, well above the initial goal of $11,500.00. Each Lodge is being involved with activities that bring us to the attention of our communities, with Breakfasts, Dinners, BBQs, Garage Sales, Community events, etc.

We have embarked on a District Website, at www.algomaeast.ca. It is progressing nicely; this I believe will be an excellent way to communicate special events in our district. Both our District Divine Service and District Meeting were well attended.

I believe that visitation between the lodges and better communications are vital for our district to thrive and move ahead.

BRANT DISTRICT — 13 LODGES

R.W. BRO. ERIC DAVIDSON

Overall the condition of Masonry in Brant District is very good. Membership is growing with Initiations and new members outstripping the number of demits and deceased brethren. The quality of work is high, some of the lodges still need to improve, especially the Work of the Worshipful Masters in opening and closing. Two of the lodges are having some financial challenges. Wilson Lodge needs a new roof and have started a fund to help them with the cost. Scotland Lodge has challenges with the Building and the Water Quality Certificate of their premises. The Brant Masonic Temple has been sold and the two lodges — Brant and Reba — have had to relocate. Brant Lodge is hoping to move to the Brantford Shrine Club but that has a real set of challenges with renovation needed and the fact that the Shrine Club also wants to use the Room when it is not being used as a lodge. Reba has decided to temporarily move to St. George Lodge until they can find an appropriate building to buy or lease. This means that in the City of Brantford (population 85,000) there is not a Masonic Lodge at this time. Hopefully this will change. I am confident that going forward Masonry will thrive in the district and the City of Brantford.

Ozias Lodge is a daylight lodge and is surviving but attendance is low, often they do not have enough Officers in attendance and rely on visitors. They do have a new Master for the first time in six years and hopefully they will continue to survive and grow, they currently meet in Burford Lodge.

Onondaga Lodge has recently completed a move to new premises and all the Brethren of that lodge pulled together in true Masonic Spirit to make the move a success.

I personally feel there may be more amalgamations of lodges in the future.

The district has made very effective use of Grand Lodge programmes and continues to do so, particularly in the area of Masonic Education and Friend to Friend. Blood Donors has also been well promoted in the district. A Wardens' Night and Masters' Night was held, as well as a P.D.D.G.M. Night this year. These were a huge success, particularly the D.D.G.M. night at St. John's Lodge in Paris where the work was performed in an extremely efficient manner almost word perfect, and the Candidate really was impressed as were all the visitors.

Our 150th Anniversary project, started in 2004 and continued in 2005, was to erect a Masonic Building at the Children's Safety Village of Brant, where school children are taught about Safety, Community rules and traffic, etc. 9,000 children per year from schools across the County will pass through the Village. There are 18 Children's Safety Villages in Ontario; Brant is the only one with a Masonic Building. We raised over $20,000 for this project.

BRUCE DISTRICT — 12 LODGESR.W. BRO. RONALD L. HARKNESS

Overall the quality of the work in Bruce District is very good with very few rough spots except where nerves get in the way. Protocol is followed well. Membership is rising in most lodges and steady in the rest. Most of the lodges are well off with a couple needing to increase dues. There are no amalgamations planned at this time. One lodge held a Friend to Friend Program which I feel went real well and should lead to some new members. We also had a Masonic Education day under the leadership of R.W. Bro. R. S. Daniels. There were several Masons from other districts in attendance. Everyone came away a little wiser and more enthusiastic about Masonry.

Many lodges are involved with community programmes and some of those that aren't are discussing ways to do so. Examples of community involvement are floats in parades, school breakfasts, BBQs, bursaries, etc. Our District Charity is the Outdoor Education Centre near Oliphant. This is a very worthwhile project for us and one that is highly visible, not only in Bruce District, but also in North Huron and Grey Districts. There is a Long Range Planning Committee for the district and some lodges have one also.

At this point, I have very few recommendations for improvements except those lodges that don't have a budget should. Masonry in Bruce District is in good shape generally. The lodges visit and support each other very well.

CHATHAM DISTRICT — 11 LODGESR.W. BRO. WILLARD C. BARNES

Masonry in Chatham District is alive and well. Even though we have two or three lodges with small numbers, the enthusiasm and quality of work is good to excellent. Every lodge seems to have a number of Past Masters or Past Grand Lodge members who follow proper protocol and are a great source of information and assistance. Throughout the year we had fifteen new members which leaves our district with a plus in total membership. All the lodges in Chatham District are financially sound and are ready and willing to assist if a need arises.

There are a couple of lodges in our district that may in time be forced to amalgamate due to membership, but at the present everything is working fine with the assistance from neighbouring lodges. We certainly encourage and wish them well.

Community wise, Chatham District lodges support many projects such as the Bruce B. Foster Foundation, C-K Bears programme for traumatized children, summer barbecues, local food banks, Christmas parades, Remembrance Day services, Salvation Army Kettle drive, Heart and Stroke luncheons. Diabetes Society, providing handicapped equipment to the community, breakfast programme for needy children at schools, and of course our 150th Anniversary project of supporting the Cancer Society.

Throughout the past year as District Deputy, I had the honour of presenting many 50 and 60 year pins to brethren who are still active in their lodges. I had the pleasure of attending many Ladies' Appreciation Days and lodge social outings. Generally speaking, I was treated as Royalty as I traveled throughout the district and beyond promoting genuine Brotherly Love.

EASTERN DISTRICT — 19 LODGESR.W. BRO. H. WILLIAM SYLVESTER

The quality of work by Masons in the district is generally very good. This year has been an exception as there have been numerous initiations in some lodges while others have not had any. There does seem to be a core group of Masons who travel and they are the ones relied upon to fill any voids. There is a Shrine Club degree team which helps and this past year with an amalgamation, the P.D.D.G.M.s performed all the work — it was very impressive.

The protocol witnessed at many of the lodge functions, i.e. Banquets, Installations, Official Visits, could be improved. It seems that with all the books written, they aren't read by the Masters and Wardens of the lodges.

Membership in the fraternity seems to be increasing but there are still some suspensions being read out in lodge and demits requested.

Although finances seem to be okay with many lodges, they seem to do little planning around this very important topic. There are some significant building modifications needed in four lodge buildings in the district and the lodges do not seem able to cope with the risk in not having the structures sound.

With the number of Masons in our district at about 900 in 19 lodges (2 have already amalgamated) and another four lodges will likely become two, they are meeting in nine locations around the district. The two City of Cornwall lodges meet in Ingleside, about a 20 minute drive from the city and they are looking for property in the city.

Only one Grand Lodge programme was received in the district this past year on Benevolence. Members had to travel up to two hours to either Brockville or Ottawa for the other two programmes for Secretaries, Lodge of Instruction and Computer Resources. As a result, the turnout from the District was poor.

Community programmes are centered around the following: Bursaries by individual lodges and the district; support for the Dundas Chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation by a Duck Race in August, currently held in Chesterville at the boat launch; Blood Donor Clinic support by two lodges and the district.

The district has a Long Range Planning Committee but they did not submit their report at our last meeting due to illness. It will be presented in September. Some lodges have a LRP committee but most do not; at least it seems so from the outside. Recommendations for improvement: more charitable work, an external communications programme in the district to give visibility to the public working more with other fraternal bodies — Order of the Eastern Star, Shriners, DeMolay and Rainbow for Girls organizations, district website (one is underway), more visiting by the brethren through the Traveling Gavel, more interesting meetings (in our district one of our Masons established a Speaker's Bureau) and Masters also need to make their own trestle boards to know what is planned for the year.

ERIE DISTRICT - 9 LODGES

R.W. BRO. WILLIAM M. ATKINSON

Erie District, on an individual lodge basis, is doing well with membership rising this year by approximately 8 to 12 members. All nine lodges are active in their community and very charitable. However, our strength as a district is dwindling as visitation is declining and support of district events faltering. We need to go back to basics and remember we are a fraternity and not a service club, remembering before we can help others, we must ensure our own stability.

FRONTENAC DISTRICT - 18 LODGES

R.W. BRO. A. BURTON CARR

I will, by the end of my term, have visited each lodge three times . . . I have represented Frontenac District at twelve Grand Lodge dinners for the Grand Master in various districts in the Province, and one International Night in Ogdensburg, U.S.A.

The one thing that I am going to mention at this time is the lack of support for Frontenac District functions. Be it the Grand Master's Banquet and 150th Especial Communication in October 2004, or the workshop held at the Kingston Masonic Centre in Kingston, on Saturday, April 02, 2005. If it had not been for the support of brethren from the other districts in south eastern Ontario both would have been failures.

The number of lodges is going to change in the near future to a much lesser number. There are five lodges in the district looking at amalgamation or Darkness. There are a few more that are just holding on. Some are because members that carry the workload are being burned out because of a lack of support by members to fill the offices of the lodge and the same ones have been doing it for years with no relief. A Seminar on Amalgamation vs Darkness was held at the Kingston Masonic Centre, on June 04, 2005, with R.W. Bro. Paul Todd as the guest speaker.

I have attended eight Masonic Memorial Services and five funeral services for Masons to date. We have had (to the best of my knowledge) 14 initiations this Masonic year. I presented, on behalf of the Masonic Foundation, 19 Bursaries – 18 to students at the St. Lawrence College, Kingston, and one to a student at Queen's University. I attended 10 Installations in the month of June, 2005.

GEORGIAN NORTH DISTRICT – 12 LODGES

R.W. BRO. DAVID D. SNEDDEN

The lodges in the Georgian North District are carrying out the ritual in accordance with Grand Lodge 1999 version of the Book of the Work. The ceremony of installation to date has been carried out in excellent fashion. The protocol in the district is improving, although more could be practiced.

The membership in our district has dropped slightly, but then we only need to look at our demographics and we can understand our problem. However, we seem to have many candidates coming forth and I trust that the decline will soon turn to a positive in membership numbers.

We had two lodges celebrate their 100-year anniversary with a Grand Master's Reception in Midland. One lodge invited the widows of that lodge to attend this function and they indicated it was a most enjoyable time (Coronation No. 466 and Victoria No. 470).

Our district has been on a two-year fund raising project for Breast and Prostate Cancer Research. We had one lodge in particular, through a New Year's Eve Dinner and Dance, raise over $3,000.00; this amount was presented to our district project at a regular lodge meeting in January 2005.

Our 5-year plan is now in place and most lodges are using this to assist them in projecting their future. However, we do have some weak lodges and they are considering their future. We are currently having some exploratory talks about a Daylight Lodge for the district. The district in general terms is healthy and it has the strong possibilities of being a leader in our jurisdiction.

GEORGIAN SOUTH DISTRICT – 10 LODGES

R.W. BRO. STEPHEN F. BISHOP

Georgian South District encompasses a geographic area triangulated by the towns of Creemore, Tottenham and the City of Barrie. There are ten lodges in the district, serving approximately 1,200 Masons.

The District Project, "Prayer of Hope," is an ambitious 2-year project to raise $25,000 for the construction of a Regional Cancer Care Centre.

G.S.D. is in good shape in terms of membership and resources. Our communities are seeing a continuing period of growth in terms of population and economy. District milestones include Tottenham Lodge No. 467 100th Anniversary in 2004, and Spry Lodge No. 385 125th Anniversary in 2005.

Event highlights this year include a Grand Master's Reception in Midland, a Grand Lodge of Instruction and a Grand Lodge traveling workshop. The Grand Master attended a fabulous Remembrance Day ceremony in Kerr Lodge No. 230 on November 18th where he received an honorary life membership. On December 2nd, the Deputy Grand Master attended Corinthian Lodge's Installation Ceremony where he too accepted an honorary life membership. W. Bro. Bob Brethour of Manitoba Lodge No. 236 was presented an Award of Merit from Grand Lodge for his work as editor of the "Manitoba News" newsletter.

The overall condition of Masonry in Georgian South District is quite healthy in terms of Ritual, Protocol, Membership and Finances. Grand Lodge programmes are generally under-utilized. Most lodges are heightening their community profile. Most lodges also have in place a Long Range Plan.

My recommendations are similar to that of my predecessor. The principal officers of the lodges, most especially the Masters of the district, are strongly encouraged to increase their efforts to attend other lodges and venues in the district, most particularly on nights of the Official Visits and Installations. No more than three visiting Masters were seen in a sister lodge at any time this year.

GREY DISTRICT - 12 LODGES

R.W. BRO. W. LYLE WETTLAUER

Grey District consists of 12 lodges, all of different sizes in memberships. One lodge in particular has done an exceptional job on the D.D.G.M. visitation night; the other lodges have done a very good job on different areas like Degrees and Masonic Education. The memory work was done excellently with little prompting having to be done; protocol in the lodge room and banquet hall has all been done in a very good order. Attendance at Official Visits throughout the year has been very good overall.

This year one lodge was able to use the Brother-to-Brother programme from Grand Lodge for a night of providing information to three gentlemen who were interested in becoming members and it proved to be a real success, as all three of them have made applications to join lodges. Four of the lodges hosted a Friend-to-Friend breakfast in which all of them had positive results. Each lodge that hosted a breakfast received 1-3 applications for memberships. This just proves that there are people out there that want to join.

The Past Masters', Masters', Wardens' and Deacons' Association have had great results and support from the district for holding the annual golf tournament and Grand Master's Reception. As the year went on the Ladies' Night was a vast success with the host lodge doing a first-rate job. The District Divine Service held on April 4th had some very inclement weather that made it next to impossible for many to travel that day. The District Secretary and D.D.G.M. have been well received at the visitations. I would like to send out a big thank you for that.

A new lodge room was dedicated this year, and three new applicants are seeking membership in the lodge. Three of the lodges in Grey District have had an abundance of new members while other lodges having 1-2 new members join. There have been two certificates for Masonic education presented this year to several brethren. Lodges are trying to get the brethren to return and partake in the lodge functions and work.

The trailer that started last year is on hold at this time. But all in all Masonry in Grey District seems to be growing on the whole.

HAMILTON DISTRICT A – 14 LODGESR.W. BRO. NORMAN J. PATERSON

I was able to participate in the installation ceremonies of all 14 lodges within the district. Masonry, as a whole, is quite healthy in Hamilton District A. All lodges have had initiations during the year, some lodge having a very busy tracing board. There seems to be a trend towards younger candidates. The ritual work was performed, in nearly all of the lodges, in an excellent manner; although improvement is needed in some areas. The work was done from memory with the minimal amount of prompting required. I was pleased to see that there were no open rituals during conferring of degrees except for that of the prompter.

The solemnity of the ceremonies was what I had hoped for and I wasn't disappointed. The protocol, both in the Banquet Room and during the reception of delegations into the lodge, was performed in a timely fashion. Ten (10) out of the 14 lodges have first time Worshipful Masters, sadly one of these passed away in February. The Worshipful Masters of the district are very active visitors. They were tremendously supportive of me during my visitations.

All lodges have some form of instruction for the purpose of advancing candidates and officer training. A District Lodge of Instruction was held shortly after my last official visit, with emphasis on openings and closings and the Deacon's floor work in the Entered Apprentice Degree. This instruction night was quite well attended, although the members who needed the instruction the most weren't there.

There doesn't seem to be any significant change in the attendance numbers from the previous year. None of the 14 lodges are in dire straits, most are in a good financial condition. As milestone anniversaries are nearing for some lodges, the financial burden for these celebrations will substantially reduce investments. There is a concern by the number of brethren in arrears of dues. There are no lodges at this time considering amalgamation.

I presented, on behalf of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario, 20 bursaries – this was a rewarding and heartwarming experience. I had the pleasure of presenting Grand Lodge 50 year and 25 year lapel pins to several brethren within the district.

My wife and I were invited to several Ladies' Nights and we were able to attend all of these invitations. A most enjoyable time was had socializing with the brethren and their Ladies.

HAMILTON DISTRICT B – 14 LODGESR.W. BRO. WILLIAM W. WHEELER

I believe that we are entering a time of enlightenment within Masonry, a time of celebration, self-discovery, change and new beginnings. In Hamilton District B, we see the light of celebration of 150 years of Masonry in Harmony Lodge No. 57 which celebrated its anniversary in April, with the Grand Master and Grand Lodge officers in attendance. Acacia Lodge No. 61 and St. Andrew's Lodge No. 62 have both begun their celebrations as well. Doric Lodge No. 382 celebrated 125 years with an evening with the Deputy Grand Master. All this bracketed by the celebration of Grand Lodge's 150th Anniversary as we work with Hamilton District A and C to help complete the celebration in Hamilton in October with a Special Plaque for the front lawn of Grand Lodge.

We see the light of self-discovery as lodges in Hamilton B have hosted information booths and open houses hosting special guests, discovering what it is to open ourselves to the public. We have been reminded of the joy of giving through Masonic benevolence and blood donors having helped to collect over 2,000 units of blood to date. We see the light of change as some of our lodges have looked at membership and the use of buildings and building upkeep. While others struggle with the reality of darkness, knowing that in the long run it will strengthen Masonry in Hamilton B. We see that although we are in a time of stability that we must look at the changing face of society and how we will continue as a fraternity within it.

We have seen the light of new beginnings. Doric Lodge No. 382 amalgamated with one of the lodges from Hamilton District C, creating a new beginning and chapter in their Masonic journey.

As Hamilton B continues this journey of enlightenment, we pray that the Great Architect will continue to light the road that we journey, even if that road may be difficult. With his help, we hope to be able to maintain the good fortune and stability that we now enjoy.

HAMILTON DISTRICT C - 14 LODGES

R.W. BRO. MICHAEL J. KINGSLEY

The quality of work in Hamilton Masonic District "C" is very good. The younger officers are very keen on learning the ritual and then doing the ritual in the prescribed form. However, brethren who may not be able to do the work as well as others but are giving their very best are just as important as the brethren who can deliver the ritual word perfect.

We have had one amalgamation in our district this year and it was performed to the satisfaction of all of the members of each lodge. The new lodge is The Lodge of Ancient Landmarks No. 654 incorporating Doric Lodge No. 382 established in 1879. Doric Lodge No. 382 was formerly a lodge in Hamilton District "B". The amalgamation ceremony was conducted by the Grand Master. Following the amalgamation ceremony, dinner was served and the Installation Ceremony took place with our Deputy Grand Master in attendance and many Present Grand Lodge Officers. Everything went off perfectly.

One of the most impressive and awe inspiring sights for someone from our community to see when they are first introduced to our Craft is walking into the Hamilton Masonic Centre (Scottish Rite Building). Several of the lodges in our district are involved in various activities such as food drives, pancake breakfasts and a Masonic Beef and Corn Roast which indirectly is a help to the community at large. The Hamilton Masonic Districts' Board of Relief distribution of relief funding to families and to the many food banks and other help agencies has had a positive impact in the communities of the three Hamilton Districts. The Open House Friend-to-Friend BBQ project introduced this year in Hamilton "C" was an unqualified success.

Our District Chairman of Long Range Planning presented an excellent Long Range Planning Committee Report outlining the Strategic Plan of our Grand Lodge which highlights the following: Fraternal Environment – Leadership Development and Communication (both internal and external). His reasoning is our district does not have to "reinvent the wheel" but simply make use of all of the programmes and expertise of our own Grand Lodge Committees.

LONDON EAST DISTRICT - 14 LODGES

R.W. BRO. ARTHUR W. INGLEY

This district is one which all brethren can be proud of. Masonry in London is positive and active.

While most of the Craft lodges have younger officers, others fill the chairs with Past Masters. This seems to be a sign of the times. The atmosphere within and outside of the lodge room is friendly, caring and supportive of our fraternity. The courtesies afford to me on my official visits and fraternal visits are second to none. My special thanks and appreciation to my district resource team for the fantastic job conveying all information to the district.

The project selected for our 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge was the Boys and Girls Club of London, for which the building of the Aqua-Plex is for all ages. A commitment we as Masons can be proud of. A bursary on behalf of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario was presented to Mr. Daryl Siemens by W. Bro. John Stevens and myself, on March 29/05. The presentation of 25, 50, 60, 70 year lapel pins and membership cards was indeed a highlight to those worthy brethren. Also seeing an initiate making his first entrance into lodge a fantastic pleasure. The Divine Church Service was well attended by brethren, family and friends.

125 years of Masonic history was celebrated with three Craft lodges in the fall of 2004, which is a milestone to be proud of. London East and West Districts were pleased and honoured to have in our presence M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby and his lovely lady Marion, accompanied by a large number of Grand Lodge Officers at our Grand Master's Reception, which was held on May 14th/05. A large number of brethren from the London Districts showed their appreciation, enthusiasm in support for the dedication of all Grand Lodge members.

There have been no amalgamations or lodges going dark, but there may be a future possibility.

LONDON WEST DISTRICT - 14 LODGES

R.W. BRO. JOHN A. MCKAIG

Quality of work – The quality of work in the district is generally good. Far too many books have been open during the work and I have made an effort to discourage this practice. I have seen work done in an excellent manner and I have seen work done in anything but an excellent manner. I am sorry to say that I once saw the work being read from the book by a Past Master. I have also been pleasantly surprised to watch the competitive spirit amongst younger officers who attempt to do letter perfect ritual. The importance of the Annual Lodge of Instruction can not be over-emphasized. Those who attend always come away with a renewed commitment towards doing better. I believe that if we could get some of the Past Masters to attend it would sharpen up their skills considerably.

Protocol – Generally speaking the protocol in the district is good. At all the DD nights I was very happy with the level of protocol with the exception of a few minor adjustments which I resolved with a quiet word after the meeting as a suggestion for next year when the DD visits. The days of large banquets after the D.D.G.M. meeting are for the most part history and I believe that they are not missed by the majority. During the year I had several inquiries as to what was the correct protocol which is a good indication that there is a concern that correct protocol is followed.

Membership – Membership seems to be gaining but it will take some time to see membership at the levels we once enjoyed. The country lodges are struggling to fill the chairs but they work hard at keeping their lodge going.

Finance – Upon reviewing the financial statements of the lodges within the district it would appear that they are on average financially sound.

MUSKOKA-PARRY SOUND - 8 LODGES

R.W. BRO. DAVID C. MAHON

Muskoka-Parry Sound is a small district in members but large geographically. This presents some problems for visitation and exchanges. But through four District

Meetings and regular lodge meetings we overcome some of the concerns. Much of our information is done by a system of e-mail, which gets better every year. (Not ready for e-summons yet.)

Masonic Education is a strong area in all lodges with support from G.L. Ritual work, protocol and etiquette are areas that vary from lodge to lodge from very strong to needing attention. We are working on it!

With the Lodge of Instruction in Orillia this year attendance was down and I fear next year when it will be held in Sudbury, as it is so much further! The Grand Master's wish of no books in lodge except the official prompter is being addressed.

Generally our lodges are strong in membership with some weak spots. An overall increase in membership, and those pending, stands at thirty-eight, which gives us incentive to strive a little harder. The number of demits (nonpayment of dues) should be leveling out and we should begin to show a more positive picture next year! Generally the lodges are in good repair after three having face lifts.

The district charitable project was successful above and beyond our expectations. Waving the 150th year Masonic Flag was a bonus. G.L. programmes were somewhat used this year but a new approach may see an increase in the future. A concern in the past may now be a plus! Long Range Planning, another concern, has also been addressed. Although I may seem a little disappointed by the use of G.L. programmes I'm more positive in the light of some of the District Chairmen and their efforts this year as well as a few lodges that have been using the programmes this year.

Having a District Piper was an innovative idea enjoyed by all the lodges!

Generally, Masonry in Muskoka-Parry Sound is alive, well and proactive. With the continued collective efforts we will continue to take good men and make them better! Recommendations:

- Have a Long Range Programme District Chairman with lodge chairmen on a working committee.
- Have overlap in District Chairman for continuity!
- Continue our rotation basis for D.D.G.M.s as it gives us an advantage for planning and continuity!
- Because our public awareness and charitable project was so successful why not a collective effort in our District Project every year?

NIAGARA DISTRICT A - 15 LODGES

R.W. BRO. DOUGLAS G. McLAREN

We enjoyed a very successful year in Niagara "A". The brethren embraced the 150th Anniversary with passion and originality. In addition to the positive membership statistics, the lodges in the district established themselves as a valuable presence in their respective communities. Many of the projects will be continued in the future with the same dedication and exposure.

The 15 Lodges of Niagara District "A" have developed 25 charitable and community projects, with most of them completed. The financial benefit to the community from those projects is close to $25,000, including donations to Prostate Cancer, Women's Place, Libraries, Churches, etc. The benefit to Freemasonry in general, however, defies measurement but will be invaluable to the Craft. Most encouraging is the feeling that we have a new "sense of urgency" or "dedication" in developing charitable works that benefit our communities.

The "150th Anniversary Projects" programme will be continued in year 2005-2006 and hopefully thereafter will change only to a different title such as "Charitable Projects Programme." We hope many brethren will visit Niagara Falls and have a picture taken beside the 150th emblem in flowers in Victoria Park at the base of Clifton Hill, and be among the 10 million plus who will see it. We created the 150th Anniversary Ball Caps, which were a great success throughout the province while providing exposure for Masonry and funds to support charitable functions celebrating the 150th. We enjoyed fraternal visits with our neighbours in Niagara B, both an official inter-district visit at Amity No. 32, in Dunnville, along with numerous spontaneous visits. Our District Divine Service was held in Smithville and the brethren overfilled the United Church. We again held our Grand Lodge Officers Appreciation Dinner in November with R.W. Bro. Allan J. Petrisor as the guest speaker to a great turnout.

On November 11th we attended the Remembrance Day Ceremony at the St. Catharines Cenotaph and laid a wreath to honour our brethren who made the supreme sacrifice. As D.D.G.M. I started and ended every speaking opportunity with the heartfelt phrase "Proud to be a Mason" and it has rubbed off on the district. It has truly been an honour to represent the Grand Master in this great and exciting District of Niagara "A".

NIAGARA DISTRICT B - 11 LODGES

R.W. BRO. WAYNE ADAMS

The lodges are older but well maintained. A few have been renovated to make it easier for older members to attend. There is a pride in ownership and community involvement in each of the lodges.

During my year, in addition to my official visit, my secretary and I visited each lodge to witness degree work and installations. Degree work was carried out with a zeal for the ritual and it was interesting to note that many new brethren were taking part. This bodes well for Niagara B as the leaders of the future have taken their first steps. Installations were carried out in due form and with the exception of a few lodges new Masters were installed.

Unfortunately, a number of Memorial Services were attended to convey the condolences of Grand Lodge and the Grand Master. This show of respect was well received by the families of the departed brethren.

We had many celebrations this year, Palmer and Cope-Stone reached one Hundred and twenty-five years, King Edward the Seventh reached one hundred years. We held a reception for our Grand Master and many lodges held sesquicentennial events. All were well attended and supported by the brethren of the district.

Past Grand Lodge officers and Past Masters continue to be extremely active in degree work and visitations and were a large part of the success of my year. All lodges continue to be active in community affairs and blood donor clinics and charities were well attended too.

Our Masonic Project wound up on a successful note with the presentation of a cheque to the Woolcott Wing, a seniors' extended care in Welland. The brethren showed an ability to shed a good light on Freemasonry.

A few problems arose during my year. These were handled with the co-operation of the brethren and Grand Lodge.

Masonry is alive and well in Niagara B and while we cannot predict the future if we continue to attract quality young men to our ranks and adhere to the fundamental principles of our Order, I think ours will be bright.

NIPISSING EAST DISTRICT - 7 LODGESR.W. BRO. BRUCE R. PRASKEY

Nipissing East District consists of seven lodges, three in the north and four in the south. The overall attitude of the Nipissing East District is positive.

Mattawa No. 405 and Sturgeon Falls No. 447 have relied on North Bay for their members, and as a result are able to hold their own.

Due to a restricted membership base, the northern lodges are struggling. Past Masters are asked to fill chairs. However, the mood of the brethren is positive.

One observation is that all lodges are having a problem getting their members to attend. Lodges must develop a way to get a majority of their members involved to their full potential.

NORTH HURON DISTRICT - 11 LODGESR.W. BRO. J. RICHARD ELLIOTT

This Masonic year in North Huron District has both been busy and rewarding. Our District Meeting set the agenda for the year with a fraternal visit to each lodge in addition to the official visit and installations. I made it quite clear that communication between the individual lodges and myself was imperative for any Masonic Funerals of a member of the district, as well as any special events such as 25 and 50 year membership pin presentations, Ladies' Nights, etc.

I was fortunate to have made a total of 58 visits within the district plus 2 Divine Services and 12 Masonic Funerals and found that the ritual was being followed and the new format for the Masonic Funeral Service was being used by all lodges, with the exception of Forest Lodge in Wroxeter, which had W. Bro. Ron McMichael recite the service completely with member participation. The brethren have all respected the families prior, during and after the service and made sure that during the service that the family was not visually blocked from participation. This can be difficult with the numbers present and the size of the venue. In each service the family deeply thanked the members for their presence and thoughtfulness. It is obvious to the members of North Huron District Lodges that they have an obligation to both the departed brother and their family, and they strongly support the lodge for this purpose.

I had the pleasure of presenting 12 membership pins for 25 and 50 years a Mason and took the opportunity to include a personal presentation of the 150th Anniversary Pin and Coin to these deserved members as well as all the Initiated members during the year. What a great opportunity to mark the importance of the occasion and the anniversary of Grand Lodge of Canada in the province of Ontario to a member and to the Craft in general.

The district also had an historic event in combination with the District Divine Service to have our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, and other Grand Lodge Officers present to dedicate the Cornerstone of Trinity Anglican Church in Blyth, Ontario, after the original dedication in 1878. This event also included two Bishops of the Anglican Church, being Right Rev. Bruce Howe and Right Rev. R.W. Bro. Robert C Townshend (retired).

Finally, this experience has afforded me to meet many great Masons and people, which has left me with a renewed confirmation that Masonry is alive and working well in North Huron District.

ONTARIO DISTRICT - 15 LODGESR.W. BRO. SAMUEL J. HUTNYK

Ontario District encompasses Port Perry on the north, Whitby on the west and Colborne on the east, with 15 lodges in total and 1,834 members (down 43 from the start of my 2004-2005 year). This was mostly due to brethren passing on to the Grand Lodge above, "not demits."

During my tenure I took the philosophy that even though work must be done with expertise, to dignity and protocol, it was time to have fun and humor. In my mind, I knew that over my forty (40) plus years in Masonry, we have and were losing too many good men trying to make oneself better within themselves to the objection to rigidity for the sake of pushing more that a perfect atmosphere. Any atmosphere, no matter where we travel, visit or attend must entice an individual to return. I am pretty positive that this has worked in our Ontario District because time and time again, I received comments such as, and I quote: "What a difference you have made in our District with your outlook and attitude towards individuals and Masonry in general." Sure, when things are askew and a little off kilter, address it with candor, quietly to individual(s) without embarrassment.

I must have been blessed with luck as I did not have very many situations to address, but I am and was lucky to represent a good, active and interested district, who try and do their utmost for the betterment of Masonry within and without the communities they reside in.

Some lodges, a few, are struggling for candidates, others are overflowing. My recommendation was for all the overflowing lodges to share their candidates with those with few or none. They listened and have done this to help prevent any Mason waiting in the wings too long and thus get discouraged.

As a recommendation to all lodges, I asked that they get their Mentors, Friend to Friend, Brother to Brother programmes going, chaired by brethren with commitment and enthusiasm. Some did, some didn't, but where they did, formally or informally, it showed. I would recommend this be pushed continually down the road. Practice makes perfect, I told them.

I attended every Installation, Official Visit and many invitations to functions, such as Memorials, Divine Services, Dedications, Degree Team functions, Anniversaries, within and without the district and visiting promoted much return visitation. This is Masonry's attribute second to none.

Really, not blowing Ontario District's horn too loudly, but we have a good district with many, many hard working Masons and we had very few problems. Everyone knows where we are going and where to go to with respect to Masonry in general. Our District Project No. 2268 - Autism - is way over our goal of $8,000 as originally set. I am proud of our district and commended them for their response. There are so many more things I could say, but would be barring on motherhood statements and I have already pushed my 350 word limit.

Again, a pleasure to have served Masonry in Ontario District 2004-2005 as District Deputy Grand Master as Grand Lodge's representative.

R.W. BRO. NORMAN G. ALLINGHAM

Wow!!! Masonry really is alive and well in this district. The lodges perform degrees in accordance with the current "Book of Work" most satisfactorily and proper protocol is practiced. The atmosphere at lodge meetings is second-to-none and the elements of dignity and decorum are observed. Enthusiasm, hospitality, and warmth are not only afforded to visitors, but also to all the members. New membership, in general, is relatively steady with 45 plus applications. These applications are spread over the lodges. At present, finances are not a problem in any lodge. However, those lodges that own their own buildings will see an escalation in costs in the near future. A long-range plan must be delivered, sooner rather than later, to allow them to address this situation.

Most of the lodges are using Grand Lodge programmes and are benefiting from them. The instruction seminars sponsored by Grand Lodge are excellent and extremely worthwhile. Four District Lodge of Instruction seminars were held and were quite successful. Unfortunately, our Blood Donor programme needs to receive much stronger support, as the district is way behind from where it should be.

The activity of our lodges in the community is exceptionally good, especially through fund raising and personal time donations. The support for: cancer (Relay for Life and breast cancer); juvenile diabetes; Live-Work-Play (for disabled adults); Kaps for Kids; equipment purchase for hospitals; and school award programmes, is actually overwhelming and the lodges are to be commended for it. One cannot forget the support from the district for the Rideau-Perley Veteran's Health Centre. As well, Ottawa District 1 in conjunction with the 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge has chosen as their project "Roger's House" which is a palliative care centre for children. Our district has raised approximately $20,000 towards this project.

Despite my opening remarks about Masonry being alive and well, there is always room for improvement. I am certain that if sponsors were more active with candidates and the lodges actually utilized the Mentor's Program, new members would remain active members of their lodges, which would enhance and strengthen the image of Masonry in our community.

OTTAWA DISTRICT 2 – 15 LODGES

R.W. BRO. HOWARD T. BROCKWELL

The 2004/2005 Masonic year, our sesquicentennial anniversary, was a very active and exciting period for Ottawa District 2. Our district has been honored to have our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby attending 8 different lodges, and 2 of them more than once. Two William Mercer Wilson Award medals were presented. Regalia was presented to an Assistant Grand Chaplain, an Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, a Grand Superintendent of Works and two Grand Stewards. The Grand Master also attended Ottawa District 2's Divine Service, the Valentine Charity Ball, held by both Ottawa Districts 1 and 2, to raise funds for our respective district projects and the Ottawa District 1 and 2's Grand Master's Reception in Pembroke. In addition, a strong representation of Ottawa District 2's membership attended the Special Grand Lodge Communications in Kingston during October 2004. All events were well attended and appreciated by all, a true example of brotherly love.

Membership in Ottawa District 2 is steady or increasing. Twenty-four new members were initiated and the two daylight lodges increased by 4 and 5 members respectively. Three lodges do have membership concerns; however, efforts are underway to resolve same. The work and protocol were well done, although not perfect, and we challenge any other district to do better!

Grand Lodge programmes are being implemented with some very positive results; however, room for improvement does exist. Details can be found in my full report. Other highlights within Ottawa District are as follows:

- (i) Ottawa District 2 raised over $25,000 for its district project: Parkinson's Society.
- (ii) The Masonic Foundation presented a cheque for $105,000 for medical research at the University of Ottawa.
- (iii) Approximately twenty Blood Donor clinics were sponsored by Masonic lodges from Deep River to Ottawa. Ottawa District 2 raised 1,469 units of blood.
- (iv) Fourteen bursaries were presented at Algonquin College on behalf of the Ontario Masonic Foundation, totaling over $11,000.

There remains an enthusiastic and progressive attitude towards Masonry in Ottawa District 2 by its members. Communities where their respective lodges are located have begun to show an interest in their activity. This can only benefit all concerned.

PETERBOROUGH DISTRICT - 12 LODGES

R.W. BRO. JOHN L. HAY

Masonry in Peterborough District has had an eventful year with a number of special activities going on to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of our Grand Lodge. Lodges in the district conferred many degrees with excellent ritual evident on numerous occasions. Although not all lodges are attracting new members, there are a number of degrees being performed on candidates from other lodges.

The new committee of Protocol and Etiquette has made presentations in various lodges and are planning to continue this next year. The lodges in Peterborough District are all financially sound and each has a Long Range Planning Committee in place. This year we, as a district, are working together to identify common problems and look at solutions that can benefit each lodge in the district.

As a major celebration for the 150th Anniversary, a Peterborough District Grand Lodge Officers Night was held to honour over sixty brethren from the district who have held a Grand Lodge office. Our Grand Master was present to congratulate each one, who then received a pin and a Certificate of Recognition. The Grand Master also presented 102 year old Bro. Albert Rundle with an 80 year Mason certificate and Veterans Jubilee Medal. It was a great night for Masonry in Peterborough District.

The district, through the efforts of W. Bro. Bob McBride, also produced a newsletter again this year, which has received awards of merit in the past. W. Bro. Jamie Medcof produced a district calendar which has been very popular with the brethren for a number of years.

The district 150th Anniversary Charitable Project to raise $15,000.00 to support St. Joseph's at Fleming, a new Long Term Care Facility on the campus of Fleming College in Peterborough, has been actively supported by the lodges and is nearing the successful completion of its campaign.

There have been numerous occasions where Masons have reached out to the community to participate in events which have raised the profile of our lodges in the various parts of the district. As is our custom, visiting other lodges was again very prevalent this year, which continues to enhance the Masonic experience we all value so much.

PRINCE EDWARD DISTRICT - 14 LODGES

R.W. BRO. ERIC E. SANDFORD

During the course of my year I have found that protocol and ritual work is generally well done, but I was distressed to find in some lodges the ritual work, particularly at installations, was read from some type of prepared sheets. Letters were sent to discourage this and asked to be read in open lodge, and an improvement has been seen. The floor work by the junior officers is done reasonably well, but lodges that have regular practices, the work is exceptionally well done.

I set up a number of committees to assist the Masters of the district to carry out the programmes of Grand Lodge; I was disheartened in the use of these committees. We had one officer progression meeting, which was not well attended; ironically the lodges that do work well were the ones that were present. The Friend to Friend and Brother to Brother committee was present and assisted in five Open Houses. This has been my thrust this year to get us as Masons out in the public and open our lodges for those interested in becoming a Mason. The Blood Donor Committee reported 1,295 units collected this year, a job well done. The Masonic Foundation Committee has been outstanding this year, at the time of writing has raised $67,711.00 clear, for the district project of A.L.S. We have an informative web site for the district.

In summary, I believe that the Masters should be encouraged to use the district committees to their fullest, especially for floor work and officer progression. I believe that Grand Lodge, through the D.D.G.M., insist that each lodge either do or exemplify each degree so that the work is kept up. We must guard against allowing the standards of work to decline, for if we do, we will become nothing more than just a social club.

ST. LAWRENCE DISTRICT - 17 LODGES

R.W. BRO. RICHARD R. BENNETT

Overall, Masonry in St. Lawrence District is in very good condition. The quality of the Work is generally very good to excellent. The official visits of the D.D.G.M. generally had a great turn out of visitors and members, and the attendance at the District Divine Service filled our small county Church to capacity. Protocol is followed, both at the banquet table and in the lodge. Membership appears to be stabilizing. As a result of some very successful Friend-to-Friend events, we have seen a great increase in applications for initiation this past year.

Finances do not seem to be an issue in St. Lawrence District. We have a few wealthy lodges, and a few who seem to scrape by. When the situation requires more funds, the members seem to pull together, and raise the required amounts. There are no current talks of amalgamation, but we do have one lodge that is looking at moving from their current facility to share facilities with a neighboring lodge. Rural Ontario, especially St. Lawrence District, take a lot of pride in being involved with and assisting with various community programmes. I was amazed with the amount of dollars that our seventeen lodges donate to school bursaries, local fund raising campaigns, and community projects.

Significant events of this past year include:

1. St. Lawrence District hosted a Secretaries' Workshop in December 2004, led by our Grand Secretary. There were over 50 lodge secretaries in attendance, representing the five eastern districts. This was an excellent morning, and I highly recommend this workshop for all districts.
2. The three Especial Grand Lodge Communications, held in Kingston, Simcoe and Thunder Bay, were all excellent events that my wife and I thoroughly enjoyed.
3. St. Lawrence District hosted a reception for our Grand Master at Timber Run Golf Club in April, which was a sold out affair, and a wonderful evening enjoyed by all in attendance.
4. In March 2005, one of our lodges held a special lodge meeting at a local Retirement Home where we were able to have 5 special guests. Members who thought they would probably never attend a lodge meeting again. One of the members present had his 101st birthday in February 2005.
5. The climax of our year was held on June 25th with a 150th Anniversary Party at a park in the centre of our district. This event saw many hours of planning over this last year, and was a huge success.

ST. THOMAS DISTRICT - 10 LODGES

R.W. BRO. GEORGE G. AKERS

Freemasonry in the St. Thomas District is beginning to show signs of a significant forward thrust. There have been at least two initiations into every lodge in the district, with West Elgin No. 386 leading the charge forward, with 12 initiations. Who say's amalgamations don't work?

The quality of the ritual throughout the district ranges from adequate to excellent. The officers in the progressive chairs in the lodges range from all first time officers to all Past Masters.

We conducted a district Lodge of Instruction in late January, which was very well attended and received, with the general consensus that we make this an annual event.

Our Masonic Foundation participation within the St. Thomas District has been nothing short of stupendous, raising to date in excess of $30,000.00. I had the distinct honour and privilege of assisting the Grand Master in presenting the first of two cheques, for $10,000.00 each, to our local hospital, for the express purpose of purchasing some much needed urology equipment. The remainder of the monies will be spread over four other worthy charities within the district.

The attitude throughout the district for the most part is very upbeat. The Grand Master's message - 'to let our light shine before men that they may see our good works' - was so inspirational that the effects are being seen not only in the St. Thomas District but throughout the whole jurisdiction.

I firmly believe that the doom and gloom prediction of Freemasonry being in peril simply from attrition are ill founded; I would be more inclined to predict a strong resurgence, as more and more worthy men find the true meaning of Freemasonry.

SARNIA DISTRICT - 19 LODGES

R.W. BRO. ALEXANDER S. O'NEILL

Masonry in Sarnia District is holding steady. The district is excited that an historic event is about to unfold and our brethren are eager for it to begin.

Overall the lodge degree work and etiquette were good. The harmony and brotherhood shown in the lodges was excellent. Lodge to lodge visitation at our Official Visit nights was encouraged by means of the Traveling Gavel and the District Square and Compass plaque. A successful Ladies' Night, calling for a Victorian Theme, commemorating the 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge, was a social highlight. Through the efforts of the Sarnia District Association our district staged a Musical Revue at the Victorian Playhouse, in Petrolia, for our 150th project. Victoria Lodge No. 56 celebrated it's 150th Anniversary with a reception honouring the Grand Master, held in May. The District Divine Service was moderately attended by 80 Masons throughout the district. There were two district golf tournaments. I represented Sarnia District at many Grand Master's Receptions, and along with several brethren, visited many other districts throughout the year. The district chairmanships were generally handled with competence and ease.

The Benevolence Chairman identified two brethren in need of assistance and acted on the district's behalf to administer help. The Masonic Education Chairman was instrumental in creating a new and improved District Web Site. Our District Newsletter produced great sources of information and the chairman should be commended for its professional appearance. The Grand Lodge programmes were carried out without exception. Several lodges held "Friend to Friend" open houses and the "Brother to Brother" programme is showing results. There were three Lodges of Instruction held throughout the year. There were four District Association meetings held including numerous small meetings dealing with the special events in the district. Several of our brethren took it upon themselves the task of producing a map of the district showing locations of all the lodges.

Sarnia District has lost 38 brethren since July 2004 to the Grand Lodge Above.

Figures indicate an overall decline in membership. It is encouraging that there have been 20 or more initiations in the district in that same period. St Paul Lodge No. 601 has become a daylight lodge, the first in the city of Sarnia and the first in our district. Only time will tell if this experiment will be successful.

I do have a matter of concern. Not enough support is being given to the various district events. It is my opinion that the district is just worn out with all the special activities that have gone on in the last few years. Hopefully the district will rebound in the next two years and show more enthusiasm in the future.

SOUTH HURON - 15 LODGES

R.W. BRO. ERNEST M. HUGGINS

South Huron District had a number of successes this year as well as a few concerns. For the most part there has been a marked improvement in the ritual, owing in part to the efforts of the District Long Range Planning Committee. In addition to three District Lodges of Instruction, members of the committee have visited lodges on request to provide Masonic Education as it relates to ritual. Most of the lodges have responded to the Grand Master's suggestion that Masonic Education become a regular feature of every meeting.

Visitation provides lodges the opportunity to observe how others perform the ritual and it is interesting to note that the lodge that rarely if ever visits other lodges falls short in its performance.

Declining membership continues to pose challenges for the district, although several lodges have initiated new members and have applications on the secretaries' desks.

Two lodges in the district have uncertain futures. One is actively pursuing amalgamation and hopes to have the process completed before 2006. The second lodge has a membership of only 23 members, most of whom are seniors, a number of whom are unable to attend. Those who do attend, and serve in the chairs, travel a fair distance to lodge. Several members reside outside of the district. Nonetheless they are a dedicated group and are proud of their lodge.

The high cost of maintaining a building constructed at a time when membership was five times today's enrolment could result in serious financial difficulty for the two lodges that occupy the premises, however the lodges are aware of the roadblocks ahead and are analyzing the situation.

The district continues to serve the community with the Blood Donor Program, Coat for Kids and various fund raising events to support the District Project.

Special events held by the district and individual lodges have been successful. Ladies' Night/Grand Master's Reception, District Divine Service, the golf tournament, several barbecues and card nights have raised the profile of the Craft and included spouses and friends in our activities.

In summary, this has been a good year for South Huron and personally a very rewarding experience. I thank the brethren of South Huron for the trust they placed in me and only hope their trust was well founded.

SUDBURY-MANITOULIN DISTRICT - 9 LODGES

R.W. BRO. WAH CHUNG

All lodges had proudly presented their works to satisfaction. Most lodges had used proper protocol in the lodge room and at the banquet festivities. Time and more practice will improve some of the mechanics of the work in the lodge room. All lodges and brethren provided an atmosphere of good fellowship, warmth and brotherly love.

Most of the district lodges have the Brother-to-Brother Program and/or Mentor Program Committees. I am uncertain about these committee chairmen's understanding of these programmes and how frequently and effectively these programmes are used. Only Algonquin Lodge has used the Friend-to-Friend, Brother-to-Brother, Mentor and Officer Progression programmes frequently and effectively. Their Chairman, W. Bro. Merve Lees, is to be recognized and commended for his efforts.

The Sudbury-Manitoulin District is a lively and vibrant district. The membership is steady and stable with an increase in growth. All lodges participate in the Sudbury-Manitoulin District community events. All Masons support and are deeply involved with all local community activities and programmes. This has provided us with a good image in the community as it increases our public visibility. This also helps us promote Freemasonry in the Sudbury-Manitoulin District and has an effect in recruiting new candidates.

The Java Guild serves a hot lunch to an average of 60 people for $3.00 each at Belrock Masonic Centre every Tuesday. It is a place for Masons and friends to enjoy each other's friendship and fellowship. Also it is a place for brethren to exchange information and knowledge and feel the pulse of our district. The Guild has raised and donated $12,350.00 to various charities in its two-year existence. The Guild donated $500.00 to the Canadian Red Cross Tsunami-Relief Fund on behalf of the district Masons. The Guild served turkey and ham dinners to eighty plus Masons at the 2004 Christmas lunch. The Java Guild is a great success, a place for fraternity and a chance to introduce prospective candidates to our organization.

Most of the Sudbury-Manitoulin District's members are over 55 years old. If we do not put forth a greater effort to increase new membership and specifically target younger members to join the Masonic Fraternity every year then our membership will decline within the next ten years at all the district lodges. This is a serious problem that should concern everyone.

The operation and the management of all lodges are very well run and all lodge's financial situations are sound. All Masonic buildings are in good maintenance or in the process of renovation.

The district fraternity continues to grow stronger. The Grand Lodge programmes are well received and supported by all Masons. The results benefit everyone. This helps rejuvenate the existing members and motivate the interest of the active members. The Friend-to-Friend programme can introduce Freemasonry to the public and has a potential to initiate more new Masons into our fraternity and increase the level of our community's interest and understanding of Freemasonry.

TEMISKAMING DISTRICT - 9 LODGES

R.W. BRO. JAMES A. HAMILTON

Masonry in Temiskaming is surviving - but struggling! The regional economic factors continue to give Masonry a struggle to maintain membership in lodges. The out-flow of jobs, resources, and people severely hampers the district to keep the status quo. Thus, there is only a small limited pool of suitable candidates for the lodges to maintain their membership within the Temiskaming District.

All lodges are feeling pressure with the financial side of the lodge operations, particularly the nominal expenses of a lodge. The increasing and continual rising of the hydro, insurance and heating rates, together with the maintenance cost of an aging building is putting a definite squeeze on lodge bank accounts.

Dues structures are continually being reassessed, but are quickly running out as the favourite source of revenue generation.

In spite of this, the lodges in Temiskaming District continue to meet, conduct excellent business meetings and perform quality degrees and ritual, but above all they have an enjoyable and fun time doing it, with great fellowship both during the meetings and after among the brethren.

Highlights of the district:

- Extinguishing of the Lights by the members of Spruce Falls Lodge No. 648 in December 2004.
- District 150 Year Sesquicentennial Project with the Masonic Foundation, Spruce Falls Lodge No. 648, and the lodges and membership of Temiskaming District to raise funds for the completion of common rooms at the North Centennial Manor in Kapuskasing.
- Visitation of Heritage Lodge No. 730 to Golden Beaver Lodge No. 528 in June 2005.

Masonry continues to be a source of personal pride, reward and enjoyment for the members, thus one can only hope and wish for continued health and happiness for all to enable Masonry to continue in Temiskaming District!

TORONTO DISTRICT 1 – 22 LODGES

R.W. BRO. WILLIAM W. HOLDEN

In general, the ritual work is very good with mechanics being slightly less than very good. Both could use some improvement. The lodge room protocol is very good but banquet room protocol needs a lot of improvement. Installations are generally very good with the exception of two lodges.

Overall membership is increasing slightly with the exception of two lodges in decline. There are several reasons for this, but the most troubling one is disharmony. Sadly, there were several instances where one or more members stopped attending or demitted as a direct result of political unrest, meddling, confrontations, intimidation and on several occasions, un-Masonic conduct. Behaviour of this kind causes immeasurable and sometimes irreparable harm..

Finances are generally stable with the exception of a few lodges who are currently addressing this issue and their prospects for success in this area are good. The move away from life membership seems to be the most frequent step taken. Rent and refreshments are becoming dominant factors.

Grand Lodge programmes are in limited use, but there are indications of some increasing interest in them.

Generally, things are improving and problems are being realistically identified and addressed. None of the struggling lodges are new at this and as strange as it sounds, they are experienced survivors. Having said that, these few lodges should keep open the options of amalgamation and darkness.

My observations indicate to me that Toronto District No. 1 will continue to thrive as a stable district for the foreseeable future.

This year has been stimulating, fulfilling and educational. I will truly be ever grateful for this opportunity. It was a privilege and an honour to serve the district and the Grand Master.

TORONTO DISTRICT 2 – 17 LODGES

R.W. BRO. VICTOR A. CODATO

Traditionally, Toronto District 2 had 19 lodges. About two years ago, Patricia Lodge extinguished its lights. Recently, Islington Lodge amalgamated with Mimico Lodge. On May 30, 2005, Sunnyside Lodge, Transportation Lodge and Fidelity Lodge amalgamated and High Park Lodge and Melita Lodge will in October 2005, for a total of 14.

Presently, 5 lodges are discussing amalgamation. Potentially, a 37% reduction with 12 lodges remaining will be the result.

Regarding membership, 4 lodges had an increase, 2 remained level and 11 suffered a decline. Totals indicate the loss of 117 members that was offset by 52 initiations for a net loss of 65 by the district. At the lodge level, 11 have fallen below their 2003-2004 reported membership total.

Overall, the Work ranged from poor to very good with one exception which stood above all others. There was one third degree while all of the remaining were either firsts or seconds, many of them exemplifications. With the exception of two poor degrees, the remainder was to a greater or lesser extent, sufficient. Generally, protocol was satisfactory in lodge but below par in the banquet hall.

With one exception, all lodges have healthy financial reserves either invested or in accounts. The exception is prudent and is funding its annual expenditures from its dues.

Humber Lodge continues its active participation within their urban community, as does Mount Dennis Lodge with the Community Association for Riding for the Disabled and the District with the Canadian Blood Services.

The lodges report the following participation in Grand Lodge programmes: Mentors 9, Friend to Friend 7, and Brother to Brother 6. Application was found to be uneven. In order for these programmes to be effective, they must be vigorously pursued. Twelve lodges report having a long range plan, 9 of which were updated in the last twelve months. This tool when used in conjunction with the Grand Lodge programmes can yield substantial benefits.

Overall, the Principles of Free Masonry are alive and well in Toronto District 2.

R.W. BRO. THOMAS E. WARNER

The district has been exceptionally active this year in celebrating Grand Lodge's 150th Anniversary with numerous community-driven events, such as the Variety Village Toy Drive, Movie Showings, Coins and Pins, Dances, Ladies' Evening, Brother to Brother, Friend to Friend, and the King of the Hill Soap Box Derby, Scout Night, and Open Houses throughout.

We are especially proud of the relationship and partnership we have shared with R.W. Bro. (Barney) Grimbleby and the brethren of Toronto District 4 who have worked so diligently towards the combined District Charity and District Awards night.

The combined internal work of the district has improved from last year, with early emphasis being placed on Installations and Masonic Memorial Services, which has translated into an overall noticeable improvement. We had the privilege of the Grand Master attending installations in Zeredatha and, most recently, The Beaches Lodge as they celebrated their 100th Anniversary.

Strong lodges show a continued effort in being active in their communities, proving their work and visiting, while weaker lodges show lack of effort, internal support, and no visitation. One lodge in particular was on the verge of turning out the lights and while low in numbers, they still practised the basic fundamental principles, and visited other lodges. Assistance and affiliations followed. Another lodge in the district is suffering from the same problem yet is not given the same support because this particular lodge does not travel, take part in district functions, or fraternal visitation. They were offered assistance on many occasions from various past D.D.G.M.s over the years and have suffered a huge blow. The district is attempting to assist this lodge presently.

District Chairmen worked very hard this year, and despite low numbers at most events, the degree of content being provided was excellent. Those workshops that included the support of Grand Lodge Officers were that much more significant as wisdom provided greater direction.

I have enjoyed my year as the Grand Lodge representative of Toronto District 3, and I hope that the brethren realize the special uniqueness of this "Fraternal Brotherhood," it must change as times change. But, the basic fundamental principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth must remain concrete and intact for the future, because outside the walls of this Fraternity there is a greater need, those who have not had the privilege of seeing the GREAT LIGHT.

Toronto District 3 looks to the future, and will accept change for the good of the whole Craft.

R.W. BRO. BRUCE M. GRIMBLEBY

The district has been actively involved this past year and has participated in the District Charity - The Variety Village Toy Drive, the Claremont Winter Festival Parade, the Seven Toronto Districts Divine Service along with two Remembrance Day Parades and Wreath Laying Ceremonies, even though they were poorly attended have increased the awareness of Masons within the various communities.

Presentations of 25 and 50 year service pins along with a 50 year Past Masters pin and 60 year service pin to V.W. Bro. G. T. Rogers of Acacia Lodge No. 430. Wexford Lodge No. 683 celebration of their 50th Anniversary and a special evening put on by Scarboro Lodge No. 653 in honour of V.W. Bro. Alex Clayton for his contributions to his lodge and our Grand Jurisdiction, were a few of the highlights of this past year.

Many of the lodges have conducted themselves well in openings, closings and ritual with a few needing to readdress this area along with the use of proper protocol being a major concern.

While most lodges in the district are financially stable, attendance and membership along with interest and commitment are another concern.

The Past Masters along with Past Grand Lodge Officers of the district are a steady force and very dedicated to this district and its well being.

Grand Lodge programmes such as Friend to Friend, Brother to Brother and the Masonic Nights of the Round Table programme, have played a significant role and have increased interest in those taking part. Our newly formed Communications Committee has been a good source of information for the members regarding the loss of brethren and items of importance that made an impact on the district. Our Blood Donors programme has been instrumental in providing over 500 units of blood this past year, this being an increase over the previous year.

While there are a few areas of concern within the district, they are being addressed at lodge and in some cases district levels to ensure continuity and stability within the lodges. Although there has been a significant increase in initiations the number of brethren that have left the district mainly due to deaths has not increased our district membership.

Working together with R.W. Bro. Thomas Warner and Toronto District 3 has helped to make the relationship of these two districts stronger. I feel this has been a very rewarding and successful year.

TORONTO DISTRICT 5 - 15 LODGES

R.W. BRO. JAMES R. AIDE

This year has been a year of both ups and downs in Toronto District No. 5. At the beginning of the year it became apparent that Harmony Lodge No. 438 could not continue as their existence depended on the amalgamation of officers from other lodges to fill the chairs. As a result of a request for dispensation to have seven officers who were currently officers in other lodges being refused, Harmony Lodge is now working towards amalgamation with Sharon Lodge No. 97.

There is also another lodge in the district, Wilson No. 86, which should look towards possibly amalgamating with another as their membership continues to decline.

One of the "ups" was when I made my interim report to the Grand Master in January, I was pleased to note that in the December summonses from the fifteen lodges there were fifty-nine names on the lodge Trestle Boards and another nineteen applications to be voted on. One of the lodges that has made a turn around is Ashlar Lodge No. 247.

Although several lodges showed a negative balance on their yearly financial reports all the lodges have reasonable reserve funds. The lodges that did show a negative balance on their yearly financial reports are taking the necessary steps to resolve the concern.

The ritual work and mechanics of the work throughout the district was on the whole done very well. There were a couple of lodges that could use some assistance, especially with the mechanics of the work.

It has been a great honour and pleasure for me to be the representative of the Grand Master for the past year. I will take many pleasant memories with me when I pass my responsibilities on to my successor. I will also cherish the friendships that I have made over the past year with the many distinguished Masons I have met and worked with.

TORONTO DISTRICT 6 - 13 LODGES

R.W. BRO. GLENN C. WARDLAW

The condition of Masonry in Toronto District Six remains generally good. The quality of the work continues to improve in our stronger lodges and this is a direct result of the Master and Past Masters' leadership in committing to Installation and Degree pre-planning, practices and officer mentoring. It is also the reason that our stronger lodges are able to attract and retain new members. In addition, special lodge evenings featuring Masonic Education and Degree Teams went a long way in promoting interest and enthusiasm in the Masonic ritual work. Membership continues to be a key challenge and focus of every lodge in the district. In 2004, most lodges were able to initiate and welcome at least one new Mason this year. It is clear that those lodges who take advantage of disciplined programmes like Friend to Friend, Brother to Brother and Mentors are having better success in driving interest with new applicants and are likely to be successful in having these brethren become regular members.

Visitations continue to improve; however, an effort must be made at every lodge to encourage our newer brethren to join in lodge visits.

The District Sesquicentennial Charity project was to raise funds, through the Masonic Foundation, in support of children receiving Cochlear Implants through the Hospital for Sick Children. Our target was $10,000.00 and with the generosity and hard work of many Masons in the district we will raise over $20,000.00. In addition, the brethren of District Six have donated over a 1,000 units of blood, best of the Toronto Districts, but we need to encourage broader support by our city lodges to grow our units even more.

The award winning District Newsletter, The Cornerstone, continues to be an important communication tool in terms of providing news, event information and Masonic education to the brethren in the district. A couple of lodges have also introduced Lodge Newsletters to supplement the district publication; however, the challenge is to be able to sustain them over the long term. The district website continues to grow in popularity, however we are looking at how to improve the timeliness and accuracy of the updates.

A little more than half of the lodges in the district have Long Range Planning Committees and long range plans. In addition, although not yet critical, financial budgeting needs to be a part of a lodge's long range plan. To provide a resource for the lodges, the district's Management and Long Range Planning Committee has developed a district long range plan that expands on the Brother to Brother programme components and can be adapted so every lodge can evaluate, develop and support a five-year operating plan, including a financial budget.

TORONTO DISTRICT 7 - 25 LODGES

R.W. BRO. MEL SCHECTER

Our slogan this year was "It's Time." This was designed to encourage the brethren to adopt a "Culture of Time Consciousness" to conduct meetings in a more business like and efficient manner. Most lodges managed to adhere to this policy, and reports indicate a positive feeling from the brethren, and an equal pride from the Masters that this was accomplished.

The number of Degrees performed in the district this year were: 52 E.A. Degrees, 54 Fellowcraft, and 46 Master Mason Degrees. Of the 24 lodges in the district, 8 report a decrease, 12 remain steady and only 4 enjoy an increase in membership.

About half of the lodges have cyclical up and down years, but sustain themselves with new candidates, Education Nights, Friend to Friend participation and proper follow-up. Some have a long range plan in place and are making proactive decisions to strengthen themselves through the assistance of Grand Lodge programmes or amalgamations.

Lodges indicating a steady or increasing membership feature new initiates rapidly becoming involved in lodge activities and soon join the line-up. Various social and educational activities are well supported and attended.

Among the sponsored social events of District 7 this year were: A Family Day in the Sugarbush, Special Ladies' Night during the Festive Season and the Annual St. Patrick's Day Roast Beef Dinner, all in aid of the District Charity, which is the Pathways to Education Program in Toronto's Regent Park.

A Lodge of Instruction was held for Installing Masters and Directors of Ceremonies. A follow-up package is prepared for distribution to those seeking additional assistance entitled "You've Been Asked to be Installing Master, Now What?" The emphasis is on the planning and leading up to the night, rather than the ritual.

Another highlight of the year was the Blood and Organ Donors Program, which had a result of 950 units of blood donated.

A self-supporting District Newsletter 'Hand to Hand' was published twice, with any excess monies from advertising donated to the District Charity.

The toronto7masons.com district website kept the brethren and public up to date on meetings and events in the district.

VICTORIA DISTRICT - 14 LODGES

R.W. BRO. JOHN SPERRINO

Victoria District is comprised of 14 lodges, 5 have memberships greater than 100, 5 have memberships less than 100 but greater than 50 and 4 have memberships less than

50. Some of the lodges are in a strictly rural setting, some a mix of rural and urban and others that are strictly urban. With this great diversity each lodge has its own character and each lodge has its own character with regard to the members' sense of direction.

The common thread among the lodges is that they fiercely hold on to their traditions and while they accept change to a limited degree they prefer to resist change. Another common thread is that the majority of the "Work" in each lodge is performed by members who are over the age of 60 years. As I attend banquets and Masonic functions it is blatantly obvious that we are "a greying society" and that in short order it is sad to say that Victoria District will be performing more Memorial Services than Initiations.

We are having some young men join but they are generally caught up with job and family responsibilities to take a dedicated interest in learning the ritual and the commitment of putting it to memory. There does not seem to be enough time in these young men's lives to be truly dedicated to Freemasonry. About 1 in 10 take on the effort and dedication to really see what Freemasonry is all about.

The challenge that I perceive Victoria District will meet in the near future is that while everything on the surface seems to be on an even keel, i.e. all the lodges are financially stable, the "Work" is being performed correctly and the district is running smoothly. When is the crunch going to happen?? As the older members pass on and there are not enough younger members to take their place and work for Freemasonry.

Each lodge is fiercely proud of itself and there is absolutely no interest in amalgamation, but at what point does a Lodge fail to exist???

Victoria District has seen the disappearance of the one room school, the creamery/cheese factory, the churches are on shaky ground and are closing, the sale/auction barn is failing and the last train rolled through many moons ago never to return.

So, in conclusion, Victoria District is stable and healthy at this point in time and will be for many years to come, but unless there are more younger men joining who are willing to practice and embrace Freemasonry then Freemasonry is on a slippery slope.

WATERLOO DISTRICT - 15 LODGES

R.W. BRO. KIM W. McGEAGH

It is my honour and pleasure to report on the vigorous state of Masonry in Waterloo District. We have added over 40 new members to the Craft this year while marking only 8 that have passed to the Grand Lodge Above. Most notable, perhaps, is the average age of our new members being around the 30-year mark. Certainly we have older and younger members joining but the 30-something man seems to be looking for that which Masonry can provide.

Lodge buildings in Waterloo District are situated in small villages and large urban centres. Most lodges are financially sound while others could benefit from budgetary planning. All our lodges demonstrate a love for the Craft and a sincere desire to learn as evidenced by the increased Masonic Education at nearly all meetings.

This, of course, does not mean that there is no room for improvement. Ritual and degree work, though improving, can still benefit from increased attendance at the Lodges of Instruction and attention to readily available literature and close examination of The Work.

I have concern for several lodges in the district and their long term viability. While one lodge had as many as 14 new candidates, some 30% of our lodges had no candidates at all and are experiencing an alarming decline in membership. For those brethren that have discovered the lost or forgotten secret of visitation, friendship and ritual improvement are discovered. But for those lodges that do not visit and will not take advantage of the many Grand Lodge programmes and Lodges of Instruction, the future does not bode well. Perhaps our mentoring programme for new members could be expanded to include an active and progressive lodge to lodge mentoring programme whereby a strong lodge would assist a weak lodge.

The District Charity, Central Ontario Riding Development Program (C.O.D.R.P.) was strongly supported by virtually every lodge in the district, even though world events demanded our aid, attention and funds.

It has been my honour and privilege to have had the opportunity to serve an outstanding district within an exception jurisdiction.

WELLINGTON DISTRICT - 13 LODGES

R.W. BRO. J.I.W. (IAN) MILLAR

Masonry in Wellington District on the whole is strong. Membership has declined slightly through deaths, demits and suspensions; however, most lodges have had an increase in the number of candidates. It is encouraging to note that most of the new candidates are of the younger generation and are eager and motivated to participate in the ritual and also the social aspect of the lodge.

Attendance at regular meetings, in some of the lodges, seems to be on a decline. The attendance at special functions has increased slightly.

Most lodges in the district are financially stable; however, some of the lodges that meet in the Guelph Masonic Centre are still finding financial difficulty due to the short term per capita assessment placed on the lodges for the renovations.

Wellington District is very active in the Grand Lodge Blood Donor Programme, which includes personal donations and also sponsoring clinics. The number of donations has increased by 394 units from the previous year.

Most of the lodges conduct the work and ritual in a proficient manner; proper protocol is observed, and candidates are well prepared.

Grand Lodge Education material pertaining to Brother-to-Brother, Friend-to-Friend, Mentors and Long Range Planning were distributed to each lodge. Long Range Planning in most lodges is non-existent. Most lodges have a Mentor's programme of some sort, however, the programme supplied by Grand Lodge is not being used to its fullest. This also applies to the other Grand Lodge programmes.

The District Lodge of Instruction was very poorly attended, especially by the younger lodge officers and brethren. This type of instruction is for the younger brethren and they should be encouraged to attend by their senior officers and brethren.

The district held several events during the year such as Curling Bonspiel, Golf Tournament, Dinner Theatre Night, and a District Divine Service. These events were well attended by the brethren.

Through various fund raising activities the lodges in the district have contributed to a number of local charities and continue to provide bursaries to graduating secondary school students wishing to further their education.

Overall the status of Masonry in Wellington District is alive and with the continued help and effort from the dedicated brethren, Masonry will grow and strengthen in the years to come.

WESTERN DISTRICT - 10 LODGES

R.W. BRO. PHILIP R. BERARD

Western, with its 10 lodges, is a very solid district. Memberships are stable and a few lodges are doing an excellent job recruiting and increasing their membership with quality people. Most lodges are financially sound but a few of the smaller lodges are having some difficulty to keep their books balanced. These lodges are working on finding ways to increase the lodge revenues.

The degree work in most lodges is above average, some lodges doing excellent work while others are only average in which we are working to get them to raise the standards of their work in the three degrees.

Each official visit to the lodges have been very enjoyable with a supper and a great evening of Masonic Friendship and Brotherly Love and, on most occasions, a room full of members and guests from the other lodges.

The lodges were updated with the most valuable books used in the day to day management of the lodge as well as the latest printing of these books and informed of Masonic Library and Correspondence Courses available from Grand Lodge.

Our charitable project for the year was to raise funds for the Special Olympics of Western District. All the lodges, as well as many members, donated to this very worthwhile fundraiser.

Our year ended with the Especial Communication of Grand Lodge held in Thunder Bay (Algoma District) with almost all our sitting Masters as well as many members and their wives attending this once-in-a-lifetime event.

The lodges in Western District are a very close knit group of Masons and each lodge can be counted on to support the other. The district has a mixture of young and older, more experienced brethren as well as many P.D.D.G.M.s, V.W.s and Past Masters and I can see this district moving forward for many years to come.

WILSON NORTH DISTRICT - 12 LODGES

R.W. BRO. DAVID M. SHEARER

2004-2005 has been a humbling experience, yet it was such a rewarding year packed with so much fun and memories as the 11 lodges celebrated their 150th Anniversary of Grand Lodge.

The packed reception for the Grand Master, which was held in Simcoe on February 5, 2005, was one of the greatest historical memories the districts of Wilson North and South has ever had for all of our members, spouses and visitors. It was an evening to remember. Not only was the evening of the 11 lodges 'rememberable,' it was also extremely successful. The evening raised over $50,000 for the new Woodstock's General Hospital Building Fund. Thank you to all who contributed to the evening's success.

Two of our lodges amalgamated on January 12, 2005, in a very impressive ceremony led by our Grand Master. New interest in Masonry has shown that the use of the Grand Lodge programmes are very beneficial, the increased visitation of members in and outside our district is a result of interlodge visitation. Challenge Gavel, the district team and Worshipful Masters dedicated this year.

Most of the lodges hold a Ladies' Night and some are holding joint ones, which proved to be very successful. Fundraising events serve several purposes by increasing participation by the Masonic Families and the Community and provide needed funds to meet rising expenses.

It has been a tremendous, rewarding and pleasurable year to serve this district as your D.D.G.M.

WILSON SOUTH - 10 LODGES

R.W. BRO. LORENZA VARNES

The mini Grand Lodges held around the Province, in my opinion, has many more people recognizing what Masonry is all about and the good work that it does. The Grand Lodge held in Simcoe on February 5th was a huge success. It was the greatest Masonic event that I have ever been involved in. In fact, it was the greatest day in my Masonic career, one that I shall never forget.

This 150th Anniversary year gave us an opportunity to create charitable projects. Wilson South so far has raised about $25,000 for the two hospitals in our district. This money will be donated to the two hospitals for badly needed medical equipment. This will hopefully bring more doctors to this area.

Masonry in Wilson South District is OK thus far. We have of late been getting applications for initiation and affiliation and our members are increasing again. I have found during my year that the lodges that make use of our Grand Lodge programmes fare better than the ones that don't use them. My hopes are that Grand Lodge will continue on with these programmes. I believe the Mentor programme is one of the most important programmes because the informed brother, having an understanding of the ceremony, will continue to attend lodge more regularly.

I chose Masonic Education as my main objective during my year as D.D.G.M. It is my belief that the brother who understands our fundamental principles, ancient landmarks, ancient charges and obligations will be a better Mason for it and enjoy attending lodge more often.

WINDSOR DISTRICT - 9 LODGES

R.W. BRO. EDWARD CAREY

Masonry in Windsor has been experiencing somewhat of a renaissance lately, as some of the Windsor Lodges have been receiving a higher than average number of petitions for initiation. Great Western Lodge, for example, typically receives one or two applications per year. However, during 2004-2005, Great Western received five applications. The above average number of applications for initiation would appear to be more of a trend than anomaly, as other lodges in the district (Windsor and Ontario for instance) are also experiencing a slight increase in the number of petitions for initiation. The trend has also been characterized by an applicant pool that is strongly interested in Masonry and as a result, many have become active participants rather than passive members.

Masonry in Windsor continues to struggle with outdated facilities that were conceived in an era when membership numbers were much higher and, on average, those members were younger than today. The lodge building has proven to be somewhat of a burden as it lacks facilities to accommodate separate smoking areas or convenient parking. Additionally, the lodge building has a very large main ballroom at a time when leasing trends are towards smaller gatherings or groups seeking smaller spaces that are more intimate.

Overall, the district continues to effectively manage its facilities and operations through active participation in groups such as the Temple Board and the Windsor District Masonic Association. These bodies have taken on various initiatives intended to explore facility options and initiatives for cost cutting and revenue generation. One example is the revamping of space in the Masonic Temple that can be leased for training sessions and is often used by a neighbouring hospital.

Windsor District remains very active and strong as the various Masonic bodies, both the Craft Lodges and the ancillary bodies, continue to hold many Masonic and social events that serve to strengthen the entire district. The district as a whole has also been innovative in holding various events that are open to the public. These activities that afford the public an opportunity to see inside of Masonry may, in part, explain the recent growing interest in Masonry in Windsor District.
